Stenographer Utilizes Candy Money to Purchase Present-Day Household Luxuries.

MISS CAMERON, who is one of the stenographers in District Attorney Cameron's office, is some day going to develop into a financier and a business woman of renown.

When the New Year comes around it is probable that all records for mail, incoming and outgoing, will have been broken at the Portland Postoffice.

The rush is on at the Portland postoffice for the holiday season. Every hour during the day the lobby is lined with people for turns at the stamp and registry windows, all armed with postcards and small, upon which they are anxious to have determined the amount of postage.
