WRING IN TANGLE

City Fighting Automatic Fire Alarm System.

MAYOR SIMON IS COUNSEL

Executive Appears on Behalf of City in Effort to Prevent Automatic Company From Using Wires of Fire Department.

"Your honor would not allow Mr. Hogue to come into my house and occupy it with me. It seems to me that this injunction declares Dr. Hogue stood the operation admirably and expect that within a week or 10 days he will be able to resume his practice."

THE MATTER BEFORE JUDGE MORROW on demurrer to the complaint. Instead of passing on the demurrer, after counsel on both sides had argued, Judge Morrow said he would dissolve this injunction next Monday and issue another, which would allow the city to place its wires underground, but which would prevent the city authorities from interfering should the automatic company desire to connect its service with that of the city.

BOARD TO MEET MONDAY

EDUCATION BODY TO LAY PLANS FOR NEW SCHOOL.

Regular Meeting Fails to Develop Anything so Special Conference Is Called.

A special session of the Board of Education will be held Monday night at 8 o'clock, at which will be discussed the proposed new Lincoln High School, to be constructed at a cost of $50,000 on the block bounded by Seventh street, Eighth, Couch and Davis streets.

AN AMUSING INCIDENT ENLIVENED THE session yesterday afternoon, when J. N. McClellan, formerly employed by the board in repair work, arose and demanded to know why he had been discharged. He declared that he wanted the particulars and would "take up an awful mess" unless he got satisfaction.

THE ONLY THING I KNOW ABOUT IS THAT one day I went into the Atkinson School and found you there, Mr. Campbell.

THE OFFICE OF BUILDING INSPECTOR WILL be vacated March 15, as C. E. Dowd, the present incumbent, has resigned, to take effect on that date. A new building code is being prepared and it will call for a high-grade expert in building laws.

GREEK SLASHES STUDENT.—With Meat Cleaver, Restaurateur Cuts C. E. Hall to Bone.

SPLIT DOWN THE BACK WITH A MEAT cleaver in the hands of an infuriated Greek restaurateur, C. E. Hall, a student at the North Pacific Dental College, was cut on the street yesterday with the blood streaming out of his body and fell to the sidewalk in front of a cafe at 542 Washington street.

as deep as the bones and ran down the back parallel to the spine for over 12 inches.

The restaurant man, Dennis Varkados, was arrested and charged with assault with a dangerous weapon. Hall and Varkados became involved in an altercation over the price charged for a meal. Lashing his temper, the Greek struck with a dangerous weapon.

EXPLOSION HURTS PIONEER.—Frank Botefuhr, a pioneer resident of Portland, is confined to his home, 52 Twentieth street, North, suffering from severe burns about the face and head, received last week at Sea View, Wash.

FRANK BOTEFUHR INJURED WHILE INSTALLING GASOLINE TANK.

The accident to Mr. Botefuhr happened at his Summer home at Sea View. Mr. Botefuhr was superintending the installation of a oil-burner in the plant. A 120-gallon gasoline tank, intended for a reservoir, exploded, knocking the unfortunate man several feet and burning his face and head in a terrible manner.

EAST SIDERS INCORPORATE.—Business Men's Club Plans Move to Widen Scope of Work.

Articles of incorporation have been prepared for the East Side Business Men's Club, which have been approved by the members and will be filed today. The capital stock is placed at a nominal figure, $200 for the present. Officers and directors of the club will constitute the incorporators.
