

TEST OF HIGH STEP CARS IS ORDERED

Women With Grievances to Have Opportunity to Try Various Types.

MEN ALSO ARE INVITED

Space Required for Motors on Large Cars Makes Problem Difficult.

Check of St. John Service Justifies Complaints.

Every woman in Portland having a grievance against the steps maintained on the cars operated by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, is invited by Mayor Simon's special committee to meet at the City hall at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, February 22. At that time, Superintendent Franklin will have cars, equipped with the various kinds of steps in vogue, and the women will be asked to try all of them and see whether some decision can be reached as to the best type.

Men also are asked to attend, but as the women have inaugurated the fight for lower steps, the invitation is to them especially. Chairman Lombard, of the committee, is of the opinion that little can be done. He stated at the outset that he regarded the contention as one having little merit. He virtually repeated this declaration at yesterday's session of the committee, the agreed-upon resolution to Councilman Ellis' suggestion that a test of the various kinds of steps be made in an effort to solve the problem.

Large Cars Have High Steps.

Mr. Franklin said to the committee that the company wanted to do its best to please its patrons, but he thought that this step question was one that would be difficult to answer. He doubted whether it could be settled unless smaller cars were used, owing to the large space required on the larger types for motors. It is because of this equipment that it is so difficult to place the steps lower. It is only on the large cars that there is complaint.

However, the women, led by Mrs. Nina Larowe, have begun a determined campaign, and declare they never will quit until they have secured their steps. They assert that the high step is a menace to health, as well as a great inconvenience. The Portland Women's Club and the Monday Musical Club have passed resolutions favoring lower steps and endorsing the general movement in that direction.

A packet of 15 letters, written by various well-known women of this city and suburbs to Mrs. Larowe, was read to the committee yesterday. These were published last week in The Oregonian, and constitute a loud complaint against the present high steps on the large cars.

After a long discussion, it was decided that it would be wise to have a demonstration as to steps and to invite every one interested to attend. The car company will utilize the intervening time in preparing for the event, and it is the wish of the members of the committee that all having a grievance against the steps be there to help out in the problem by suggestions and by actual tests of the steps that will be exhibited on the cars at the car barns.

Transfers Are Curtailed.

Mr. Franklin replied in writing to several complaints that had been made to the committee and referred to him for consideration. The committee recommended that the company issue no transfers to east-bound passengers to the Mount Scott and Sellwood cars on Waverly street between the hours of 4:30 and 5:30 P. M., so as to avoid the overcrowding of these last-named cars by persons who want to get to the Mount Scott or Sellwood districts. A complaint of this nature had been made by people living on the entire line. The company will adopt the recommendation at once.

The committee also recommended the construction of a shelter at Sixth and Irving streets for persons who take the cars from the Union Depot, and the company immediately will build one.

Mr. Franklin replied at considerable length to the complaint of the Mount Scott Improvement Club, which was one of the most bitter of all those received by the committee. He promised a double track for that district, but pointed out that it takes time to make such extensive improvements as contemplated by the committee, and called attention to the expenditure to be made by the corporation represented by himself for betterments this year. He declared that it will require an outlay of $500,000 of which $100,000 will be for street improvements. He denied that any officer of the car company had ever threatened to tear up the Mount Scott track and abandon its use unless complaints ceased, and said that he never had heard of such a thing before receiving the letter from the club. Relative to the complaint of overcrowded cars on that line, he said that two extra cars had been ordered placed on the line for the rush hours, but he held that a 15-minute service was sufficient throughout the day, as the company operates trains of two cars each and not single cars.

St. John Complaints Justified.

Several complaints of slack attention by conductors and motormen on the St. John cars were made, and Mr. Franklin replied that he had caused a "check" to be made and found the complaints justified, and had "acted accordingly." He was unwilling, however, to concede that the wrecking service there was worse than anywhere else, as has been alleged. He declared that the equipment was equal to that of any city, and that the men were as capable.

Answering questions by the members of the committee as to what cars will be heated next winter, Mr. Franklin submitted a list, including Woodstock, Montavilla, Vancouver, St. John, Rose City Park, Alberta, Woodlawn and Portland Heights.

The special committee of the Council is having many complaints as to the service, but many of them are more or less general and some even trivial. The next session will be at 2 o'clock Tuesday, February 15.

Late Mrs. Sarah Dixon Shaver, Who Will Be Laid to Rest Today.

BODY LAD TO REST

Mrs. Sarah Dixon Shaver Is to Be Buried Today.

PIONEER 64 YEARS OLD

Born in Indiana, Woman Crossed Plains in Early Days—She Married George W. Shaver, Born in Kentucky in 1832.

Sarah Dixon Shaver, a well-known Oregon pioneer and wife of the late George W. Shaver died Monday afternoon at her home, 346 Crosby street. The funeral will be held today at 10:30 A. M. from the residence. Dr. T. L. Eliot will officiate and the burial will be in the Riverside Cemetery.

Mrs. Shaver was the daughter of James and Susan Dixon. She was born in Indiana, August 30, 1839, and was one of a family of 11 children, only four of whom now survive.

James Dixon, her father, was born in Ovid, Seneca County, New York, in 1803. In 1816 he moved with his father to Indiana and for several years rafted lumber on the Alleghany River. On April 5, 1824, he was married to Susan Copple, who was born in Clark County, Indiana, November 17, 1805. They settled on a farm in Shelby County, Indiana, on the Blue River, where they lived for 20 years, then moving to Andrew County, Missouri, where they lived for eight years. And from there he crossed the plains, in 1851, with his wife and three of his oldest children, arriving in Portland in November of that year.

Thomas, one of the brothers of Mrs. Shaver, was killed in the Bannock war in 1879, near Steen Mountain.

On February 2, 1854, Sarah Dixon was married to George W. Shaver, another pioneer who crossed the plains in 1851, after leaving Kentucky, where he was born March 2, 1822.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaver settled in Marion County among the Waldo Hills. In 1860 they moved, with their family, to Portland and settled on the East Side of the river, where what is now known as Elizabeth Irving Addition, and where the old homestead still stands, between Crosby and Larabee streets and Cherry and Broadway. Here six children were born unto Mr. and Mrs. Shaver, making a family of ten children. Seven of the children are living, four sons and three daughters, as follows: James W., George M., Delmar and Lincoln; and Mary Alice, wife of H. Wittenberg; Susan, wife of Albert Helms, and Pearl, wife of George W. Hoyt.

"COP" SLUMBERS ON BEAT

Alarm Clock Fails to Give Warning of Approach of Sergeant.

Chief of Police Cox suspended Patrolman E. R. Evert yesterday morning, after the patrolman had been found asleep in the office of a Sunnyside woodyard at a time when he should have been covering his beat. A feature of the finding of Evert was that he had an alarm clock to awaken him at the regular hourly interval at which he should have reported. Evert was found by Sergeant Joe Keller of the second night relief at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning. When the Sergeant tried to get into the office he found the door locked. He notified Captain Hart, who hastened to the scene in the police automobile, and the two officers awakened the patrolman. In view of the recent rigid orders regarding discipline and attention to duty issued by Chief Cox, it is believed that Evert will receive summary punishment.

Evert's case is the second in the history of the Portland Police Department in which a patrolman used an alarm clock to enable him to sleep on his beat and report to the police station at proper intervals. L. C. Pines, the son of Patrolman J. A. Crowell, was caught by Captain Batty, then a sergeant, three years ago. Pines was dismissed.

LENT PASTORAL ISSUED

BISHOP SCADDING URGES ABSTINENCE DURING PERIOD.

Prelate Appeals to Flock to Fast and Avoid Worldly Amusements Throughout Season.

Bishop Scadding, of the Episcopal Church, has just issued a Lent pastoral to the clergy and laity of the Diocese of Oregon. Today is Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent.

The pastoral follows:

It has been objected that a strict observance of Lent secularizes the season of the year. The same argument would lead to the abolition of Sunday. As only those who rightly observe the Lord's day sanctify the whole week, so those who make the best use of Lent find the most profitable time for their souls. Do not enter with sympathetic appreciation into the seasons of the festivals of the church and to live with constant self-restraint during the remainder of the year.

Let us get the best results from Lent by remembering the purpose of the time and the services which are appropriate thereto. The purpose is to draw into close communion with God, and the means are penitence and prayer. We can only hope to approach near unto God if our hearts are right with God, and it is penitence which cleanses them and makes them ready for him.

As sin has been the only means of separation between God and man, so only by the removal of sin can we get back what man had lost, the sense of communion, the power to love and the strength to do. As "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son" for the redemption of man, best use of Lent is the removal of sin comes in the life of penitence. To this we are called, days now for this particular year. Call upon the church people of this diocese to give all diligence in the perfecting of penitence.

Let us abstain from worldly amusements use the time thus gained for self-examination, meditation, more frequent and earnest prayer, confess your sins; do some real fasting and abstinence and do not talk about it; make some act of self-denial each day; and abstain from the whole time. Do it all as unto the Lord and not unto men; with humility and meekness, with teachableness of heart, and with lowliness of mind.

The result of such observance should be a freedom in grace, marked by restraint in the indulgence of the senses, greater sympathy and consideration for others, more zeal for the world, and a more abundant increase of sense both of spiritual power and of communion with God.

Remember you to God and the power of his might; I assure you of my constant prayers and send you my blessing as we approach upon more the days of Lent.

Faithfully, your bishop and friend,
CHASLES SCADDING.

Laurelhurst is from 5 to 10 Minutes Closer In than Other Residence Additions Now on Sale in Portland and on 2 Carlines

This is one of the many reasons why purchasers of high-class home sites choose Laurelhurst in preference to other tracts much farther out. It explains the high sales for January in Laurelhurst. It requires only a visit to this property to make one realize the immense advantages of Laurelhurst over any other section of the East Side. Laurelhurst is restricted property and these can be no shacks erected next to a fine home, and by reason of the magnificent view which can be had in all directions Laurelhurst is ideal home property. As an investment it is absolutely safe and sure, for it lies in the heart of the most exclusive residence district of the East Side, where values are high, prices low and property always in demand. Laurelhurst is the last available high-class property in this section.

Sales in Laurelhurst for the Month of January Reached a Total of $146,750

This large record of sales is another indication of the fact that the public appreciates what is being done in Laurelhurst. The many superior features of Laurelhurst over any other residence addition of Portland are apparent to every visitor to the property. Let us show you Laurelhurst in our automobiles and you will at once see the advantage of investing here. If you are in the market for a home site, you want it located in a section where no apologies are necessary and where you may feel assured that you could not have placed your wife and family in a more choice neighborhood. The word "improvements" as applied to a real estate addition mean everything or anything. In some additions it means graded streets, water and sidewalks. In Laurelhurst it means:

Asphalt Streets--Cement Walks--9 Foot Parkways--Shade Trees--Water--Sewer Gas--Cluster Lights--Etc.

BEAMS UP ONE AT TIME

MEANWHILE COURTHOUSE CONTRACTOR FORFEITS $50 DAY.

Lack of Steel Hampers Construction and Extension of Time of Contract Is Refused.

A few steel beams each day continue to be delivered at Fourth and Salmon streets, the site of the county's new Courthouse. Four or five were delivered yesterday, and several the day before. The five men whom the United Engineering & Construction Company had at work last week putting up a derrick have been taken off, and for two days the derrick engine has been idle.

Meanwhile O. E. Helms, who contracted to furnish the steel for the east wing of the new structure for $2,714, and to erect it for $284, is forfeiting $50 a day for failure to complete the steel framework in time. The contract called for the finishing of this work November 23, last. The penalty amounts to about $300 a month. Helms' bondsmen, the United States Fidelity & Guarantee Company, have been notified, say the County Commissioners, that the contractor must continue in use until the new Courthouse east wing is completed.

"Work in putting up the steel will probably be resumed tomorrow," said O. E. Helms, of the Pacific Iron Works, last night. "The United Engineering & Construction Company, to whom we sublet the contract for putting up the steel, is now waiting for steel with which to erect the first and second stories. The steel carload arrived from the Bethlehem Steel Works yesterday, and we are fabricating it here. We expect to have enough steel on the Courthouse site within a few days to pit up the first two stories. "We are doing nothing regarding our $50 a day forfeiture. The time extension is up to the County Commissioners."

Piano Buyers

Have two ways of considering a purchase—

Price and Quality

Some think only of price, but the wise buyer considers, above everything, quality, and is willing to pay what quality necessarily costs.

THE Krakauer Piano

Possesses a tone of such peculiar richness that you cannot forget it. It is the piano of quality, and, furthermore, quality at the minimum price.

Compare the Krakauer with any other piano, and you will be willing to pay the additional amount which the Krakauer costs. Convenient payments may be arranged—Old instruments taken in exchange.
