APPLE ORCHARDS OF OREGON are attracting people from all parts of the globe. Oregon apples bring much higher prices than from any other part of the world, owing to their fine color, flavor and keeping qualities. The orchardist of the present day makes more money on his original investment than the average business man. Orchards produce on an average over $500 per acre each year—an equivalent of 10 per cent on a valuation of $5000 per acre. Statistics prove that 75 per cent of the Eastern people who purchase fruit lands in Oregon are conservative, shrewd business men who buy bearing orchards ranging in price from $1500 to $2500 per acre. These orchards net the purchaser from 20 to 50 per cent annually. However, the man with moderate means prefers to buy an orchard tract to be planted and cared for until the orchard comes into bearing. We offer Woodburn orchard tracts 28 miles from Portland, planted and taken care of for four years at extremely low figures, giving you five years time to pay for the land, besides we guarantee you a yearly income while paying for the land. If you intend to purchase apple land, see our liberal contract, inspect the land, then judge for yourself. Our offices are open all day and evenings. Woodburn Orchard Company, Inc., 665-56 Henry building.

Cahill went home in an intoxicated condition and after heading and kicking his wife, he was taken to bed without removing any of his clothing. When Patrolman Bales, who made the arrest, roused Cahill, he called the police and found Cahill in bed and was forced to drag him out.

VANDERVOORT IS RETURNED.—D. L. Vandervoort, an advertising specialist, charged by George K. McCord, a resident of a local weekly, with having collected $215 and failed to make returns of this amount, was returned yesterday morning to the custody of Detective Sneyd at Pasadena, Cal., where he had been discovered and arrested. Vandervoort's case will come up in the Municipal Court for a hearing today.

C. E. TO ENTERTAIN TONIGHT.—Members and friends of the Young Woman's and Young Men's Christian Associations are invited to attend the entertainment given by the members of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor in the First Congregational Church tonight. Ella M. Bennett's famous play "The Lovable Burglar," will be produced in addition to a diversified musical programme.

SCOWDWELLER ARRESTED.—Because he refused to move upon the order of the owners of the riverfront property Joseph Liebertritt, a scowdweller at the foot of East Salmon street, was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Sneyd. Liebertritt recently issued an order requiring scowdwellers to remove from within certain limits and Liebertritt would not obey the order.

MANAGERS GIVE BANQUET. Laurelhurst Company Dines Its Corps of Salesmen. At the Oregon Grill last night the sales managers of the Laurelhurst Company gave a dinner to their salesmen. The table was decorated with chrysanthemums and the evening was furnished by the Royal Hawaiian Band.

Paul C. Murphy, vice-president of the company, introduced the speakers of the evening. The first speaker was James B. Melkie, who, speaking for the officers of the company, expressed appreciation of the good work done by the salesmen. H. F. Boyer spoke on the great advantage a man who owns his own home has over the renter. He compared the conditions, showing that the home-owner occupies a more prominent place in the community and has standing among his neighbors that cannot be acquired by those who appear to be but temporary residents. Officers to address the gathering were: W. H. Erdahl, Earle F. Mead, W. C. Koehne, L. W. Burlingame, J. R. Moore, L. Allison and Fred Hungerford. F. S. Hickey entertained the diners with a number of songs. The sales manager, Frank F. Mead, closed the programme with a talk on "Optimism," saying that "nine-tenth of
