ADMIRERS MEET TRAIN

Ex-Portland Preacher and His Family Taken in Autos With Large Escort to Temporary Home.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 4.—(Special.)—Rousing was the Southern California welcome accorded Dr. James Whitcomb Brougner and his family at the Arcade depot today by members of Temple Baptist Church.

Having pink and white carnations in greeting, members of the reception committee were the first to salute the new minister as he stepped from the train, his face wreathed in smiles.

When the "Ouel Limited" rolled into the depot, an hour and a half late, the eager crowd swarmed against the gates, completely smothering the gate-man, who threw up his hands and let them go.

Rev. L. A. Gould was the first to grasp the hand of Dr. Brougner as he came down the steps, and he was followed by Mrs. Milo Bekins. A general reception on the car tracks followed.
