

GROGERS MEET TO EXCHANGE NEWS

Eugene Hangs Out Bunting in Honor of Convention of Retailers.

MANY DELEGATES THERE

Speakers Oppose Mail-Order Practices and Parcel Post—Dealers Urged to Enlist Co-operation of Their Home Newspapers.

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 26.—(Special)—The fact that Mayor Matlock of Eugene, formerly a retail grocer, gave force to his address of welcome delivered today when the Oregon Retail Merchants Association convened at the Commercial Club rooms for its fourth annual session. The Mayor said that he had been in the grocery business 20 years and that, although he had retired, he had not forgotten how to sympathize with those who were still in business.

Towns Is Decorated.

To prove that the Mayor was right, the people had decorated the city. Flags and bunting are prominent all over the business section. The delegation arriving by way of Portland contained 13 members and there are 300 delegates here. It is expected that there will be between 300 and 400 here tomorrow.

The convention was called to order this forenoon by N. A. Perry, president of the association, and Mr. Perry later delivered a rousing address to the address of the Mayor. The address in behalf of the Eugene Commercial Club was delivered by H. W. Thompson. The address was delivered by W. C. Stumberg, of Vancouver, Wash. After the president and secretary had read their annual addresses, the following committees were appointed: Credentials—E. N. Warner, Medford; O. Anderson, Holton; J. Selms, Seaside. Order of Business—J. Morrison, Dallas; I. J. Morrison, Astoria; A. J. Hoffman, Forest Grove. Auditing—Victor P. Moses, Corvallis; W. A. Moran, Boring; A. R. Leabo, Forest Grove. Resolutions—J. C. Mann, Portland; W. C. Stumberg, Vancouver, Wash.; A. M. Reeves, Lebanon; John Adams, Astoria.

Parcels Post Opposed.

An interesting report of the National Convention was given by C. W. Stubbs, of Portland. This was followed by reports from local associations of the state. John R. Collier, of the Grande, opened his discussion on "How to Make Our State Association More Effective and Valuable to the Merchants," which elicited practical responses. The evening session was devoted to an address on "The Mail Order Evil," by Tom Richardson, of Portland, and an address on "The Relation of the Merchant to Public Health and Public Morals," by E. F. Mulkey, District Attorney of Jackson County. Mr. Richardson declared that mail order houses had a beneficial effect upon the business of country merchants and entailed extravagance upon the consumer. He spoke in opposition to the parcels post and suggested that the merchants appoint committees from their various sections to call upon the newspapers and urge them to look upon the parcels post from the viewpoint of merchants and business men and ask them to oppose the parcels post. He also stated that the merchants themselves desire in patronizing mail order houses when they happened to want some article outside their regular line.

New Era Predicted.

Mr. Mulkey prefaced his address by saying that he had a meeting of the merchants of Medford last night where there were 502 members in the association, and that he had a meeting at Eugene, a manifestation of a new era dawning in the industrial development of Oregon and the Northwest. The election of officers will be held tomorrow afternoon and the convention will close with a banquet at the Odell Hotel tonight. Among those present at today's session were: Portland—J. J. Chambliss, B. P. Sorenson, D. A. Hendershot, J. T. Ross, Eugene—W. A. Bell, J. K. Pratt, George Hall, W. E. D. Matlock, J. C. Mann, J. E. Eaton, George K. Munroe, W. C. Gibson, F. A. Rankin. Houston—A. H. Perry, Owen Anderson, D. E. Bernard. Lebanon—A. M. Reems, B. A. Millap, Springfield—C. W. Ryehard, C. W. Ryehard, A. J. Hendershot. Forest Grove—A. R. Leabo, A. G. Hoffman, M. A. Adams. Dallas—W. L. Simonton, George Scott. Other points—J. O. Gibson, Grants Pass; E. N. Warner, Medford; John Leiba, Seaside; W. C. Stumberg, Vancouver, Wash.; Thomas C. Watt, Clatskanie; D. A. Hendershot, Goldendale, Wash.; John Miller, La Grande; R. J. Moses, Tangent; A. H. Spranger, Beaverton; Peter F. Colquhar, Rimick.

"DRY" COUPLES HAPPIER

Dayton Prosecutor Traces Improvement to Prohibition Law.

DAYTON, Wash., Jan. 26.—(Special)—One fact of interest can not be overlooked in the annual report of Prosecuting Attorney R. M. Sturdevant of Columbia county, issued today. One charge of habitual drunkenness was filed in 1909 for every six in the previous year, when 1849 was "wet." The decrease in the number of cases in the Superior and Justice courts is due, according to the prosecutor, to the fact that Dayton is now "dry." There were four insanity cases, but only one resulted in commitment. The report records only nine divorces in the county, compared with more than three times as many the preceding year. Most of the complaints of habitual drunkenness, seven incorrigibles were tried and three were committed.

35,000 ACRES IN QUESTION

Marion County Court Reserves Decision in Land Case.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 26.—(Special)—Judge Galloway, of the Circuit Court for Marion county, today heard arguments in the application for a writ of review in the matter of R. S. Cookingham and W. A. Thacher vs. John H. Lewis, H. L. Hoigate and E. M. Saxton, comprising the Board of Control of Oregon, and O. C. Finkelnberg.

trusts. Upon the outcome depends the purpose of about 35,000 acres of land in the Lower Powder River valley in Baker county.

Attorney-General Crawford appeared for the State Board of Control, and John L. Rand of Baker City for Finkelnberg, H. L. Hoigate and E. M. Saxton of Baker City appeared for the Cookingham-Thacher interests. In his argument Mr. Crawford said: "The Board of Control of Oregon is not subject to review by the courts. It is not an inferior court or tribunal over which the Circuit Courts have a supervisory control. It is only one of the agencies employed by the State in aiding the Federal Government in the disposal of its public domain, and to aid the state in the distribution of the public waters of the state that it in the position relatively as the State Land Board, and Woman's Story Believed.

The body was buried in Mountain View cemetery three days after its discovery. Only a few days later Mrs. Robinson came to Oregon City and positively identified a tobacco pipe that was found on the body. She even called the attention of Coroner Holman to an almost invisible crack that was in the pipe. She also produced a silver watch that she claimed to have found near the place where the body was discovered. In the back of the watch was a photograph of Mrs. Robinson and a note said to have been signed by her father and placed inside of the case of the watch. Mrs. Robinson told a good story and convinced the authorities that her claim was a just one. Attorney Hesse, of Portland, peered through the glasses of speculation and requested the body be exhumed in the interest of his client, Bernhard Haist, who was firm in the belief that the dead man was his brother, Christian Haist. Coroner Holman complied with the request of Hesse, but at the same time notified Mrs. Robinson and she was present at the disinterment. She declared the body to be that of her father, F. A. Williamson, but a friend of Bernhard Haist insisted that the man was that of the brother to the man he represented. Mrs. Robinson became active, however, and filed a petition for appointment as administratrix of the estate. This was granted, but Bernhard Haist presented a petition alleging that the part of Mrs. Robinson and declaring the body to be that of Christian Haist.

Deposition Tells Stories.

Hesse and his partner, Beckett, produced the deposition of B. Stacey Cole, of Richard Center, Wis., in which it is stated that Stacey is the step-father of Mrs. Robinson, having been the first husband of her mother; that she was 6 years of age when her mother was married to him and that he never heard of F. A. Williamson. The deposition of Cynthia E. Lowery was also presented. She is a sister of Mrs. Robinson's and states Mrs. Robinson is an illegitimate child and that her father was one Timothy Ashbury Moore, that Mrs. Robinson is a friend of Williamson, the deponent swearing that criminal charges were filed against Jesse Williams, wherein he was accused of being the father of Mrs. Robinson. Mrs. Lowery also said her sister, Margaret Ann Wallace, told her Mrs. Robinson's step-father induced Margaret Ann Wallace to swear that she was the father of her child. The deposition of Jesse Williams himself is also filed, but he adds little to the story. There was also evidence before the court showing that on May 18, 1886, Mrs. Robinson married her present husband, Chas. E. Robinson, and that she gave her name as Etie Williams and her father's name as J. E. Williams and her mother's maiden name as Margaret Wallace. Her original marriage certificate was presented and plainly shows that the letters "on" were added to her name to help along the fraud.

Robert Burns' birthday was celebrated by the Burns' Club of Oregon at the Oregon Hotel last night. Prominent members of the club spoke on subjects relating to the life of the Scotch bard. Mayor Elmon, as a guest of the club, spoke on "The City of Portland," and John Manning gave a toast to "The Bar." To W. B. Melkie was awarded the honor of delivering a toast to Burns. Several other toasts were offered at the close of the feast, which was attended by as many dozens as could be accommodated in the big banquet-room of the hotel.

WOMAN, BY FRAUD WOONES LONG FIGHT

Bitter Clackamas Contest for Estate of $663 Now Closed.

STATE MAY GET MONEY

Mrs. Effie B. Robinson, of Firland Station, Multnomah, Falls to Prove Claim of Relationship to Man Who is Unidentified.

OREGON CITY, Jan. 26.—(Special)—Declaring that the claim of relationship made by Mrs. Effie B. Robinson of Firland Station, Multnomah county, to the man whose body was found near Oswego, Sept. 13, 1908, is false and fraudulent, County Judge Grant B. Dimick today made an order removing Mrs. Robinson from the administration of the estate, which consists of $663.80, found upon the clothing of the man, whose identity may remain a secret forever. The decision of Judge Dimick is two-edged, for while he will not permit Mrs. Robinson to act as administratrix of the estate of the man who she swore was her father, F. A. Williamson, he also says his decision, since the body was not that of Christian Haist, as alleged by Bernhard Haist, who contested the claims of Mrs. Robinson. Not in years has a Probate Court case excited so much interest or precipitated such a bitter fight as this one, and the whole struggle has been rendered prolix through the decision of Judge Dimick. It is the true heirs of the dead man can establish his identity, the money found upon his body will escheat to the state.

LARGE TRACTS IN OREGON, WASHINGTON AND CALIFORNIA

INCORPORATED LUMBERMENS BANK BUILDING, CORNER FIFTH AND STARK STREETS PORTLAND, OREGON

P. C. LAVEY & COMPANY

WHOLESALE REAL ESTATE LARGEST FIRM ON PACIFIC COAST

January 25, 1910.

TO AMBITIOUS MEN AND WOMEN EVERYWHERE:

I have been given full power and authority to sell under any fair and honest plan which I may propose the three Southern Pacific townsites of Mt. Hebron, California, Dorris, California, and Worden, Oregon, and to begin the sale not later than February 1st.

I have decided upon a plan of sale that will permit the poorest and most humble citizen, who aspires to own a home, to own a lot in each of these three towns and pay for all three of them under one contract at the rate of ONE DOLLAR PER WEEK.

These three towns are the official Southern Pacific townsites,—any of the road's officials will testify to that fact. They are twenty miles apart and no other towns of any consequence will ever compete with them. THEY ARE LOCATED ON THE NEW MAIN LINE WHICH IS TO CONNECT SAN FRANCISCO AND PORTLAND, the two greatest cities on the Pacific Coast and are surrounded by the most prolific agricultural country that ever lay out of doors.

Watch for my full-page advertisement in this paper on TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1st, and then act quick, because if you don't you will certainly lose out. I predict that my offer will be considered the most extraordinary, the fairest offer ever made in the history of Pacific Coast real estate,—one that can never be duplicated.

Very truly yours,

Pres. P. C. Lavey & Company

CAMP DAY REVIVED

Militia Infantry Officers to Gather as in 1908.

REGULAR ARMY TO TEACH

Guardsmen to Be Stationed at Garfisoned Posts, Rank to Be Forgotten Temporarily—Plan of Study is Outlined.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., Jan. 26.—(Special)—Owing to the success that attended the assembling of militia infantry officers of the organized militia in the states in camps of instruction in 1908, it has been decided to undertake a general movement along the same lines in 1910. It is planned to give instruction to infantry officers of the organized militia, of states and territories and District of Columbia, whose authorities will assemble them for the purpose of receiving so much of the instruction prescribed as it may be practicable to give. While these camps are designated camps of instruction will be conducted under the supervision of Army post commanders, who will select officers and superintend the general regular troops. That instruction in the elementary duties may be given, officers will be selected from the best qualified officers of the regular Army as are available. As a rule the character of the instruction to be given requires officers selected as instructors to have had experience in map-reading, in solving map problems. In directing map maneuvers and conducting tactical walks. Rank Aside Temporarily. When practicable camps of instruction will be located at garrisoned Army posts that the officers of the organized militia may have the benefit of the presence of regular troops. That instruction in the elementary duties may be given, officers will be instructed by their respective adjutant generals and by the commanding general, District of Columbia militia, to come to the camp with the field equipment of the private soldier as well as that of an officer. While these camps are designed primarily for company and battalion officers, field and regimental staff officers will be invited to attend, with the understanding that all questions of rank will be laid aside temporarily. It is considered that the general efficiency of the organized militia will be increased materially if all infantry officers receive the benefit of the course of instruction. Plan is Outlined. The following course of instruction, given as a guide, will be modified in accordance with the local conditions of the various camps. Instruction in the duties of a soldier, both without arms and with arms. Prompt formation of a company at the sounding of assembly. Care of the rifle—its essential parts, its care, its cleaning and its inspection.

GIRLS WRITE BACHELORS

Eastern Mails Reaching Dayton Are Flooded With Letters.

DAYTON, Wash., Jan. 26.—(Special)—Another record in connection with the affairs of the newly organized Blue Mountain Bachelors' Club was established yesterday when one Eastern mail brought 46 letters from marriageable maids living in nearly every state of the Union. During the last week every mail has carried from 10 to 30 letters to the club secretary, who is busy answering and referring to the subject of the organization. The total inquiries to date amount to over 250. With the purpose of extending its influence so that the organization will eventually become of National importance, the first branch club was established yesterday at Eggit, with a number of wealthy farmers included in the initial membership. The club, so its official announcement, has for its objects the making of souls, social and moral uplift, education and marriage, wealth, causes of domestic unhappiness, and kindred subjects. Inquiries from young women in the East show that many refined, highly educated, wealthy and pretty Eastern girls are willing to cast their lots with the Northwestern farmers.

ONLY NECESSARY TO TREAT THE STOMACH, SAYS COOPER

The new theory advanced by L. T. Cooper relative to the human stomach has attracted such widespread attention that the public in cities visited by the young man has been joined by many physicians in a discussion of his beliefs and medicines. Mr. Cooper says that human health is dependent almost entirely upon the stomach. He says that no disease can be cohered without first alleviating all stomach disorders. He further says that most men and women of this generation are half-sick, owing to degenerated stomachs. And lastly, he claims for his New Discovery medicine will regenerate the human stomach in 99 days. Cooper has been traveling from one city to another conducting in each what he calls a campaign of education. For the past year he has met the public in the larger cities of the country, and his success has been phenomenal. Thousands of people have flocked to his headquarters wherever he has gone, and the sale of his medicine has been beyond anything of the kind ever before witnessed. Possibly the most interesting feature of the attention this young man has attracted is what his army of followers, whom he has converted to his beliefs through his medicines, have to say on the subject. The following statements are from two well-known residents of Chicago and Boston, respectively, and the enthusiasm of these is characteristic of Cooper's admirers generally. Mrs. H. B. Mack, of 3391 State street, Chicago, says: "I have been suffering for 12 years from a combination of stomach troubles, catarrh and constipation. I had a gnawing pain in the pit of my stomach, a sort of dull pain that I could not quite understand. Then there was a dull headache, and my mind seemed to be wandering continually. I could not eat, and what little solid food I did eat I could not retain on my stomach. I tried every remedy I could think of, and also tried out a number of patent medicines, but without apparent result. It was through one of my friends that I heard of Cooper's preparation, and I immediately decided to try some of it. It is two weeks since I took my first dose of it, and I feel like a new woman. The headache seems to have disappeared, and I am able to eat. All solid food would cause me extreme indigestion, bloating and gas on my stomach, and nothing tasted right. Some time ago I got some of this Cooper's medicine, and I want to thank Mr. Cooper for what he has done for me." Mr. Edwin F. Morse, of 29 Oakley street, Dorchester, a suburb of Boston, says: "For three years I had not a well day. My stomach was in frightful shape; the mere thought of food would nauseate me, and I really had a horror of anything to eat. All solid food would cause me extreme indigestion, bloating and gas on my stomach, and nothing tasted right. Some time ago I got some of this Cooper's medicine, and I want to thank Mr. Cooper for what he has done for me." Mr. Cooper's New Discovery is sold by all druggists. If your druggist cannot supply you, we will forward you the name of a druggist in your city who will. Don't accept "something just as good."—The Cooper Medicine Co., Dayton, Ohio.
