BACH BLOCKS BAD CATCH

Boarding-House Keeper Saves Innocent Man From Jail.

Arrested at 7 o'clock yesterday morning for having stolen two loaves of bread from a grocery store. Graham street and Union avenue, Charles Wenzel an East Side apartment-house janitor, was discharged later in the Municipal Court because he proved that he had been sent after the bread by Fred Bach, of 644 Union avenue, keeper of the boarding-house, where Wenzel dwelled.

Complaints received from the grocery-man that a bread thief had been visiting the breadbox at this corner for more than a week led Patrolman Evert to lay in wait for the man. When Wenzel came along the policeman seized him. After Wenzel had been brought into court, however, it was ascertained that Wenzel was not the thief and that his story was true.

The groceryman sent word that Wenzel had made arrangements for the latter to get his bread from the box before the store opened.

"Have you a weak throat? If so, you cannot be so careful. You cannot begin treatment too early. Each cold makes you more liable to another and the last is always the hardest to cure. If you will take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at the outset you will be saved much trouble. Sold by all dealers."

TRAINING SCHOOL IS PLAN

Evangelical-United Brethren Church Outlines New Project.

At the meeting of the Evangelical-United Brethren Ministerial Association yesterday in the First English Evangelical Church, East Sixth street, Rev. C. C. Poling brought up the matter of conducting a Summer interdenominational training school in Portland for one week in 1910, for the instruction of ministers and laymen. The project has been under consideration for some time. Rev. Mr. Poling explained that such training school would have the benefit of a number of prominent men who had come to Portland next year. Rev. R. S. Showers, of the First United Brethren Church, and Rev. N. Shupp, of the Milwaukee Evangelical Church, spoke in favor of the movement.

It was reported by the ministers of the three denominations represented that all expected prominent men to come to Portland next year, and from these lectures can be heard. The association endorsed the movement provided that it be found practicable. Rev. H. C. Shaffer, Rev. Theo. Schauer and Rev. C. C. Poling were appointed to look into the matter and report at the next meeting of the association.

It was decided to meet twice a month hereafter—the second and fourth Tuesdays, at 10:30 A. M.—in the Y. M. C. A. building. The association voted to make the next meeting, in January, one for the discussion of educational matters. In the absence of Rev. H. C. Shaffer, the president, Rev. H. A. Deck presided.

CARS BUMP; GIRL VICTIM

Miss Caroline Dipple Injured Near Bridge Approach.

Miss Caroline Dipple, 257 Hancock street, was the victim of a streetcar collision yesterday morning at the west approach to the Steel bridge and sustained painful internal injuries.

She was on Upper Albina car #17 and was in the act of stepping from it on the grade of the approach to the bridge, where the car had come to a stop for the passengers to alight for Gliman street. Car #48 of the Mississippi avenue line coming in the rear, slid down the steep grade and struck the other car with great force. The motorman of the first car was thrown off his feet to the floor. Brakes had been applied to the rear car but the wheels had slipped down the slippery tracks. Miss Dipple was thrown to the ground, the hand-rail striking her in the side. She received injuries to the head and chest.

The best and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They do the work whenever you require their aid. These tablets change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, gloominess into joyousness. Their action is so gentle one doesn't realize they have taken a purgative. Sold by all dealers.
