SCOTT SUIT DROPPED

DENTIST WITHOUT LICENSE, PROTESTS STATE BOARD.

Three Trials Prove Ineffective and Judge Bennett Orders Defendant Dismissed.

After three trials by jury in the Municipal Court, Dr. L. N. Scott, a dentist, was discharged last night by Judge Bennett, the third and last jury hearing the evidence having failed to find a verdict. Dr. Scott was charged with violating the dental laws in that he had practiced in this city without having secured a license from the State Board of Dental Examiners. Judge Bennett said that as both the defendant and the state had already been put to considerable expense and that three juries had failed to convict him, he considered it his duty to dismiss the case.
Dr. Scott, as was brought out in the trials, is a dentist of 25 years' experience. He came to Portland just after enactment of the new dental laws, and although he applied to the dental board for an examination to entitle him to practice this was refused, he swore, and the $25 which he sent in to the board with his application for permission to take the examination was never returned to him.

The new law enacted in 1905 provided that no person not a graduate of the National Association of Dental Colleges would be permitted to take the examination except those who had been practicing dentistry in Oregon for more than five years prior to the enactment of the law. Dr. Scott and his attorney have contended that this was an unreasonable and unjust provision of the statute and was engineered by local dentists to prevent entry into the local field of outside dentists. Dr. Scott declares he passed the examination in Ohio and practiced there for many years before coming here.
Attorney Fowler, who appeared for Dr. Scott, declared that a majority of the members of the State Board of Dental Examiners are not graduates of association colleges, and that the board is wrongfully withholding the $25 which Dr. Scott sent in with his application for permission to take the examination.

THUGS AND THIEVES ROVE

THEY HOLD UP CITIZENS AND ROB STORES AT NIGHT.

Sailor Relieved of $10—Chinese Store Yields $250—Burglars and Sneak-Thieves Many.

According to the reports rendered the police, crime has been on the increase during the past 48 hours. Holdups, burglaries and petty thefts are among the things complained of.
Archie Gillies, a sailor on the steamer Bannockburn, was held up on his way to his vessel near the mills of the Eastern & Western Lumber Company on Monday night. The thug took $10 from him and allowed him to proceed. No revolver was shown, but the robber was leading a bulldog by a string. He was about 32 years old, 5 feet 8 inches tall, dressed roughly, and wore a dark, sort hat. He was of light complexion and had a light mustache.
Burglars broke into the store of Song Chong, 107 North Seventh street, on Monday night and stole $250 in cash. An
