Election on Today With Big Percentage of Registrations Irregular.

ARRESTS MADE; MORE DUE

Grand Jury Investigation, First of Kind in Country, Results That Deputy Sheriffs Are to Take Charge of Voting Booths.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—Registration today at the rate of 180 an hour. At this rate, the total registration for primary election tomorrow will be in excess of 45,000.

Hot Fight Expected. The election is to nominate candidates for city offices to be voted for March 8.

The Republican candidates for Mayor are Hiram C. Gill and A. V. Bouillon; the Democratic candidates, Mayor William H. Moore and Oliver T. Erickson.

The Federal Immigration Commission's report on white slave traffic in which Seattle is given a place of distinction second only to New York, has been referred to frequently during the canvass.

Chief Registration Clerk Will Hanna will keep his force at work all day tomorrow, in order that the registration may be corrected.

Orders Issued to Arrest. Sheriff Robert Hodge and Victor Marlon, special grand jury agent, were called before the grand jury today.

Two Arrests Made. The grand jury investigation of registration in this country by an inquisitorial body during the past two weeks the inquiry has been prosecuted and today two new arrests were made.

ROW SENDS OFFICE

Washington Official Ousted for Insubordination.

BOWLBY'S WORK CRITICISED

Road Superintendent M. H. Gilliam, of Spokane, Put Out for Cause.

Trouble Over Rock Quarry. Other Officials "Resign."

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—Shake-ups continue in state offices in Washington, every day bringing its changes.

As a result of the row between the State Board of Control and Highway Commission over the jurisdiction of rock quarries, Highway Commissioner H. I. Bowlby announces that he has removed M. H. Gilliam, of Spokane, superintendent of the Pajaro camp, for insubordination.

Bowlby's friends say he was discharged because he showed Governor Hay that Bowlby's plans for installing the machinery were impossible and absurd.

Gilliam Criticizes Work. Before the Governor, Gilliam severely criticized as worthless Bowlby's plan for installing the machinery.

Word reached here today that Walter L. McCallum, of Spokane, who has been secretary of the State Prison Board at Walla Walla, has resigned to take effect February 15.

Ben Fish, recently discharged as Assistant Secretary of State, by Secretary Howell, was today appointed by Auditor Clausen as one of the ten traveling examiners under the State Bureau of Inspection.

Tom Geoghegan, of Vancouver, who has been with the State Bureau of Inspection for years, has also resigned to become an examiner.

NORTH YAKIMA IS IN FEAR City Under Strict Quarantine Because of Diphtheria.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—All the public and private schools in North Yakima were closed this morning by order of the Board of Health as a precaution against the spread of diphtheria.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 7.—Answering a call from her husband, who lay ill in his home, Mrs. Mary Crass hurried to his bedside today to be attacked with a knife.

Both are in a hospital in a dangerous condition. But for a 4-year-old son, who saw the affair, both probably would have died in the house.

Mrs. Crass told the police her husband fancied she had been neglectful of him.

ASHLAND, Or., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—One of the largest land deals that has taken place here for a long time was closed Saturday, when the Fred McMahon and Hanscom ranches, 3 1/2 miles east of Ashland on the east side of Bear Creek and comprising 1640 acres, were sold to a syndicate of capitalists represented by Colonel J. E. Mundy.

ASHLAND, Or., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—The project of the purchasers includes the subdivision of the big acreage into small tracts, setting it to fruit and placing it upon the market and is one of the most important transactions of the year along development lines in this vicinity.

Roseclair Appeal Filed. SALEM, Or., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—John A. Jeffrey, attorney for John D. Roseclair, convicted of killing his wife and sentenced to be hanged on Friday of this week, this morning sent to the clerk of the Supreme Court a transcript on appeal in the Roseclair case, requesting that a stay of execution be granted.

Stolen Clock Reveals Itself. VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—Betrayed by a loudly-ticking clock in his pocket, Patrick White was convicted in Police Court this morning of stealing the timepiece from the U. S. Hotel. He was sentenced to spend ten days in the City Jail.

North Yakima Gets Prisoner. VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—Lee Yan, a Chinaman wanted in North Yakima on a charge of forgery, and who was hurried over here last night from Portland where his attorneys were preparing to start habeas corpus proceedings, was taken to North Yakima this morning by the Sheriff of that county.

Clark County Collects Taxes. VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—Frank Eichenlaub, County Treasurer, today received $584.46 as the first day's offerings of Clark County tax payers of the taxes for 1909.

CLACKAMAS REPUBLICANS GATHER. OREGON CITY, Or., Feb. 7.—(Special.)—The first gathering of Republicans in Clackamas County since the campaign of 1908 will take place next Friday night, when the Republicans of Parkside precinct will form a Republican club.
