STAMP SALES CONTINUE

BOOTHS ASSIGNED IN FIGHT ON TUBERCULOSIS.

Campaign Will Be Continued During Coming Week With Renewed Vigor.

One of the duties of the American National Red Cross imposed by its charter is "to continue and carry on a system of National relief in time of peace, and apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same."
"The greatest pestilence that exists today in this and all other countries is tuberculosis, and to devise measures for preventing it requires the united forces of government, National and private," said a member of the organization yesterday. "Those, therefore, who are really interested in this great struggle should do their part, and do it cheerfully. That part, in the local situation, consists in buying generously of the Red Cross Christmas stamps; in placing at least one on each letter and package from now until Christmas, and in interesting one's friends and relatives throughout the state in the stamp. The Christmas stamp workers in Portland have found that a personal letter to a friend in some other town in Oregon often results in an immediate order for Red Cross stamps from that particular place."

The campaign will not be abated during the coming week. Those in charge of the various booths today are:
Reward Hotel—Mrs. J. Arch Stewart, assisted by Miss Henrietta Elliot and Miss Lullie Hall.
Hotel Oregon—Forenoon, Mrs. Fielding Kelly, Mrs. S. G. Reed; afternoon, Mrs. Sanderson Reed, Mrs. Fielding Kelly.
Imperial Hotel—Mrs. Arthur Chance, Perkins Hotel—Mrs. Moylan, assisted by Mrs. Cranston and Mrs. Reed.
Portland Hotel—Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Weinstein, Miss Gracia E. Wald.
Charleston's Five and Ten-Cent Store—Mrs. Eustetter and assistants.
Woodard, Clarke & Co.—Forenoon, Miss Judith Scott, Miss Florence Wolfe; afternoon, Mrs. Fred Sells, Miss Belle Falk.
Postoffice—Miss Doyle and assistants.
Olds, Wortman & King—Booth under direction of Mrs. Warren E. Thomas for one week; forenoon, the Misses Elliott; afternoon, Miss Gracia E. Wald.
Lippman, Wolfe & Co.—Miss Susan Clarke, Miss Houghton.
Meier & Frank Co.—Forenoon, Mrs. Marion Dolph, Miss Nan Robertson; afternoon, Mrs. J. Ernest Lathrop, Mrs. Walker Mathewson.
The Christmas Red Cross stamps do not carry mail, but with the good

NAGEL TO AID SKINNER

O. R. & N. Traveling Agent Joins Oregon & Washington.

With the establishment of general offices by the Oregon & Washington at Seattle on January 1, J. R. Nagel, for several years traveling passenger agent for the O. R. & N. with offices in that city, will become chief clerk of the passenger department of the Oregon & Washington, under W. D. Skinner, who has been appointed general freight and passenger agent for the Puget Sound extension of the Harriman system.
Creation of the office of traffic manager for the Oregon & Washington and the O. R. & N., and the appointment of R. B. Miller, general freight agent of the Harriman lines in this territory, to that position, coupled with the other promotions in the traffic department of the system, will be followed by other changes among the various assistants in these offices.

While You Are Doing Your Xmas Shopping

You may not care to take time to cook the heavy roasts of meat—then go to a Smith market for something extra choice and exceedingly cheap in beefsteak. Buy a Sirloin Steak, a Tenderloin Steak, or a small Porterhouse Steak. They don't take long to prepare, and your family has a tasty, appetizing and wholesome dinner. Fancy getting a fine Sirloin Steak weighing 2 1/2 pounds for 25c! You can get it at any Smith market. Folks coming to our Alder street market must be sure to get in the right place. See that Smith's name is over the door. Don't go into a Beef Trust market. You know what the Beef Trust is.
