MINOR CLUBS LOSE

Commission Refuses to Alter Rules for Purchase.

COST CONSIDERED TOO BIG

Players Bought by Minor Leagues Who Do Not Report September 1, Are Subject to Draft Where They Played August 20.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 3.—In a decision reached today by Thomas J. Lynch, president of the National League, and B. Johnson, president of the American League, and August Herrmann, of Cincinnati, comprising the National baseball commission, the latter body tonight denied the request of Class C and D leagues for an amendment of the rule concerning the purchase of minor league players.

The attention of the commission was called to the case by J. H. Farrell, secretary of the National Association, who submitted a resolution offered at the recent meeting held at Memphis by the Class C and D leagues requesting that rule 26 be amended so that minor league players can be purchased by a minor league club from another without having such players report to the purchasing club on or before the commencement of the major league drafting season.

As the rule now stands, when minor league players are purchased by one minor league club from another, and they do not report by September 1, they are subject to draft from the clubs that they are with on August 20.

The commission in its ruling says: "We reiterate that, if the rule were changed so as to cover the request now made, it would be detrimental not only to the major league and Class A clubs, but all players operating under organized baseball as well."

"The statement recently issued by the National commission shows the amounts expended by major league clubs alone last year for drafted and purchased players to be about $300,000, and in addition to this, if all the players in question are to be retained, payments amounting to practically $50,000 additional are made. This shows that the minor league interests have been fully protected. The request of the Class C and D clubs is therefore refused."

VERNONS GRAB EASTERN MEN

Hogan Gets Brashear and Carlisle on Year's List.

Happy Hogan, the eccentric manager of the Vernon club, Los Angeles' continuous baseball appendix, has signed up Roy Brashear and Walter Carlisle, two American Association players who have evidently outlived their usefulness in that circuit, but Happy calmly announces that he is strengthening the "hog-wallowers" for the coming race.

Roy Brashear is an elder brother of Norman Brashear, who has been with Seattle, Los Angeles and Vernon in the Pacific Coast League since 1903, and Roy is said to be something of a second-sacker.

Walter Carlisle, the other new addition picked up at a "bargain" by Happy Hogan, is the outfielding chap who set the Coast League on fire a couple of more years by leading the organization in the number of homers made during the season. Carlisle hit so well that year that he was drafted by one of the big league clubs and staid there long enough to get a good food whence he was relegated to Kansas City, from which club Hogan negotiated his release.

MURRAY HOLDS TO CONTRACT

Deposed Philadelphia Manager Demands $15,000 Salary.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3.—W. J. Murray, deposed manager of the Philadelphia National League Baseball Club, and Horace Fogel, new president of that organization, failed to agree today on terms on which Murray would surrender his contract with the club.

This contract, made by former owners of the club, calls for the payment of $7500 a year to Murray, and has two years to run. The new owners of the club are anxious to install another manager, and they offered Murray $5000 to resign without litigation. This Murray refused to do, and said he would put his case in the hands of the National commission.

Another meeting will be held tomorrow, at which counsel representing the new owners, Murray and the former owners, will consider the legal aspects of the case. Besides the $15,000 claimed by Murray on contract, the club owes him $1500 on last year's salary.

NATIONALS ARE TAKING VOTE

Question of Keeping Walver Requests Secret Is Issue.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—National League club owners are taking a mail vote on the question of whether a manager or president shall be required to keep secret requests for waivers on his players sent him by other clubs. There has been complaint from some clubs that the present practice does much damage by giving away their plans in advance.

A circular letter has also been sent out by President Lynch, of the National League, asking club owners to fix dates when their teams will have to vote on the question of whether to adopt a resolution last month to have a limit of the off-season and of 25 later, no dates were specified.

ROLLER IS SICK MAN

BLOOD POISONING THEATENS WRESTLER-PHYSICIAN.

Suffering With Bolls, He Keeps on Wrestling Until Condition Becomes Serious.

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—(Special.)—Dr. B. F. Roller, the Seattle wrestler-physician, is at Mercy Hospital with a threatened attack of blood poisoning. He underwent a slight operation this afternoon and the attendants at the hospital report his condition now serious.

As a result the Jeffries combination of athletes went on toward the West without him.

Roller had been suffering for a week with boils, but attended to them himself. He kept on wrestling every night and did not pay much attention to the trouble until yesterday, when he discovered they were infected. Realizing the seriousness of it, he then went immediately to the hospital.

CHICAGO DOUBTS JEFF

BIG AND STRONG, SAY FANS, BUT VITAL FIRE IS LACKING.

Stage Antics Appear Studied and Fail to Convince Crowd That Old-Time Form Is Back.

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—(Special.)—Many of Chicago's fight fans are still unconvinced that Jeffries will be the fistic king of five years ago when he meets Jack Johnson July 4. The big fellow cavorted and danced before a critical crowd at the Coliseum and has jumped farther West, where he continues to go through his stage antics each night. But he has failed to convince.

He appears strong and hearty, but he moves in a manner that indicates much study and painstaking rehearsal. One old-time ring follower had this to say about the Californian:

"I can only say that I am happy in feeling that the evidence will soon be placed before the jury and the people of Oregon, who have been such good friends to me for the 42 years I have been in public life. The people of Douglas County sent me to the Legislature then and they keenly sympathize with me at this time. I appreciate it."

"Colonel A. S. Worthington will be here some time tomorrow and then there will be a conference between John M. Gairin, Mr. Worthington and myself. Colonel Worthington is the attorney who defended me during the two and a half months which my former trial consumed and which was held at Washington. He is a Grand Army man, very wealthy and one of the leading lawyers of the bar of the District of Columbia. He is coming because of his friendship for me, more than the fee I am able to pay him. Being so familiar with the details of the case he is in a position to be of great help in this trial."

INDEPENDENCE WINS GAME
 Newport Loses on Frozen Field by Score of 11 to 0.

NEWPORT, Or., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—Independence defeated Newport yesterday in a hard-fought football game on a frozen field by 11 to 0. Among others Independence had on her team Ed Wallace, next year's captain of O. A. C.; Huntley, an All-Northwest O. A. C. man, and Williams an old O. A. C. star. Newport's team was composed of citizens of Newport and a few Southern Pacific surveyors located at Yaquina.

The game opened with Allison making a long run and Pomeroy making a spectacular tackle just as he approached the goal. Early in the first half Captain Sparks of Newport, was knocked senseless while tackling Williams and had to leave the game.

The line-up was as follows:
 Newport. Position Independence.
 Branch ..... C ..... Foster
 Pomeroy ..... I. G. ..... D. Emerick
 Englebriten ..... L. T. ..... M. F. Blatter
 Guth ..... R. G. ..... Seaman
 Weath ..... R. E. ..... Wallace
 Benedict ..... Q ..... Hester
 Sparks ..... K ..... Bayers

RIVALRY OVER SEATTLE MEET
 Wrestling Representative Worries Multnomah Boys—Tryout Soon.

Considerable rivalry is being exhibited between the members of Instruction Eddie O'Connell's wrestling classes over who is to represent the Multnomah Club in the 145-pound wrestling division against the Seattle Athletic Club. Four clever grapplers are eligible to compete at this weight, and on this account a tryout tournament will likely be arranged for some night this week at the Multnomah gym. The two most likely candidates are H. M. Mose and Oscar Franke.

Seattle has named the 115-pound wrestling class as its choice of the grappling events, and the heavier weight is Multnomah's selection. In the boxing bouts Multnomah named 195 pounds, while Seattle selected 145 pounds as desirable. It is said the Puget Sound contingent has a corking good boxer at the welter-weight limit, and against this man Multnomah will pit C. C. Ralph. Merritt McCarl will represent the club in the midweight division.

HERMANN IN CITY

Ex-Congressman Hopes for Vindication at Trial.

CASE OPENS MONDAY NEXT

Though He Refuses to Discuss Evidence of Coming Defense, Ex-Commissioner of Land Declares He Expects to Win Fight.

Binger Hermann, ex-Representative in Congress for Oregon and ex-Commissioner of the General Land Office, arrived in Portland yesterday morning.

He will remain until after the trial of the charges against him, now pending in the United States Court. The trial which begins next Monday morning concerns the withdrawal of the lands comprising the Blue Mountain forest reserve.

The Douglas County statesman appeared in a suave and placid as at any time in his distinguished career and as he was recognized in the lobby of the Imperial Hotel many of his old friends pressed forward in greeting.

HERMANN WELCOMES PRESS

"It is not a pleasure to me to refuse an extended interview with the reporters," said Mr. Hermann, "and I am anxious for the time to come when I can give the newspapers the courtesy of a detailed statement. It would be improper at this time to discuss the evidence which may be presented by either side of the case."

"I can only say that I am happy in feeling that the evidence will soon be placed before the jury and the people of Oregon, who have been such good friends to me for the 42 years I have been in public life. Ben Pettigrew, proprietor of a pawnshop on Third street, near Burnside, was arrested by Patrolmen Montgomery and Long late yesterday afternoon and taken to the City Jail, charged with larceny.

Strauss says that he went into the pawnbroker's shop and that Pettigrew offered him a watch for $15. The watch exhibited he said was a good one. He did not want to buy and Pettigrew urged him to make a bid for it. Strauss offered $5 for it and Pettigrew, he said, accepted, and when he wrapped up the watch he changed it.

Strauss repaired at once to the office of the District Attorney, where Deputy District Attorney Page, after listening to his story, issued a warrant for Pettigrew's arrest.
