WALLA WALLA, Wash., Dec. 6.—(Special.)—Arrangements are being made for a big celebration at Whitman College on February 16, the date of the 60th anniversary of the institution and the 100th anniversary of the birth of Cushing Eells, founder of the college, who was born and died on the same date.

Engine Explodes; Two Killed.

AMARILLO, Tex., Dec. 6.—A Santa Fe engine hauling a fast freight train exploded under full speed at Berloch, Okla., yesterday, killing Engineer Ellis and Fireman Saunders, both of Amarillo. The body of the engineer was blown 300 feet away and that of the fireman was found 75 feet from the track.

BOY SHOT AT TURKEY SHOOT

Youth, Setting Traps, Raises Head and Is Wounded. VANCOUVER, Wash., Dec. 6.—(Special.)—At a turkey shoot held at Amboy, 30 miles northeast of Vancouver yesterday, Harry Hooper's scalp and hat were filled with fine bird shot. The men were firing at clay pigeons, those making the best scores to get the turkey. Hooper was setting the traps. He raised his head above the embankment just as a gunner fired a shot.

Deranged Woman Cared For.

GLENDALE, Or., Dec. 6.—(Special.)—An elderly woman whose mind is apparently deranged was found wandering along the railroad track near here this morning. When questioned, she said her name was Helen Slater, and her home was Troy, N. Y., and that she was on the way to her sister's home in Cincinnati, O. She could not tell how she came to this place. When found she was just leaving town in a blinding snow storm. The county authorities purchased a ticket for her to Roseburg, and sent her there in care of the County Judge.

The girl brought this suit for half the place as half of her mother's and the court gives her what she asks, except she must repay Lewis one-half of the taxes he has paid, with interest.

According to an English court a test for neurasthenia is to make a man stand up with head erect and eyes closed, and whistle. A neurasthenic subject, it is said, cannot do this.

Hooper was thought at first to be killed, but he soon regained consciousness. His wounds, though painful, are not fatal.

"I will give you until tonight to live," is the warning in an anonymous letter received today by Mrs. George Mann. She is prostrated with fear.

A few evenings ago Mrs. Mann was called to the door, when a yelling woman threw acid in her face, saying: "It will burn your eyes out."

Mrs. Mann's face was burned seriously.
