

'TAY DAY' TELLS OF TOP TO AMERICA

Irish Leader Cheers Hearts of Countrymen With Message of New Support.

HOME RULE TO SUCCEED

O'Connor, in Interview at Queenstown, Waxing Enthusiastic Over Visit to United States and Opportunity for Success.

DUBLIN, Feb. 9.—(Special.)—On his arrival at Queenstown from America, P. M. O'Connor, the Irish general, unfolded his mind on the great public and vital question of the day.

Mr. O'Connor said he visited many of the big cities of the States. He was in Boston, Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Washington, New York, etc. To the last-named city he devoted a great deal of his time.

He continued to say that during the progress of that mission the several cities turned out most enthusiastically, and he mentioned some of them—Boston, for instance, and Philadelphia, where the people assembled in thousands, and with exceeding spontaneity subscribed their thousands of dollars.

WOMAN WHO PROPOSED TO MAN, SHOT HIM, THEN KILLED HERSELF, WILL BE BURIED TODAY.

MADRAS, Or., Feb. 9.—(Special.)—Though no word from relatives had been heard up to today as to what disposition should be made of the body of Mrs. Eleodra L. Myer, of El Paso, Texas, the woman who shot J. B. Haynie, also of that city, at Willow Creek Canyon, near here, and then committed suicide, she will be buried here today.

Her attorney, Walter Hayes, of Portland, has advised the burial in such a manner as to be in accordance with the wishes of the deceased, and it is expected he will have the body sent there for permanent burial.

Mr. Haynie, the victim of the shooting affair, continues to improve, and it is expected will be able to travel soon to the home of his uncle, who lives at Forest Grove, Or., where he will remain till strong enough to travel south. Mr. Haynie has a family in El Paso and was working only temporarily at the railroad camp where he was shot by the infatuated woman, who once had sued him for breach of promise for $10,000, Vancouver, Wash.

One of the most peculiar phases of the case is the fact that Mrs. Myer had made out her will and left her estate to her ex-husband, who had divorced her in Texas about five years ago, while she was in love with Haynie, whom she shot after he had refused three times to marry her on her three times proposing to him.

by Constable Sheppard of that place after a desperate struggle in which the officer was compelled to shoot Sebasco before he would submit to arrest. The constable's bullet took effect in the prisoner's chest.

Sebasco, who lives in a tent on the mountain side near Wendling, was wanted on a charge of larceny, having been suspected for some time of numerous depredations around Wendling, including the entering of the cookhouse of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company at that place. Constable Sheppard had been watching for his man for a couple of weeks, but had not seen him until last night, when the men met on the railroad track.

The constable commanded Sebasco to throw up his hands, whereupon the latter reached for his gun. The officer was quick for him and shot first. One flesh wound resulted, however. The two men then clinched, the constable finally overpowering Sebasco and disarming him after which he placed the handcuffs upon him. The constable brought Sebasco to Eugene this morning and turned him over to Sheriff Brown.

The previous charge of larceny in a building was substituted. He was arraigned before Judge Bryson this afternoon, when he waived examination and was bound over to the Circuit Court. It is alleged that Sebasco had been carrying the loot he is charged with having taken from various people to his tent on the mountain. A few nights ago he was alleged to have shot at a woman in the vicinity of Wendling.
