DEACONESS HOME ASKED

Board of Nine Requests General Body to Establish Institution Here. Adopting resolutions favoring the establishment of a Deaconess Home in Portland, the Deaconess Board of Nine, Oregon Conference, in session at the Taylor-street Methodist Church yesterday afternoon, instructed its secretary, Mrs. T. S. McDaniel, to write a letter to the General Deaconess Board, which meets in New York soon, asking permission to establish a home here. This request will, in turn, be referred to the General Conference. It is believed the request will be granted. Only in a modest way at first will the

ALLEGED SLAYER IS HELD

Grand Jury to Investigate McLinden Killing—Brother Prisoner. Charged with the murder of his brother, James McLinden, at 308 Constance street, Ownie McLinden was arraigned yesterday before Judge Bennett and held to await the action of the grand jury on the charge. Fred Schideman, next-door neighbor to the McLindens, testified that he had seen a fight between the brothers, and that Ownie had struck his brother on the head with a fence picket. At the coroner's inquest, James Byrnes and his sister, who lived in the house with James McLinden, testified that

YOUNG WOMAN DIES SOUTH

Mrs. Margaret Wither, of Eugene, Dead in San Francisco. Word has been received here of the death in San Francisco of Mrs. Margaret Wither, born Cundiff, of Eugene. Wither was born in Albany, and had passed nearly all her life in that city and Eugene. She was a graduate of the University of Oregon of the class of '07. The year following her graduation she taught in the High School at La Grande. She was married July 25, 1900, to Alexander Wither, of San Francisco. She died Sunday of pneumonia, after an illness of several weeks. She was 35 years old. Her aged mother, Mrs. Kate

CAT'S EYE GOUGED OUT

Humane Society Seeks Boys Who De-light in Cruelty. The attention of the officers of the Humane Society was called to an instance of extreme cruelty to animals yesterday by the tenants of an apartment-house on Wayne street, where a cat was found with both eyes gouged out. Officers of the society chloroformed the animal and put it out of its misery, and are now trying to apprehend the boys who are suspected of the act of cruelty. For kidney trouble use Oregon Herbs. Cure headaches.

CONTEST WAXES WARM

Hundreds have entered the voting contest for the $500 Kimball Piano at McAllen & McDonnell's. This beautiful instrument can be seen in our Morrison-street window. One vote given with every ten-cent purchase. Remember this is not a raffle or a drawing, but simply voting contest.
