NEW YORK, lat. 12.—There was a further hig break in the cotton market today, making the third sensational stump in prices since the movement started early hast week.

Fanic-stricken longs in all parts of the world seemed to be liquidating their cotton regardless of prices, and the action of the market showed such intense excitement and demoralization as finds a parallel only in the series of sensational movements following the collapse of the Bully hoom.

Cotton Advances for Year.

For more than a year, the cotton market has been steadily advancing and toward the end of last month prices had cauched a lovel which since the Civil War had only been equalled when Sully was at the height of his fame. March contrains solling at 18.17 and May at 18.46. At the culminating point of today's decline March contracts sold at 14.08 and May at 18.75, a loss from the high record of from 18.5 to 8.40 per bale, almost all of which has accurred during the last week. The declines from the closing prices it last night amounted to more than 2.50 per bale.

There does not appear to have been ly charge in general trade conditions warrant the almost unprecedented ump in prices, and in contrast to the thy year, so disancial differences have on precipitated.

VICIOUS ALIENS BARRED

Deportation and Exclusion of Procurers Provided for Democrats Say State Rights Are Endangered by Proposed Law.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12-By a viva voce vote the House today passed the Ben-nett-Sabath "white slave" bill.

A strenuous fight against the enactment of such a law is being made by several Democrats on the ground that it is an attempt to interfere with states' rights. The "white slave" bill is the result of an investigation of traffic in alien women made by the National Immigration Commission. Provision is made for the de portation and exclusion of immoral aliens and for the exclusion and punishment of and for the exclusion and punishment of their procurers. Traffic in immoral women becomes subject to the restrictions of the interstate commerce laws.

The measure makes it a crime punishable by a fine of not more than $5006 and imprisonment for not more than 10 years for any person to procure a ticket for any person to go from one state to another to engage in prestitution.

Immigration laws are amended so as to exclude persons who are supported by or who receive proceeds from the prostitution of aliens, and provision is made for the criminal prosecution of persons who shall harbor aliens for the purpose of prostitution. Any alien inmate of a house of prostitution and any alien who in any way assists such in inmate are made liable to deportation.

STATEHOOD BILLS APPROVED

House Committee Unanimously Favors Prompt Action.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The bill providing separate statehood for the territories of New Mexico and Arizona was considered by the House committee on territories today and will be reported to the House tomorrow.

At today's hearing the measure was virtually completed and the committee was unanimous for its early presentation. Only minor changes have been made since its reintroduction this year by Chairman Hamilton.

Francis M. Clements, first assistant attorney of the Interior Department, discussed the public lands feature of the bill. Chairman Hamilton said today:

"I expect the statehood bill to pass the House within a reasonable length of time. I shall be greatly surprised if any opposition to it worthy of the name develops in the House. I cannot predict what opposition may develop in the Senate, but I have no doubt that the bill will become a law at the present session."

Stomach Gases

Many Different Causes Are Concerned in Gaseous Accumulation in

A Trial Package of Stuart's Charcoal Losenges Sent Free.
-In cases of chronic gastric catarrh the secretion of digestive juices in the stomach is deficient; the food is digested slowly; the secretion is not normal; and fermentation occurs with the evolution of much gas.
It is evident, however, that a considerable time is secretion.

It is evident, however, that a considerable time is required to allow gas to be formed in any large quantity in the stomach, and therefore, flatulence from this cause is not likely to occur until some time after food has been eaten. If the pylerus, or opening from the stomach into the intestines does not close properly, gas may pass from the duodenum into the stomach, and distend it; and such distension may occur at any time of the day or night, and is not entirely dependent upon the decomposition of food in the stomach, although this may be a prominent cause in many cases.

There is still another cause of excessive flatulence, and that is the swallowing of air. There is no doubt about air being carried down into the stomach by the food enten; but it is also known that liquids force a much streater quantity of air into the all-mentary tract than foods do. STUART'S CHARCOAL LOZENGES were especially designed for the relief and cure of stomach and intestinal gas formation and accumulation, no matter what the cause may be. Over a century ago physicians gas formation and accumulation, no mather what the cause may be Over a century ago physicians discovered that churcoal possensed wonderful powers of absorption, not found in any other remedial agent. Charcoal is definitely known to lessen and cure flatulence by oxidizing and absorbing the excess of gas from the stomach; but, in addition to that property, it also acts as a mechanical stimulant and cleanser to the stomach and intestinal waits, and it exerts a purifying and antiseptic effect on the alimentary canal, which is similar to the action of tooth-powder in the mouth.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are highly recommended by all sufferers from flatulence or gas in the stomach and other parts of the alimentary tract, as the one remedy which has given complete relief from all such disagreemble symptoms. Many persons who had been using various other remedies without relief, have given these powerful charcoal lozenges a trial, and have obtained immediare relief and a permanent cure.
