SLOW TO SELL GROP

Buying Is Not Easy in the Hop Market.

UNDERTONE IS

Lilienthal, of New York, States His Position-Purchases by London Factors for Speculation.

Advance in Butter.

Quiet and firm describes the condition of the hop market yesterday. No transactions were reported from any part of the state. here was a good demand, export and donestic buyers being out after goods, but few sellers were offering hops and they asked feeling in the country now is builtsh and no concessions are being made by growers.

The following cable was received from London yesterday by Kinber, Wolf & Netter: "Market steady but very little doing."
It is now believed that a good portion of the export buying done here recently was in the nature of speculation by English hop-factors, as the London demand for Pacific Coast hops does not justify the volume of business done or attempted here.

The Oregonian has received the following nmunication from Albert Lillenthal, of

New York, Nov. 26.—(To the Editor.)—I took the liberty this morning of sending you a self-explanatory telegram with reference to the hon situation. I daily read your valuable paper for its general excellent information, and for its more particular hopework.

I notice that it has constantly said that I notice that it has constantly said that bears are forcing the price of hops down, and I wished to make it clear to your growers that they were solely at fault themselves for the depressed condition of the Oregon market. I am entirely frank in saying that my interests lie wholly on the bull's side, and that not by accident, but because I am tremendously impressed by the question of supply and demand.

For some unaccountable resson, Oregon of supply and demand.

For some unaccountable reason, Oregon has been the lowest market in the world.

and this can only be due to the frightened condition of your growers. No matter how much faith we have in the ultimate market, we naturally are not going to pay higher prices than the growers demand, as that would put us at too great a disadvantage in commarison with our competitors.

I have absolutely no hesitation in saying that if the hop market does not go higher, it will be due only to the perfectly unjustified fear and haste on the part of planters in marketing their crop.

ONE CENT ADVANCE IN BUTTER. City Creamery Market Will Go to 37 Cents

There will be an advance of one cent in butter today, making the city creamery price 37 cents. The rise is in part due to the sharp advance that has occurred this week at San Francisco, which has prevented the further shipment of California butter north. The Eastern market is also strengthening. Local supplies are not heavy.

arket yesterday, but no advance from the former price of 43 cents. Oregon receipts began to fail of and the accumulated stocks have been reduced. Eastern offerings are also less free. PRICES ON FORMER LEVEL

Many Wall-Street Operators, However, Are Apprehensive Over the Anti-Trust Programme. Money Market Steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 50.—The movement of prices in the stock market today was ascribed more to technical causes than to the reflection of opinions or causes bearing on values. Today there was a considerable body of absorption by uncovered shorts and by new buyers for long accounts to effect the liquidation which was caused by the events of the last few days. There was a near enough balance between these opposing forces to bring prices back over their own course and to lead to considerable unsettlement of sentiment in considerations.

The professional trader feit the pulse of the market eagerly and their shifting of position had much to do with the variations of the price current. Yesterday's closing break in prices evidently disturbed holders of stocks in widely extended fields. Lenders of money on stock collateral apparently shared this uneasiness to an extent which prompted calls for additional margins and, in some instances, precipitated liquidation. Later railies developed smaller offerings, although the demand for stocks at the recovered level proved meager and cautious.

One varity in the speculation remained un-and cautious.

One party in the speculation remained uncertain whether the seiling on account of the apprehension over the anti-trust programme had spent its force and whether unpropitious factors were satisfactorily cleared up to open the way for renewed advance. The other party feared the overextension of the short interest and possible embarrassment in getting back stocks sold short.

The preparations for the December money settlements, which call for an estimated total of $90,000,000 in New York, had no appreciable effect on the local money market. Bonds were easy. Total sales, par value, $3,820,000. United States as registered de-clined ¼ per cent on call.

There was no let up in the activity at the stockyards yesterday. There was a strong general demand and former prices were well maintained. The receipts for the day were 183 cattle, 175 sheep, 351 hogs and 10 calves.

The best price realized on steers was $4.50 and on cows $3.50. Some calves were moved at $4.50. Hogs again sold at $8.10 for the best.

Among the shippers at the yards yesterday were: Henry Larkin, two cars of hogs and three of cattle, from Almota and Celfax. Wash: O. D. Jones, of Baker City, two cars of cattle; A. R. Ford, of McMinn-villo, one car of hogs; J. E. Zeigler, of Gervals, two cars of sheep; Kinsman & Hall, of Heppner, one car of cattle and hogs: George Perry, of Heppner, one car of cattle, and C. C. Clark, of Arlington, one car of cattle, calves and hogs.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash, Nov. $0.—(Special.)—Never before in the history of sheep raising in Central Washington have the sheep come out of the mountains in as good condition as this Fall. The flock-masters of Klickitat County have just brought their herds out of the hills, where they have had the best of pasturage all Summer. The Fall rains have brought out the grasses on the lower stretches and there will be good grazing almost all Winders and there will be good grazing almost all Winders and the price of sheep and lambs this fall. Thousands of sheep have been turned off during the past year at prices ranging from $5 to $5.50 a head. This has been for lambs, while wethers brought $2.75 to $4. and ewes from $4 to $5.50.

Buyers have been bidding on next year's wool clip, and from bids that have been made, high prices are expected to prevail next Spring. As high as 20 cents is known to have been offered.

Up to Date Shipments This Year Have Been Over $100,000,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The gold export movement showed no signs of abatement today. Before noon $1,100,000 in gold had been engaged for export to Argentina. Half a million for the same destination was taken yesterday, following $2,000,000 engaged last week.

The day's engagements were increased another the contract of the same destination. Wheat Shorts Alarmed by Labeen engaged for export to Argentina. Half a million for the same destination was taken yesterday, following $2,000,000 engaged last week.

The day's engagements were increased another half million this afternoon, feddman. Sachs & Co. taking $250,000 for Argentina and an equal amount for Brazil. Gold exports this year reached the $100,000,000 mark with today's engagements. The total now stands at $100,500,000, of which nearly half, or $45,500,000, has gone to Argentina $3,100,000 to Brazil, $13,900,000 to Paris, $13,750,000 to London. $11,250,000 to Japan and $4,000,000 to Holland. bor Situation.

CHECK MOVEMENT

Prices Advance Over a Cent in the Chicago Plt and Close Almost at the Top-Coarse Grains Are Higher.

CHICAGO, Nov. 50.—The wheat market was a dull and dragging affair until the announcement was made that the switchmen on many of the Western railroads would go on strike tonight unless their demands were granted. This caused great uneasiness among shorts, masmuch as a stoppage of freight would check the movement in the Northwest and further hamper delivery on December contracts. Demand became decidedly active in the final hour and prices quickly advanced more than ic. From $1.05 touched about midday, December rose to $1.06%. May advanced from $1.05 touched about midday, December so $1.05 to $1.06%. The clease was almost at the top, finals on December corn caused weakness in that market part of the day, but a firmer tone developed later in the session, owing to the buige in wheat. Increasing receipts and a decline of 1 to 20 in the price of cash grain were the basis of much of the seiling pressure. The close was at almost the best marks of the day, December being to lower at 55%c. May closed its higher at 61%c.

Trade in oats was dull and steady, prices on all deliveries selling within its range throughout the day. Prices closed a shade higher.

Previsions closed weak with prices 5 27%c higher to 42%c lower.

FIVE YEARS' SUIT REVERSED

Supreme Court Decides Against State Fair, $300 Race Purse Involved.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 30 .- (Special.) -After five years of litigation, E. B. Tongue is likely to get the purse of $300 won by his horse, Lord Lovelace, in the Juvenilo Stake at the State Fair in 1904. After the race the Board of Agriculture refused to pay the amount, partly because there were only two entries in the race and the victory of Lord Lovelace was a "walkover." The case was tried in the Circuit Court of Marion County, Judge Burnett presiding, and resulted in a victory for the State Fair Board. The Supreme Court, in an opinion by Justice Eakin, holds that the trial court erred in sustaining the demurrer of the de-fense and reverses the case, which is re-manded for further proceedings. Desire St. Dennis, an Indian, was drunk when he leased 640 acres of land, part of which he did not own, to Reinhold Har-ras for 10 years. Furthermore, the deras for 19 years. Furthermore, the description of the land in the lease was inaccurate and insufficient, and Indian reservation land cannot be leased without the consent of the Secretary of the Interior. All these points figure in the reversal by the Supreme Court of the case of Sarah Agnes St. Dennis, substituted for Desire St. Dennis, against Reinhold Harras, the opinion being written by Jus-Harras, the opinion being written by Jus tice Eakin. The case came up on appeal from Union County, where it was tried by Circuit Judge Bean. The land in ques-tion is part of the Umatilla reservation. Besire claims that he was lured to Walla Walla, where he signed the lease and that after he sobered up he tried to re pudlate it. Other cases decided were Hewitt Brothers vs. Huffman; affirmed; opinion by McBride; appealed from Union County. Robert Jamieson vs. John Potts; affirmed; opinion by Slater; appealed from Umatilla County. Johnson vs. Curry County; Curry County; reversed; opinion by Moore; appealed from Curry
