WOMEN'S CLUBS COMMITTEE ASKS FOR MORE TIME. Building to Cover Entire Block Is Sure, Says Mrs. H. A. Heppner, but Location Is Difficult.

No definite action was taken by the committee representing the various women's clubs in Portland toward building an auditorium in the city at a meeting held yesterday afternoon.

That a great structure costing approximately $300,000 and covering an entire block will surely be built was the statement made last night by Mrs. H. A. Heppner, chairman of the committee and president of the Monday Club.

"There is no doubt but that our end can be accomplished if we keep up our united efforts," she said. "I believe the women are all enthusiastic enough to carry the plan through. But even should this not be accomplished by the women's clubs, the Monday Club has definitely decided to have an auditorium and if the women do not act as a unit the single organization will allow another plan to have the building built."

"We want an entire block, close to the center of the city. The members of the committee have been assiduously looking for such a location and finally decided on several prospective sites. It appears very hard to find an entire block close in on the West Side, such as we would want, and that is one of the reasons we have asked for additional time. But the demand of the city is for an auditorium covering an entire block and we will keep at it until we get it. There are several smaller auditoriums already, in fact, plenty of such buildings, but the real need of the city is something which will be larger and better."

"For this purpose we shall need not less than $200,000 for the building alone, regardless of the site. We propose now to issue stock among the clubwomen to handle the purchase of the site and to issue bonds for the erection of the building. We have many assurances of support and all the clubs, as clubs, seem enthusiastic and I believe will endorse the plan. The Jewish Women's Society cannot go into the plan as a club owing to the fact that they have already contracted to build a Neighborhood House in South Portland, but they have assured us of their unqualified support and have agreed to purchase stock and to interest as much capital as possible in the plan."

DR. CHAPMAN TO ADDRESS WOMEN.—Dr. C. H. Chapman will deliver an address on "Science and Literature," before the literary department of the Portland Women's Club, in the Women of Woodcraft Hall, this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

MEET ME AT WOOSTER'S, 408 Wash. • Rev. M. J. Hickey, who has been dangerously ill at St. Vincent's Hospital, is now rapidly recovering and will soon be able to resume the editorship of the Occidental Magazine, and to take up his usual missionary work.

PAINTER OF ROSES COMING. Paul de Longpre Will Attend Portland Rose Festival. Paul de Longpre, a world-famed painter of roses, is coming to Portland for the next Rose Festival.
