CLEVER BOXERS PLEASE CROWDS

Toss of Coin Gives O'Brien Decision Over "Bud" Anderson.

Paul Struck Has Better of Franta and Bout Is Stopped-Dennis, of Multnomah, Beats Stone, of Police, in Wrestling Match

BY W. J. PETRAIN. Despite the snow storm and threat-ened tie-up of the streetcar service, the gymnasium of the Catholic Young Men's Club, at Williams avenue and Morris street, was crowded for the first smoker given by the Albina insti-tution, last night.

In a measure the club was compelled to disappoint the fans, because several of the entries failed to come. One or two telephoned they were snowbound. However, the fast boxing bout between Dan O'Brien and Bud Anderson satisfied everybody, and the crowd hurried through the drifting snow to the street-cars well satisfied after the matches

The O'Brien-Anderson bout easily excelled either of the bouts in which the clever young whirlwind of the Cathelle Club has previously appeared. In Anderson O'Brien met his equal, and while the Catholic Club entry was given the decision by Referee Jack Heiser after the judges failed to decide in favor of either, Tommy Tracey's elever lad is entitled to as much glory as though he had won. If ever there were two more evenly matched youngsters in an amateur bout, the memory of the oldest inhabitant does not recall it.

Under the arbitrary rule of amateur boxing as laid down by the A. A. U., when the judges cannot agree, it is up to the referee to name the victor, so Jack Heiser flipped a coin which he asserts decided in favor of O'Brien. Most of the fans present are hoping these two boys will be brought together in another competi-tion soon. Of equal size and weight, the two lads went at the game in a busines like manner, and displayed more science during the four rounds than has been shown in any amateur bout held here

In recent years.

Tracey's lad will probably have something to say about the 135-pound Pacific Ceast championship among the amateurs if he ever enters such an event. O'Brien put up a much better battle than was required in the recent city championships, where he jumped into local fame.

The other boxing bout was between Paul Struck, of the C. Y. M. C., and Joe Franta, the young unattached boxer, who appeared at the city championships. Struck was the shiftler of the two and succeeded in landing much oftener than the other lad, and about the end of the third round he had Franta going, whereupon the referee stopped the bout and awarded the decision to the Catholic

The wrestling bouts were also interest ing. William Dennis, of the Multnomah Club, defeated L. H. Stone, of the Police Department Athletic Association, in three minutes of fairly interesting grappling. A rattling bout between Leon Fabre, of the Multnomah Club, and J. Puckley, of the Fortland Turn Verein, was wen by the former on points. H. M. Mose, also of Multnomah, defeated J. Schockman, of the Turn Verein, in a speedy bout, know that Al Copeland, his former manager, has nothing further to do with him. St. Yves is still in Seattle.

Although St. Yves could get a profitable engagement in New York City, there is a very good reason for his staying in Seattle. He is trying to collect the money due him for winning the race in Spokane. He says he has $1250 coming to him for winning that race, and so far he has been unable to collect one cent of the amount. the amount.

ATTELL WINS, RESULT HOOTED White Hits Champion Featherweight

at Will, but Loses. MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 6 .- Abe Attell, champion featherweight of the world, was forced to extend himself to the limit to get a decision over Charlie White, of Chicago, in an eight-round contest tonight. The decision was unpopular.

At long range White had all the better of the fighting, landing right and left almost at, will on the champion's head and body, but his blows seemed to lack steam, and only once did he stagger Attell. Attell forced the fighting throughout the clinches, and punched White severely with shortarm jabs to wind and heart.

White proved himself a worthy opponent of the champion, dancing away from his rushes and taking little punishment. Attell was the first to show blood, a vicious right uppercut landing flush on his mouth. Not until the last flush on his mouth. Not until the last round did he draw blood from White's nose and mouth.

The eighth round was the fastest, both men fighting hard. It was on At-tell's superior infighting that Referee Barry based his decision, which was hooted by many in the crowd.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—The American League, which yesterday gave out its of-ficial batting averages, announced today that Tyrus Cobb, of Detroit, who led the league in batting, should have been credited with nine home-run hits, instead of seven, while the number of his two-base hits should have been 33, instead of 35,

SCHEDULE WILL BE MADE

COLLEGE' BASEBALL CHIEFS TO CONFER IN PORTLAND.

Will Abandon Old Haphazard Ways and Adopt Plan to Decide Which Team Leads.

Managers of all the Northwestern College Conference baseball teams are expected to meet in Portland next Saturday for the purpose of arranging schedules for the baseball season of 1910. This conference will, if held, mean a more satisfactory arrangement of games and will insure each institution its proper quota.

In the past the conference colleges have arranged baseball schedules in a haphazard manner which has made it bardly possible to choose the champion team, be cause of the difference in the number of games played and the fallures of certain games played and the failures of certain teams to meet others.

The meeting has been arranged by correspondence, and if all representatives respond to the call, a suitable schedule should be arranged, which will give each team a certain number of games with each other, so that no doubt as to the outcome can result. Whether the championship will be decided on a percentage of won and lost basis will also be determined.

The ordinance declares tuberculosis to be a communicative disease and invests the health officer with unrestricted pow er. He may close up places where the disease is found; he may punish a victim of the "white plague" for carelessness, and if he deems it advisable, he may remove a person forcibly from his home.

After setting forth certain sanitary regulations and rules for the disinfecting of rooms and apartments occupied consumptive, it provides that the afflicted person may be punished for carelessness in exposing others to the disease. The ordinance also declares where such regulations are not or cannot be observed, the patient may be removed, without the consent of the sufferer or his family, by force, if necessary, to such place as the Health Department may designate.

"The most important points to be considered," said President Johnson, "will be a shorter schedule and shorter games.

SHIRLEY SACRIFICES SEVEN LAPS IN SIX-DAY RACE.

Root and Fogler Thrive on Oxygen.

Spectator Drops Dead-Score Tie at 11 P. M.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—An indiscretion in diet cost Shirley, of the British-French team, seven more laps tonight in the sixday bicycle race at Madison Square Garden. He came on the track heavy from a hearty meal and at the same time as Vancol, who cut out such a pace that nonl, who cut out such a pace that other riders, in following him, lapped Shirley repeatedly

The galleries were filled with enthu-siastic people and the smoke was so thick that some of the riders were goggles. One spectator with a weak heart dropped dead from excitement. Root and Fogler were given oxygen by their trainers at each interval of relief

At 11 o'clock the score was a tle at 495 1-5 miles between 14 teams, with Shirley and Germain six laps behind. All the riders, however, were ahead of the record of 493 2-5 miles made last year by Mc-Farland Moran.

Germain relieved Shirley and made a of 483 2-5 miles made last year by Mc-Farland Moran.

Germain relieved Shirley and made a game effort to win back the lost laps, but at 11:54 the team was retired with a score of 483 miles 9 laps, Shirley's indigestion not permitting him to go on again. Germain was given four hours in which to find a partner.

In the 25th hour Stol led a wild scramble to steal a lap. At the end of the sprint it was found that S. Carsprezzi had been lapped 11 times, while the Georget brothers, Anderson and Vanoni and Hill and Stein lost one lap each. Cunlio, Carsprezzi's partner, was unable to resume, and Germain took his place.

At 1 A. M. the score was: McFarland-Clark, Butt-Stol, Boot-Fogler, Lawson-Demara, Walthour-Collins, Mitten-West, Cameron-Krebs, Halstead-Lawrence, Pye-Hehir, Galvin-Keegan, tied at 525 miles 7 leves.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

There has been a marked decrease in pressure over the Pacific Northwest, the storm center still appearing to be off the Oregon-Washington Coast. It is of somewhat unusual intensity, and brisk to high east to southeast winds have been experienced over the Coast States. Rain or snow has fallen over the central portion of the Pacific Slope and the weather has generally not moderated to any great extent, temperatures in this section still being considerably below the normal for this season of the year. The unsettled conditions are continuing and are favorable for continued cold weather Tuesday, with snow and brisk to high east wluds in Western Oregon and Western Washington. There will be a slight moderating of the weather over the rest of this district Tuesday, with snow furries in the eastern portions of Oregon and Washington, and fair weather over Idaho.
