LADD PAYS MORE CLAIMS

LIQUIDATION OF 444 ACCOUNTS REQUIRES $46,000.

Title Guarantee & Trust Company Property May Be Disposed of by Last of February.

Last of February.

Within the next 30 days William M. Ladd will have paid all of the claims of depositors in the failed Title Guarantee & Trust Company ranging between $250 and $500. An order to that effect was entered by Judge Wolverton in the United States Court yesterday morning. The order is based on the guarantee which William M. Ladd filed with the court in January, 1908, in which he agreed to warrant all such depositors against loss, payments to be made within two years at his pleasure, and all claims to be assigned to him at the time of liquidation. Interest will be paid on all claims from November, 1908, to date at the rate of 4-per.

A report filed with the court shows in the hands of Receiver R. S. Howard, Jr.

In petitioning the court for an order permitting him to pay off all claims not exceeding $500 each, Mr. Ladd states that he is assured that valuable assets of the Title Guarantse & Trust Company will be disposed of within the next 60 days, from which he will be reimbursed. It will require from $115.000 to $125,000 to meet the claims which are proposed to be reduced and will be advanced from the private funds of the petitioner. Payments of 10 and 20 the 10 Granges of Multnomah County
