Really Married to Leopold by Religious Ceremony in 1908, Is Averred.

CHILDREN POSSESS RIGHTS

Bitter Struggle For Throne of Belgilm Said to Be Impending. Beautiful Morganatic Wife Described Far Above Station.

PARIS, Dec. 30.—In an interview tonight M. Pfeard, local adviser of the Baroness Vaughan, when asked if the marriage of King Leopold and Baroness
Vaughan was effective, replied:
"The Baroness has really been married by religious rites; that I can attest;"
"Then have the children of the union rights to the throne?"
"Anything may happen and, believe ne, the affair is only beginning,"
"And the royal family?"

Long Fight Is Begun.

"Is preparing to use every chicanery to obtain the revocation of the gifts to she indirect heirs through the courts. I can tell you the fight will last a long time, for the Baroness will fight. It is her duty to do so. Baroness Vaughan is a remarkably intelligent woman, far above the average. She represents at the above the average. She possesses an as-tonishing gift of comprehension and

Baroness Vaughan is described by one who accompanied her from Brussels as young and heautiful and dignified, despite her humble origin. According to the same authority the Baroness took nothing with her from her villa but her personal

She was most distressed by the glare of the sudden publicity to which she was ex-posed while awaiting in an automobile outside a bank before leaving for Paris.

Marriage Is Confirmed.

A map employed on Leopold's Cape Ferret estate related to the Matin's Nice correspondent that he had accompanied King Leopold and Baroneas Vaughan in an automobile to the Franciscan chapel at Bordighere, in February, 1908, where he asserts a marriage was celebrated. The superior of the Franciscans, when seen by the correspondent, refused either to confirm or deny this statement.

Zelayan troops all along the line this morning. The battle will be in the bush. Estrada's soldlers are in high spirits and cheered as they left on lighters towed by tugs. General Luis Mona is advancing in an endeavor to outflank General Gonzales, who now commands the Zelayans. Generals Forres Diaz. Alfredo Diaz, Chamorro and Matuty have all entered the bush. The first movement of troops began last night and the last detachment got away at 9 o'clock this morning.

General Gonzales has his forces scatieved in a long line for eight miles between Recree and Mico Junction. General Estrada expects by surrounding and harassing them with small detachments to compet the Zelayans to leave the trenches. His plan of battle does not include an assault for he expects to shut off the food supply and by sharpshooting and bombarding to make the enemy's

"In the six hours spent in court I saw enough to convince me beyond the smallest doubt of the absolute necessity for women's suffrago—for the direct influence of women over judges, juries and policemen, over everything and brerybody connected with the so-called court of justice. "A hundredfold was it impressed upon me in the cases of the women of the streets who were brought before the judge. Every woman who sits complacently amidst the comforts of her home, or who moves with perfect freedom and independence in her own protested social circles and says, I have all the rights I want, should spend one night in the Jefferson Market Court. She would then know that there are other women who have no rights which man or law or so-

MORE TROUBLE DUE FOR COOK

Explorers' Club Will Say He Did Not Climb Mount McKinley.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—The disappearance of Dr. Frederick A. Cook is likely to cost him dearly. The committee of the Explorers' Club, which for more than two months, has been investigating Dr. Cook's reputed ascent of Mount McKinley, in 1996, has completed the examination. H. Marshall Saville, chairman, does not deny that the report will be unfavorable.

POOR FARM NOT FOR 'REDS'

I. W. W. Members Barred From County Support, Say Authorities.

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 20 .- (Special.) -There is no room at the County Poor Winter at county expense, At the office of the County Commissioners this morning there were several applications for admission to the Poor Farm, the majority of whom were members of the red-flag society. Commissioner Joe PhiNips made the customary inquiry as to who the men were, how long they had been in Spokane and where they came from Some of the applicants admitted that they had reached Spokane by the brake-beam route, and were promptly told by Mr. Phillips that the chance to get out of town that way was just as good, if not better, than it was to get here.

"To avoid harboring at the Poor Farm transients who drift in here for the Winter after squandering their Summer's earnings, the Commissioners have adopted a new plan," stated Mr. Phillips this morning. "A dependent or indigent who applies for admission to the poorthouse must have some reference. He must show that he is a resident and not a floater or a hobo, and must be recommended by some reliable party." morning there were several applica-

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 20.—(Special.)

-Police and Coroner's investigations into the mysterious death of Mrs. Dorothy Woodhead, whose body was found in Lake Union Sunday meening with a leg and arm dismembered, have cleared the mystery of alleged murder. It has been shown that she wandered ento the trestle and was run down by an approaching car. That she was not observed by the con

That she was not observed by the conductor or motorman is explained by the fact that she evidently laid down on the track. She had been drinking during the night. The police have learned that she has a husband and son who are thought to be in England, where she met and married her husband. A letter was found in her effects from her husband which shows that the couple were estranged.
