PENSILESS PIONEER DHEADS POORHOUSE.

James Ennis, penniless ploneer and Indian War veteran, who was found starving an the west bank of the Willamette Rivæ, opposite Sellwood, is being cared for by Rev. D. A. Thompson, of the Preshyterian Church. The brotherhood of the church erected a comfortable cabin for him and ufraiahed it with warm bedding and plenty of food. Dr. Thompson suppled him with a suit of clothes, an overcoat, gloves and underwear, and the coat, gloves and underwear, and the brotherhood keeps him suplied with food and fuel. Ennis is 72 years old and feeble, and, said Dr. Thompson, cannot remain where he is much longer. Dr. Thompson has made application for his admission to the Soldiers. Here, at Possible 1997. has made application for his admission to the Soldiers' Home, at Roseburg, as an Indian War veteran, but no answer has been received from that institution. Ennis has no relatives. Until yesterday he re-fused to go anywhere eise, but he has agreed to be governed by Dr. Thompson, and an effort will be made to get him into the Patton Home until his application to the Soldiers' Home has been passed on. The possibility of being sent to the poor-house fills him with dread.

Judge Munly Asks Representation at Port Meeting Tuesday.

M. G. Munly made a report on the Broadway bridge at the meeting of the North East Side Improvement Association last night and said that if the action taken by the Fort of Portland Tuesday is favorable, the question at once would be submitted to the War Department. Judge Munly urged that a large delegation of representative citizens should be present at the meeting next week at the City Hall, and be prepared to answer all and any objections that might be presented against the erection of the bridge. Mayor Simon, he said, would represent the people at the meeting.

HERMANN TALESMEN CHOSEN FROM ABOUT PORTLAND.

Inspectors From Land Office Aid Heney and Becker in Checking Lists of Talesmen.

In the selection of the jury list of 301 citizens for the trial of Binger Hermann, upon charges of conspiracy in connection with formation of the Blue Mountain Forest Reserve, 26 Oregon counties are not represented. The list is confined to the nine counties situated close to the City of Portland tation by counties is as follows:

24 Total301

Ninety-seven of those on the list are mechanics, laborers and clerks; 98 are farmers, nurserymen, fruitgrowers and dairymen; 90 are merchants and manufacturers, and 16 are professional men, including druggists, civil engi neers, architects and accountants. Of the citizens of Multnomah County, 151 the citizens of Multnomah County, 151 reside in Portland.

As originally drawn, the jury list comprised 207 meh, which has been reduced by eliminating the names of decased citizens and duplications to 301. The practice of limiting the jury list to the counties situated in the vicinity of the place where the court is to be held has been followed many years. It was specifically ordered in 1908 by was specifically ordered in 1996 by Judge Hunt, who was then sitting in the Oregon division, and who based his action upon section 802 of the re-vised statutes of the United States. vised statutes of the United States. The law requires that the jury shall be summoned from eligible citizens of the state with as little expense to the Government as possible. It is stated that the present action of the court was also influenced by the fact that only three days would intervene between the drawing of the jury list and the opening of the trial, when all of the men are expected to appear in court. Had the names been selected from all portions of the state it would have required two weeks to serve the summonses upon the prospective jurymen in many cases.

In following the practice of securing juries as near as possible to the place where the court is being heid, a separate box has been prepared for Pendleton, covering the counties along the east side of the state. The only case which has been tried in recent years in which the jury was drawn from a box containing names from every county in Oregod was that the late Senator John H. Mitchell. No one around the Federal building could recall yesterday what reason accounted for the departure from the rule in that trial.

Francis J. Heney and Tracy C. Becker were engaged yesterday in checking the names of prospective jurors, and were being assisted by a force of inspectors from the land office under the direction of H. T. Jones. Binger Hermann received a copy of the jury list at noon and immediately began a similar proceeding at his rooms in the Imperial Hotel.

By deeding to the United States a quarter section of Oregon timber land, M. F. Henderson was yesterday relieved from trial in a suit brought in the United States Court to cancel title. The facts being explained to the court. Judge Bean entered a decree cancelling the patent and dismissed the complaint. The land was entered by a dummy under the name of Robert Simpson, the deal being manipulated by William A. Peters and P. F. Woodard. They are said to have stranged the final proofs in the United States Land Office, and after receiving patent sold the land to Henderson. Mr. Henderson convinced the court that he was an innocent purchaser.

ELECTION DAY IS NAMED

BONDS ARE TO BE VOTED ON WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY &.

Sum of $350,000 to Be Asked by Board, Which Believes Entire Issue Need Not Be Sold.

Wednezday, February 2, is the date set vesterday by the Board of Education for the election to decide upon the proposed issue of $350,000 bonds for the purpose of constructing the new Lincoln High School on the West Side

District Clerk Thomas was instructed to proceed in the regular manner to call the election, which is to be participated in by the legal voters, men and women, in by the legal voters, men and women, owning property and being on the County Assessor's taxrolls. In the absence of Chairman Fleischner, Director Beach presided. Director Camp-bell is in the East. It was thought, however, to be of great necessative to call the election at the earliest possible date, as City Superintendent Rigler had called the attention of the members of the Board to the need of having the new building as to the need of having the new building as soon as it is possible to construct it. The present structure is out of date, and it is urgent that the new one Paplace it as soon as possible. If all goes well, it is figured that it will be ready in from 12, to 18 months. The old building will be sold, together with the block upon which it has so long stood.

While the proposed bond issue will be for $350,000, it was said by the directors present that it will not be necessary to dispose of all the bonds at one time. This will enable the Board to sell enough bonds to carry on the project, and it may be will enable the Board to sell enough bonds to carry on the project, and it may be that the entire issue will not have to be sold. The design will have much to do with the cost, and this will be regulated largely by the action of the directors in deciding whether or not they will include an administration headquarters in it. If this is constructed it will greatly increase the cost of the building. It is generally believed it will be one of the features, as the present quarters in the City Hall are inconvenient and inadequate to the requirements of so large a school system as that in this city.

There was considerable discussion among the members as to the course to pursue regarding the failure of principals of various schools to veport fire drills every week. C. M. Kiggins, of the Ladd School, petitioned for the refunding of a fine of 5.
