TAFT FORESEES RECONCILIATION

Belief Expressed That Warring Factions Will Get Together.

INSURGENTS YET IN FOLD

Speaker Cannon Declares Opposition Will Not Be Punished if They Show Spirit to Be Good.

Test Due Soon.

WASHINGTON. Jan. 14.—Following from the set of the set would be invited to the caucus in nam-ng the Ballinger-Pinchot committee next week and that it is hoped all will attend.

Leader Goes Twice to See Taft.

<text><text><text><text><text>

would use the paironage given them as sommunition against the party. Mr. Taft is cald to have received many personal assurances that most of the so-called insurgents will support Adminis-iration measures. Speaker Chrinon de-thared "Insurgents" of the House would have a square deal in the coming Re-publican caucas if they came to it. Every one of the 500 and more Repub-licans in the House would be bidden and iney should attend, said the Speaker. The caucus will be held probably early next week and it is understood that it is to be made the basis for a contem-pater deconciliation. How this is to be brought about is not apparent tonight. Speaker Cannon said yesterday that there would be no effort in the caucus to pun-lan anybody for what might be termed patt misdeeds, but that they should come to the caucus and "take pet luck" on results.

CLARK ATTACKS "CANNONISM"

Declares Tide Is Everywhere Rising Against Speaker.

DAYTON, O., Jan. 14-Speaker Cannon and "Cantionism" were vigorously at-tacked tonight in a speech delivered by Champ Clark, leader of the minority in nting ever held by the South Portland Boosters, last night in St. Lawrence Assembly Hall, at Third and Sherman Assembly Hall, at Third and Sherman streets. In addition to an elaborate pro-gramme of addresses and music there was an enthusiastic discussion con-ocrains the municipal interests of South Portland and of plans for the betterment of existing conditions. It was the sentiment of the various speakers that a determined effort should be made to make South Port-land the most attractive part of the city, and that no expense should be spared to make the section an ideal residence district. The following pro-gramme was given: Opening remarks President J. G. Helt-gramme was given: Opening remarks. President J. G. Helt-kemper; plane solo, Miss Martha Moorey; address, "Bouth Portland Realty us a Profitable Investment," M. J. Cohessney; vo-cal solo, Miss Dagmar Kelly; address, "South Portland as a Desirable Residence Section," J. H. Laber, solo, Mrs. F. J. Ruckeri; address, "Sirect Improvements," Judge M. G. Muntr: solo, Frank D. Hen-nessy; address, "Firect Improvements," Judge M. G. Muntr: Solo, Frank D. Hen-nessy; address, "The Lighting of Streats by the Drap or Cluster System," Jullius Friendly; solo, A. G. Fleming; address, "Deepening of the Channel in the River as far South as Sellwood," D. M. Donaugh; vocal solo, A. H. Calor, address, "Progress of Improvements Made and Contemplated for the Repeat of South Portland," Council-men Beiding.

PORTLAND HINDU APPEALS TO POLICE TO SAVE HIM.

LOVE BACK OF ROBBERY

Tale Told Reveals Sacrifice and Intrigue Which Started Years Ago in Hindustan.

Joseph Fatahdin, a Hindu, well known on the streets of Portland as "Tamale Joe," because of his vocation in seiling tamales to pedestrians, ap-pealed to the police Thursday night for protection against a quintet of his coun-trymen who he declared are seeking bia life. his life.

his life. Underlying his appeal to the police is a tale replete with love, sacrifice and intrigues with the locale of the Initial chapter in faraway Hindustan. Recently the villiancous characters of the melodramatic tale have become active, according to the persecuted Hindu, and have selected this city as the spot to bring about the bloody climax. Through an interpreter. "Tamale Joe" climaz. Through an interpreter, "Tamale Joe" told the police how three of his coun-trymen dragged him to a shack in the rear of the Bridge Square saloon Tues-day night. After being severely beaten he was forced to sign a number of pa-pars on threat of death. He dramati-cally described how the trio of vil-lains held a keen-edged butcher knife against his throat while he signed his name to two documents, the contents of which he avers are a mystery to him.

business man. In view of that fact he has held a reigning hand over the Hindu colony in Portland. Several months ago he advanced money to a countryman to pay for a voyage back to their native country. His three as-sailants are said to have taken excep-tion to his generosity. Their anger in this respect and the smouldering fires of hate of the episode in Hindu-stan years ago, combined with robbery, he believes, was a motive for their murderous attack upon him Tuesday night.

TWO FALLS MAY BE FATAL As Longshoreman Is Pulled Out After Slip Rescuers Let Go Body.

night.

ON REDUCED FARE

Appeal of United Railways for Time Rejected by Meeting of Citizens.

COMPANY TELLS OF LOSS

Line Now Cause of Deficit, Judge Wickersham Declares - Compromise Proposal to Wait Year

Finds Little Favor.

In the meeting held Thursday night in the Chamber of Commerce 75 residents of Linnton voted almost unanimously not to sanction an extension of time in which the United Railways might prewhich the United Kallways might pre-pare to grant a five-cent fare to Linn-ton. The meeting was organized by L. B. Wickersham and other interests of the United Railway, who desired to talk the proposal over with the Linn-ton people and if possible effect a com-promise

O. M. Clark, of the Clark-Wilson Lumber Company, presided; Dr. S. M. Main was secretary. In response to a request from Rev. Frank James for a statement from the United Rallway interests, L. B. Wicker-

United Railway interests, L. B. Wicker-sham said that while the corporation did not mind cost, it did not want to commit financial suicide. "We do not wish to antagonize the Linnton people," said Mr. Wickersham, "but we would like to arrange mat-ters for the interest of both sides. The road cost us $1,000,000 and the service costs us from $500 to $1000 a month more than we take in. We ask you whether you are going to put the screws on and put the company out of business or extend the time so that we can get on solid ground. I appeal to you as fair-minded people to suspend suit and give us time to get on our feet." O. M. Clark expressed himself as in feet." O. M. Clark expressed himself as in favor of granting an extension of time to the company.

Secret Plan Is Charged.

cally described how the trio of vil-lains held a keen-edged butcher knife against his throat while he signed his name to two documples, the content to the analysis of a secret plan Is Charged. That the company had sent an agent in the person of J. H. Lawson to Linn-ton a few days ago to work among the innton residents in the interests of the corporation and to arrange for a secret meeting last night, so that a compro-mise could be made, was the statement of C. F. Bunker. He asserted that Law-son had gone to Linnton with the stated purpose of looking for a site for a large manufacturing plani, but that he had astrife which originated between bin and one of the trio of his assaliants in Hindustan several years ago. The motive was the undivided fore breaking in the asserted was the secret agent for the United Bill and made on the trio of his assaliants in Hindustan several years ago. The motive was the undivided fore breaking the secret agent for the United Bill and six years ago. He is regarded as a well-to-do and a consciention business man. In view of that fact the has held a reigning hand over the Hindu colony in Portiand. Several months ago he advanced money to a countryman to pay for a yroage baas to their mative country. His three as however." Lawson replied that Bunker was wrong. He was loking for a manu-facturing site, he added.

Friends Needed, Says Wickersham.

After another request by Rev. Frank James for a statement from Mr. Wick-ersham regarding his purpose in call-ing the meeting of the Linnton real-dents, Mr. Wickersham replied: "We wanted the people of Linnton to come together in order that we ministr

THE MORNING OREGONIAN, SATURDAY, JANUARY 15, 1910.

To checkmate King Winter You can checkmate the furious old Winter King by sweeping old - fashioned heating methods off the boards, and replacing them by a modern heating outfit of

These up-to-date outfits will enable you to get rid of days that are checkered with varying room temperatures, ranging from overheated in spots to lukewarm and frigid in corners.

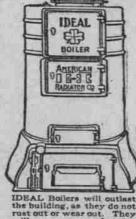

IDEAL Boilers and AMERICAN Radiators for Hot-Water and Low-Pressure Steam heating have absolutely no equal, considered from the standpoint of fuel economy, perfect heat control, labor-saving, non-repairs, and durability equal to the life of the building.

ADVANTAGE 12: Where a poor quality of hard coal is employed, and particularly where soft coal or coke is used, the slicing - door of IDEAL Boilers will be found most useful. It is placed on a level with grate, and through the door a poker or slicing-bar may be run and the ashes or clinkers may be cleaned away from or dropped through the grates without too greatly agitating the hot coals above. This is a particularly economical feature in the moderate winter weather when the fire needs just a little agitation to keep the ashes from accumulating too thickly, so that a very little fire in the early morning or at night will take the chill off the rooms.

3-32 IDEAL Boiler and 400 ft of 36 MERICAN Radiators, costing the r $210, were used to Hot-Watte this cottage, at which price the s can be bought of any reputable etent Fitter. This did not include of labor nine values freight etc.

Find out how this heating can be put into your building now, at small expense, and no tearing up, Ask for catalog, "Ideal Heating Investments."

TheVer

·BB

Public Showrooms and Warehouses located at Chicago, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, Buffalo, Pittsburg, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Omaha, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, Seattle, San Francisco, Brantford (Ontario), London, Paris, Berlin, Milan.

the House of Representatives. Mr. Clark declared "the tide is every-where rising against "Canonism," and that the light against House rules would continue until crowned with complete su-continue until crowned with complete su-case. He said the statement of Speaker Cannon that the fight against the House rules was simply an effort to prevent any tariff legislation was untrue.

any tariff legislation was untrue. Referring to Speaker Cannon's Kansas City speech. Mr. Clark said "li was de-worded chiefly to a discussion of the fight to amend the House rules, and to the mo-tives, ambitions, mental equipment and polltical status of some of us who have dared to lift our eyes above our shoe-sirings, look him squarely in the face and haitle in the opening for the re-habilitation of the House of Representa-tives. It would be interesting to know habilitation of the House of Representa-tives. It would be interesting to know how that speech happened to be written and read to the audience, and it would be edifying to know who furnished him with certain alleged facts on which he used some of his remarks. "Against Hon. J. G. Cannon personally," valid Mr. Clark, "I have nothing what-soever; he has done me many kindnesses, which I have tried to repay, but I am homestly of the opinion that what has come to be known as 'Cannonism' is a great ovil in our begislative system and with all the rips of his left side shattered and his skull fractured. Kelly was eventually taken from beneath the dock and placed in a Red Cross auto-ambulance. He has been a longshore-man for several years. Up to late last night no one had been found who knew of his antecedents. come to be known as 'Cannohism' is a great evil in our legislative system and chould be rooted out. The tide is every-where rising against Cannohism. Since the adjournment of Congress I have been over most of Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma and into Colo-rado and South Dakota. Everywhere in that region 'Cannohism' is the re-sounding theme of every tongue, and against it that portion of the country is aflame."

WOMAN'S SCREAMS SCARE

Burglars Attempt to "Jimmy" Way

affame.

Into Home: Foiled.

F. R. Gage, 273 Salmon street, reported to the police Thursday night that two burglars attempted to 'jimmy' their en-trener into bis spacements and fiel after Juid uttured a series of parplercing screams.

The police investigated and found evi-terces that a finany had been used on the front door of the bouse. No descrip-ion of the prowlets was secured.

MORGAN GIVES YALE GIFT

Noted Financier Donates $100,000

in Memory of Late Editor.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 14.-A gift of $100,000 from J. Plerpont Morgan for the establishment of the William M. Laffan professorship of assyriology and Babylonian literature at Yale was received by the Yale corporation yester-day and accounted day and accepted gift is a memorial to Mr. Laffan, late editor of the New York Sun

BOOSTERS OUT IN FORCE

South Portland People Discuss Plans

South Portland People Discuss Plans for Improving District. Three hundred citizens and taxpay-ers attended the most successful mset-come together in order that we might consider the situation. We have not done what we have wanted to during the past year on account of lack of funds, but have done all possible. We want you to give us a charce on this 5-cent fare proposition and not put the screws on." A statement by Dr. S. M. Mann that the meeting would amount to nothing and that the Linnton people would have nothing but a 5-cent fare was ap-plauded. Peter Janson was called to the above W. Keliy, 75 years old, a longshore-man, is dying at St. Vincent's Hospital as the result of a fail at 8:80 yester-day morning while at work about Mar-tin's dock, at the foot of Seventeenth street. Physiclans assert that Kelly's age, combined with his frightful in-juries, preclude all hope of his re-covery.

plauded. Peter Janson was called to the chair and O. M. Clark moved that an exten-sion of one year be granted to the company if it would agree to grant a 5-cent fare at the end of that time, the 10-cent fare to hold meanwhile. An smendment by Mr. Bunker that only those outside of the 5-cent fare limit should vote was accepted. The vote against the extension was almost unanimous. Lovery. He slipped and fell a distance-of 25 fest into the river. In his downward flight his head struck upon a pillng and he fell upon the logs beneath the dock. Before his fellow-workers could reach him he slipped from the logs into the river. He was reacued before he sank. While the rescuers were holsting his apparently lifeless body to the dock floor it slipped and fell several feet, again rebounding from the logs below. unanimous. Following this Dr. Mann said:

expect a 5-cent fare because the fran-chize says so and because the court has ruled it. Property in Linnich is valueless with the fare at 10 cents, and what we want is justice." With all the ribs of his left side

PULLMAN GREETS FARMERS

Wheat Convention Attracts Hundreds

in Annual Meet. POLICE FOIL SAFEBLOWERS

Robbers Scared Away From Work in East Side Office.

Teggmen who attempted to blow the safe of the Yamato Fuel Company at 427 East Main street, about 9 o'clock Thursday night, were compelled to aban-don their intentions by the arrival of Patrolman Sinnoti and Special Officer Kelly. The robbers succeded in batter-ing off the combination of the strong box, but escaped from the building through a rear entrance, leaving bohind a number of safeblowers' tools. An hour before the discovery of the would-be robbers, both officers had would-be robberg, both officers had tried the door of the fuel company's office and found it locked. On their next round they found the same door wide open. After an investigation it was found the robbers had just begun their operations their operations.

ABDUCTION CHARGE MADE

Walter Eloper Put Through "Third Degree"-Girl Stands Pat.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. N. - Roberta de Janon Is in a suite of private rooms in St. Agnes Hospital in this city. Fred Cohen Is locked in a cell awalt-ing a hearing on the charge of abduc-tion and his wife is in a hospital suffer-ing from a nervous collapse. In spite of the severe cross-examina-tion to which the young helross was subjected for nearly five hours tonight, no charge in her original story was brought.

Morgan & Robb, 50 Stark street, can place your loans on good real estate. **

WENATCHEE, Wash., Jan. 14 .- (Special.)-The second day's session of the Washington State Horticultural Association in this city brought forth an attendance which far exceeded the seating capacity of the Auditorium, and many visitors were turned away though all the delegates were provided

FRUIT TALKS DRAW

Horticulturists' Meeting at

PULLMAN, Wash., Jan. 14.-(Special.)-Fully 300 persons, mostly farmers, wore in attendance at the first session of the third annual wheat convention which opened at Washington State College to-day. Whee-President Orise Dorman, of Spokana presided.

opened at Washington Slate College to day. Vice-President Orise Dorman, of Spokame presided.
President Bryan of the State College, being absent, Professor Thatcher, spoke on "The Extension of Wheat Farming Into the Dry Belt." He advocated the extension only along scientific lines and after soft and climatic conditions had bear and profit of the sector of the control of the Planting and Care of the Sect Improvement for the Palouse Farmer." L C Crow, of Palouse, state president of the Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union, urged co-operation among the farmers.
HUMAN BONES EVIDENCE Doctors Testify in Logan Murder Trial—Asbes Revent Brooch.
SPOKANE, Jan. H. – Expert testimony occupied most of the trial at Colvilie, Wash, of James SPOKANE, Jan. 16. - Expert testi-mony occupied most of the time today in the trial at Colville, Wash., of James Logan, charged with murdering Mrs. Jansen, his housekeeper, and with ore-mating her body. Several doctors were called to prove that the animal re-mains found in the embors of the fire at the lonely mountain spot where the orime is alleged to have been com-mitted, were those of a human body. They were examined at great detail as to the effect of the fire on flesh and bone. natches. u The addresses proved to he very in-teresting and the large audience held its sent for hours listening attentively. The political aspect of the conven-tion is developing and the names for president for the ensuing year are be-ing proposed. W. T. Clark, of Wenat-chee, is considered by many as the leading candidate for the place. The evening session was devoted to a re-ception given to the delegates by the Wenatchee. Commercial Club and the Chelan County Pruit Growers.

bone. Logan sat unmoved most of the time, but showed deep agitation when a broach, identified as having belonged to Mrs. Jansen and found in the ashes, was produced in evidence.

Chelan County Pruit Growers,

England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, are all in the threes of an endemic of the American roller skating rink. In Bristol the rink, which was established under Amer-ican management in a large building ersetted for the purpose, paid for itself in the first four months.

A choice collection of 80 recipes, with the latest baking helps and a fund of valuable information, edited by MRS. JANET MCKENZIE HILL, of The Boston Cooking School, the noted authority on Domestic Science. Elegantly illustrated and printed on finest plate paper.

This artistic book absolutely free to every user of

To get the "Cook's Book"

Secure the coupon from a 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder. Cut this out, write dame and address and mail with coupon to Jaques Manufacturing Co., Chicago. Dept. 480

C BAKING POWDER

If you have never tried K C Baking Powder, this is the time to buy your first can, and get the beautiful "Cook's Book" for the asking.

K C Baking Powder will please you better than any other or you get your money back.

Guaranteed pure, wholesome, and the most perfect in action. Com-plies with all Pure Food Laws. No "Trust" prices.

1

