

JURY REBUDDLED, MORSE DECLARES

Banker Pleads for Trial Before Men Sober Enough to Weigh Evidence.

COMPLAINS OF SENTENCE

No Business Man Would Rely Upon Result of Conference Conducted as Were Juror's Deliberations, He Avers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—"If the Government has a good case it can prove it again, but if I am denied a new trial there is no remedy for me against the wrongs and misconduct of which I think the special officers and jury were guilty."

Victim Demanded, He Says. "What the end will be I am not able to foretell," Morse continued, "whether servitude under a sentence which is rarely imposed, even upon a murderer—or a new trial with a chance to submit my case to another jury after the passions of public have cooled and the cry for a victim has ceased. If it be servitude in a distant state and climate, away from my family and friends I shall meet it with firm consciousness that I have not violated the law or done wrong to a single individual."

Another Chance Asked. Morse went into the charges against the jury and special government agents in detail—charges heretofore made by his counsel—and concluded as follows: "I leave to any fair-minded citizen the verdict against me should stand or whether I should have another chance before another jury surrounded by different influences. Not a business man in New York would have the result of any business conference in which the members conducted themselves as this jury did."

OLYMPIA, Wash., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—By decision of the State Supreme Court today, F. G. Mackintosh and wife failed in their attempt to prevent condemnation of right of way across their lands in Pacific County, sought by the Pacific & Eastern Railroad Company, which is purposing to build a line from South Bend to Chehalis. The condemnation was attacked on the grounds that the company had built but a few miles of road in many years, that its capital stock ownership did not appear, and that other corporations held stock in this company.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—One of the last actions of the Ministerial Association of the Vancouver district of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which closed a two days' session here at noon today, was to arrange for all the churches in the district to hold an old-fashioned Methodist love feast on the first Sunday in the new year. LEFT LYING WITH CORPSE IN STATION OVER AN HOUR.

Vancouver Authorities Fail to Act and Austrian Miner Has Most Brutal Treatment.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Dec. 9.—(Special.)—Because nobody seemed to have any authority to act, an unconscious man, badly injured, lay beside a corpse in the Northern Pacific Railroad station here this afternoon for an hour and a half before an ambulance was summoned and he was moved to a hospital, where medical aid could be given him. Eventually the Chief of Police and Dr. Guerrin took it upon themselves to call an ambulance and have the man taken where he could be cared for; and at a late hour tonight it was said that, though the man is still unconscious, he would in all probability recover.
