

OUR 347TH FRIDAY ECONOMY SALE

This is the last but one of our ECONOMY SALES before Christmas. As a result, the offerings have been made unusually attractive. Not only is there an infinite variety of economy suggestions made, but Christmas, as well, has been a great incentive toward the cutting of prices on all holiday goods as low as is consistent with safe merchandising. It is believed that this sale will eclipse all previous records owing to the close proximity of Christmas and to the many remarkably good things that are herein suggested. Shop forenoons if you desire the best service and selections.
