

GILL AND MOORE
ELECTED IN SEATTLE

Vote Is Only Half of Registration.

"COLONISTS" TAKE FRIGHT

Deputies Active, but Only Two Warrants Are Served.

EXCITEMENT MARKS CLOSE

Battle for Nominations Had Been Strongly Personal—Republican Who Seems to Have Won, Favored "Restricted" Vice.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—

With the polls closing at 8 o'clock tonight and a heavy vote cast in every ward and precinct, counting of the ballots has been slow, but at 11 o'clock tonight it appears that Hiram C. Gill, Republican candidate for the nomination, has defeated his rival, A. V. Bouillon, and that William Hickman Moore, ex-Mayor, will be the choice of the Democrats for the head of the ticket.

Voting was spirited all day and what started as a lame election would end up tonight in all kinds of excitement.
Armed with warrants, Deputy Sheriffs watched all day in the precincts where evidence of illegal registration had been disclosed. Only two warrants were served. Owing to the fact the determination of the officers to send every man to jail who attempted to cast a fraudulent vote was clearly understood, the flourishing failed to vote and thereby escaped arrest.

Colony Vote Falls Off.

In the Third, Fourth and Fifth precincts of the First Ward, where the colonization in the cheap lodging-houses had been notorious, there was a heavy falling-off in the vote. More than 600 men in these precincts who were grouped about the polling places declined to vote. The percent of ballots cast was about 50 per cent of the registration.

In an unusual over the right of men to vote, Councilman James Conway, who was out for the Republican nomination, engaged in a hot fight with his opponent, H. P. Decker. Many stout blows were struck, but no blood flowed.

Personal Factor Large in Fight.

The campaign which ended tonight was one of the hottest ever known in the turbulent politics of Seattle. As early as last Fall the strife began with an agitation, backed by implied accusations of immorality and directed public protest to the red light problem. This, in turn, declined, and to the front came a discussion of the personal fitness of the aspirants for Mayor. Later, there developed a situation which relapsed other questions momentarily and directed public protest to the red light problem. This, in turn,
declined, and to the front came a discussion of the personal fitness of the aspirants for Mayor.

Although it had been known for a year that Hiram C. Gill, president of the City Council, would run for Mayor, A. V.
Bouillon was first to announce his bid.
He became a possibility in a peculiar manner. As Superintendent of Public Utilities he became known to City Engineer R. T. Thomson as Mayor John F. Miller was forced to out a general knot by removing Bouillon summarily. The public believed Bouillon was dismissed for doing his duty. He received so much backing that he became an avowed candidate for Mayor.

Timber in Grays Harbor Country Passes Into New Hands.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Feb. 8.—(Special.)— Covering five quarter sections of

TAFT MAY NOT SEE
ROOSEVELT RETURN

Home-Coming From Africa to Be Made Occasion of Nation-Wide Importance.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—John A.
Stewart, president of the New York League of Republican Clubs, arrived here today and will confer with President Taft tomorrow regarding the home-coming celebration in honor of ex-President Roosevelt.

A cable message was received in New York today from Mr. Roosevelt granting Republican Clubs' request for permission to form a reception committee with representatives from all over the country to meet him on his arrival in New York harbor some time between June 15 and 21 next.

President Taft is giving his hearty support to the plan for a Nation-wide celebration, but has not yet determined whether President Taft will be able to take any part. He has promised to go to Alaska the latter part of May, provided Congress has adjourned by that time, and if he should take the trip he would not return to the States until some time in July.

BOOSTER CLUB TO MEET

Oregon City Commercial Club Issues Invitations for Gathering.

OREGON CITY, Or., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—
The "booster" clubs of Clackamas County will be invited to hold a joint meeting with the Oregon City Commercial Club, March 5, during the afternoon and evening. Entertainment will be provided for the guests of the Commercial Club. At a meeting of the board of governors the house committee was authorized to install a gymnasium in the basement of the Masonic Temple.
Thirty members of the club have offered to contribute $1 per month toward its cost and the whole expense of fitting up will not exceed $200.

President Randall was authorized to appoint a committee of ten to attend a meeting of the Siskiyou Board of Trade, when the question of opening the Willamette River from Portland to Oswego will be discussed.

Frank Busch, chairman of the publicity department, together with the house committee, was authorized last night to arrange for a meeting of the club members and citizens to discuss the proposed charter amendments that will be submitted to the voters Monday, February 22.
The meeting will be held exclusively with the method of improving streets.

BEGGING LETTERS PLENTY

Dr. Pearsons, Nearly 90, Says Benefactors Are Chosen.

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Since Dr. Daniel K. Pearsons, of Hinsdale, announced three weeks ago that he would make a general distribution of his fortune on his 90th birthday, the intermittent stream of letters offered to grow to a steady torrent, amounting to more than 500 daily. Dr. Pearsons has granted that at my desire, a score of years, and vows that he will die pen-iless.

"I give almost nothing to individuals," Dr. Pearsons said. "It is to the colleges in the new West and poor sections of the South that most of my money will go. I have so arranged my affairs that at my death there will not be one cent to quarrel over. I don't know yet how much I shall give to those on a list already made out at the University of Copenhagen there is an endowment fund 900 years old, not one cent of which has been lost or wasted, and a German mission society has maintained a $50,000 fund for more than a century. All my gifts are to be given with this in view."

JURISTS ARE CONFIRMED.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The Senate today confirmed the reappointments of Justice M. Doane as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Arizona and Frank W. Parker as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico.

AMERICA SOON TO SEEK SOUTH POLE

National Geographic Society Decides.

CAPTAIN BARTLETT AT HEAD

Difficulty in Raising Funds Thought Unlikely.

START PLANNED FOR JULY

Scientific Body Passes Resolutions Setting Forth Value of Exploration in Antarctic and Accepts Peary's Offer Joint Work.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—America has decided to seek for South Pole laurels similar to those won for her by Commander Peary at the North Pole. The National Geographic Society today resolved to send an expedition in search of the South Pole, provided the necessary funds can be raised. It is not believed there will be any failure on this score.

Commander Peary was notified immediately of the action.
Captain Bartlett, in command of the Roosevelt on Peary's trip to the North Pole, probably will have charge of the Antarctic expedition.

After a meeting late this afternoon the board of managers of the Geographic Society adopted the following resolutions:
"The National Geographic Society believes it is of great importance to science that tidal, magnetic and meteorological observations shall be made at or near Coast Land in the same period that the British expedition under Captain Robert S. Scott is making similar observations on the other side of the Antarctic area, 1800 miles distant, and at the same time that the recently discovered land shall be explored.

"This society is ready to accept Mr.
Peary's proposition that it shall undertake jointly with the Peary Arctic Club an expedition to the Antarctic regions as outlined above, provided that the board of managers, after consultation with members of the society, finds that the project will receive sufficient financial assistance to warrant the undertaking."

July May See Start.

It is thought probable the expedition may be ready to sail as early as July.
The rapidity with which financial assistance is forthcoming will determine the date.

No spirit of rivalry to the British attempt to reach the South Pole is being manifested, it was declared, in the American expedition. The latter, which is to make its starting point at Coast Land, will travel over a territory hitherto entirely unexplored, while much is known, especially from Lieutenant Shackleton's work, of that on the other side of the South Pole, where he reached a point 97 miles from the goal.

DESERT CALLS HALT

SHE SEIZES SON AT SCHOOL, BIG POSSE PURSUES.

Arriving at Waste Lands and Not Knowing Road Woman Turns Back, Is Captured.

IMPERIAL, Cal., Feb. 8.—(Special.)— Surrounded on every hand by scores of miles of desert and ignorant of the roads or the location of water holes, Mrs.
Henry Yank, divorced wife of Dr. H. A.
P. Miller, of Imperial, today gave up to officers at Brawley and surrendered her 10-year-old son.

"It was the desert that caught me; your Sheriff's never would," Mrs. Yank exclaimed as she sank sobbing on a bench in the Brawley city jail. "I will have Albert yet," she continued convulsively clasping the boy to her breast.
Mrs. Yank drove to the Imperial grammar school at noon and called to the child for whom she and Dr. Miller have been contesting for four years. Little Albert dropped his baseball with a cry, "here's mamma," and ran to her. The woman helped the boy into the buggy and struck off across the desert.

Sheriffs Mobley and Meadows, two deputy sheriffs, ten constables and four City Marshals started ahead. They tracked Mrs.
Yank across the desert several miles and found she had turned back.

BRIDGE FIRM INTERESTED

Name of ex-Senator Platt Is Brought in by Quotation From Letter Discussing Bill That Pended Before Legislature.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 8.—The "man who handled the money" was brought before the State Senate today by Senator Ben Conger to confirm Conger's charge that Jonathan P. Aulds, its majority leader, accepted $1000 for influencing legislation.

He proved to be Hiram G. Moe, veteran ex-bank cashier of Groton, where Conger lives. He declared positively that, the congressional committee, headed by Senator Aulds an envelope containing $1000.

The purpose for which this alleged transfer of money was made did not appear in the direct testimony, but Senator Conger filed an affidavit in which he declared that the payment was made upon Aulds' demand. "In the interests of the American Bridge Company."

Moe declared he gave $4000 to another legislator and $1000 to a third.
Man Sent to Bank Now Dead.
The man who Moe said was sent to Albany with this $6000 is dead. He was Frank Conger, brother of the Senator, and, at the time the events occurred, vice-president of the bridge company.

The only other witness today was William A. Smith, editor of the Oswego Times.
Oswego was the home of ex-United States Senator Thomas C. Platt. Smith testified that in 1901 the Oswego Bridge Company was threatening to move its plant if certain legislation became law. The witness appealed to Senator Platt and received the following reply.

Platt's Name Dragged In.
"According to Aulds' statement the bill that passed is not objectionable to the bridge people, provided the other bill is held. There is no doubt the other bill will remain in the committee."

There is an impression here tonight that the introduction of Platt into the controversy is welcomed by the defense, and that it opens a way for Senator Aulds to plead that he only followed the instructions of the former Republican leader of the state.

Fair Association to Elect.

OREGON CITY, Or., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—
The directors of the Clackamas County Fair Association, elected last Saturday afternoon, will meet next Saturday in the offices of O. D. Eby for the election of a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer of the association. Much interest is being taken in the election of a secretary, as that official is the most important in the association. Judge Thomas F. Ryan and O. D. Eby have been mentioned in connection with the position.

SCIENTIST PROVES
LIFE AFTER DEATH

MICHIGAN PROFESSOR TAKES NEW VIEWPOINT.

"Individuality Continues to Exist, After Life-Giving Principles Have Gone," Says Dr. Guthe.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Feb. 8.—(Special.)— "If you claim that personality is both matter and mind, both physical energy and consciousness, are we not completely destroyed when death claims our bodies?" is the question Dr. Carl B. Guthe, professor of physics at the University of Michigan answered today on the probability of life after death, without reference to religious theory. He said:

"Our life if the constant growth of human intellect, closely connected with the development of the body. But we know that there is a continuous interchange of cells, decaying and forming, and yet, though living tissues may, in the course of time, be entirely renewed, individuality continues to exist; it remains one and the same, therefore, life after death is proved on scientific grounds.

"But even the matter and energy, which has been given off from the living body has not disappeared, it is still in existence, though disconnected from the life-giving principle.

"I have to content myself with the assertion that the mind is as indistinguishable as matter and energy, my firm belief in evolution and in an orderly plan of the universe leads me to doubt that there can be any retrogression in its development."

PONTIFF'S ACT EXPLAINED

Archbishop Ireland Says Pope Was Right in Snubbing Fairbanks.

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—A statement was given to the Associated Press by Archbishop Ireland today, in which the archbishop said:

"People in America may easily misapprehend the circumstances in Rome which led the Vatican to raise an audience with the Irish father, to Mr. Charles W.
Fairbanks after he, a former Vice-President of the United States, would have made a public address before the Methodist Association in this city.

"It was not a question of Mr. Fairbanks being a Methodist or going to a Methodist Church in Rome for Sunday services. It was a question of approving to give the fullest approval to the work of the Methodist Association in this city.

"The purpose of the work of the Methodist Association in Rome is confessedly openly. The means employed are by no means honorable. They take every advantage of the poverty of the poor of Rome. Books circulated and displayed in the windows of their bookstores are slanderous against the Catholic faith, the holy poisiff at Rome, and a misrepresentation of the whole Catholic system.

"No public address by a former Vice-President of the United States, before the Methodist Association, can have the effect of removing the stigma of a Roman public man, as the propaganda of the Methodist Association."

TWO OREGON PIONEERS DIE

Forest Grove Residents Called After Long Life.

FOREST GROVE, Or., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Ruggles, aged 84 years, died at the family home in this city today. She was born in Iowa. The Ruggles are old settlers of the North Yamhill country, and moved to Forest Grove six months ago.
Mrs. Ruggles is survived by her husband and several children. The remains will be buried in North Yamhill in the Globe. The discovery was made by G. J. L. Doerschuck, of Brooklyn, who arrived here today from Bermuda.
Mr. Doerschuck is quoted as saying that he met Dr. Cook near Brooklyn, Bermuda, and that he recognized him instantly, as they were both members of the Bushwick Club in Brooklyn.
Asked Mr. Doerschuck what he was doing, Dr. Cook said:

"Just resting. I am feeling much better than I did and I will soon return to New York and straighten out the North Pole tangle. I am confident I will be able to make that matter square."

Mr. Doerschuck said that Dr. Cook told him he proposed sailing for Halifax today.

who arrived here today from Bermuda.
Mr. Doerschuck is quoted as saying that he met Dr. Cook near Brooklyn, Bermuda, and that he recognized him

FIGHTER'S TRIAL PUT OFF

Court Proceedings May Delay Johnson's Meeting With Jeffries.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—The fact that Criminal Court proceedings may interfere with Jack Johnson's appearance in the prize ring July 4, was intensified today when Justice Goff granted the District Attorney's motion to strike the charge of assault against Jack Johnson from the present calendar.
Johnson's lawyer protested, saying his client desired an immediate trial, but the District Attorney said he had not had time to prepare the case, and it would come on the next calendar. The prosecution declares it has a strong case, and will not accept a compromise.

LINE DRAWN AT SHAVES

Contrast Drawn Between Fleeting Stay in Paris and Lingering In Turkey, Where Member's Wife Received Decoration.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Demanding an investigation of the Immigration Commission provided for in the resolution he had introduced, Representative Macon, of Arkansas, renewed his attack upon the Commission in the House today.

Mr. Macon vigorously defended his informant, J. H. Patten, secretary of the Immigration Restriction League, who was severely arraigned by Representative Bennet, of New York, a member of the Commission, in a recent speech in the House.

"It is characteristic of the man to proceed in the cowardly way in which the gentleman from New York has proceeded," thundered Mr. Macon, referring to the New Yorker's attack on Patten.

"I object," said Mr. Bennet, and the members were all alert.
"I withdraw the remark," quickly responded Mr. Macon, and the tension was dissipated.

Extravagance Is Charged.
Mr. Macon's speech was made in response to Mr. Bennet's defense of the Commission, and he renewed his charges that the Commission had been extravagant. He declared that official reports and expense accounts corroborated his assertions that its trip abroad in 1907 was a "junket," and that the Government had had no adequate return from the expenditure by the Commission of $657,992.

"Unless my resolution to create a commission of three to investigate the extravagance of the Commission is adopted, so the country will know that the extravagance I complained of is scandalous, the people will rise and smite the party that attempts to shield the Commission that made it," said Mr.
Macon.

"Six members of the commission and seven employees made the trip to Europe," he said. "They drew $86,000 on which to make the trip, and in their report, they account for only $39,515.

Tips Charged in Bill.
"The expense accounts are made up of steamship and railroad charges, carriage hire, fees and tips, hotel bills, telegraph, wine, whiskey, cognac, lemons, slices, siphons, citrons, cigars, cleaning and pressing clothes, shaves, shiners, haircuts, shampoos and rubs."

"Such luxuries as wines and whiskey, cognac, lemons, etc., were allowed by the auditor, but he disallowed when it came to shaves, haircuts, shampoos, shiners and cigars."

Mr. Macon characterized the staying at high-class hotels and partaking of their menus and beverages as "feasting at Government expense."

Commissioners See Sights.
He asked Mr. Bennet to explain why he could take time to engage in gorgeous festivities in Turkey. He was in Turkey decorated with the insignia of the "Order of Kindness," and ancient Turkish society, by the Sultan, if he could not find time to draw a long breath in Paris or east his eyes upon St. Peter's in Rome.
This was in reply to Mr. Bennet's statement that his trip to Paris was record-breaking for brevity.

Basing his remarks on inspection of the official records Mr. Macon charged that in the Holy Land the Commission made a carriage trip from Jerusalem to Bethany and from Jaffa to Jerusalem; that in London they had a carriage to the Ambassador's and return, a carriage to the House of Lords, to Westminster Abbey, to the Tower of London, to Regent Square and the British Museum; that in Syracuse they had a carriage to the Cata-combs; that in Messina they had a ride in a landau; that in Scotland they had a pleasure ride to the castle of Edinburgh, and in Ireland to the famous Lakes of Killarney.

Accuser Is Sarcastic.
"The Commission wanted to find out the kind of immigrants that came to this country from these places, including the Catacombs, where sleep and decay the bones of the departed," said Mr.
Macon sarcastically.

He suggested that to have gone to Mr.
Bennet for his information, as Mr. Bennet suggested, would have been practically as to hunt "devils in heaven or saints in hell."

Election to Congress, he continued, was not conclusive evidence of integrity, nor did it make Mr. Bennet immune from attack.

"A much larger percentage of Congres-men, whether members of the House or of the Senate, have been charged with crime and made to stand trial for felony."
