"I halt to yee. "I have two more converts to baptize, then Ariel will come," he continued. "I had a vision in 1990, and saw my life down to the present time. Thingy have hoppened just as I saw them. In that vision I baptized Arie's bride three times, first as a little girl, then as a girl 16 years old, and then as a young woman 50 years old. I must baptize at least 16 in cet robes, because Ariel's bride is to be 16 years old or over. I baptized 20, but I sent out certificates for them to sign, saying they belonged to no relig-ion, creed or political party, and only 10 came back signed. I baptized four in red robes the other day, while 10 more stood by and looked on. I baptized them into Christianity-not into it. Then I wrote on their foreheads with my finger dipped in water the name Ariel. Unless they renounce their religion, creed "I have two more converts to haptize,
