A little more than a year ago, the KNekitat County Development League, at a "booster" meeting held in Goldendale, raised an advertising fund of about $5000. This sum has been expended in various ways and in the interim the league has taken an active part in all movements for the betterment of the community. Part of the fund was expended in publishing an illustrated booklet, of which 20,000 copies were distributed. In addition 40,000 folders were published and distributed also. distributed also

BIG RAIL ORDER IS PLACED

Deschutes Will Soon Lay Steel for Distance of 50 Miles.

An additional requisition for 50 miles of steel rails for the Deschutes Railroad line has been made by Chief Engineer Boschke, who has just returned from a trip of inspection over the completed portion of the road. Rails are now laid for a distance of six miles from the mouth of the canyon, and tracklaying is to be presped with the greatest vigor possible in order to facilitate the setting of "Lucia" and his Italian soloists in the sixth sextet of "Lucia" and the quartet from "Rigoletto."

If you are suffering trom billousness, constipation, indigestion, chronic headache, invest one cent in a postal card, send to Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Molhes, lowa, with your name and address plainly on the back, and they will for working the control of the carryon, and tracklaying is to be presped with the greatest vigor possible in order to facilitate the setter of "Lucia" and its quartet from "Rigoletto."

of the transportation materials farther up the canyon.

The tunnel work along the line is demanding a great deal more timbering than was estimated. Instead of encountering the solid basaltic rock indicated by the surface, the tunnels have run into seams and shales and heavy timbers are required. Tunnel timbers cannot now be secured without long wagon hauls.

The laying of 30 more miles of track will carry the rails to the first tunnel and Mr. Boschke expects to have the track laid to that point within another month.

In the last few weeks the forces in the canyon have been greatly augmented. The Deschutes Raliroad Company gives the number of its working force at about 500. John F. Stevens, yesterday, said that the Oregon Trunk line has approximately 4500 men at work including teamsters and camp employes. The total therefore runs up to about 5000 men.

KLAMATH FALLS IS NOT GOAL

President Stevens, of Oregon Trunk, Says Report Misleads.

John F. Stevens, president of the Oregon Trunk Line, said yesterday: Oregon Trunk Line, said yesterday:

Statements now being published, apparently by authority, that the Oregon Trunk Railway will, without delay, build its line through Central Oregon to Klamath Falls are entirely wrong and misleading, as it has not decided upon any such plan.

It has filed maps through Government lands as far south as the Klamath Indian Reservation and is making some surveys in the reservation, but these surveys will not be continued to Klamath Falls, and he line as now located to the Indian Reservation may or may not be constructed. All that is now definitely decided is that it will probably build as far south as Bend, leaving the question of further extensions an open one. The filing of maps is no conclusive proof of intention to build; if it were, Oregon would lave more railroads now than it could possibly need.

past two weeks to be found asleep or absent from his beat.

The place where he spent the time is a confectionery store conducted by Mrs. Jane Coad. Information was received at police headquarters that Mrs. Coad had a young girl in the house with her, and the information was referred to Mrs. Baidwin, head of the woman's bureau of the police department, to investigate. Mrs. Baidwin found the woman under the hiftuence of some drug, Patrolman Absence of Science and Science of Science o Mrs. Baldwin found the woman under the influence of some drug. Patrolman Abbot took the woman into custody. She we taken to the City Jall, where she is charged with being drunk and disorderly. The house was 30 feet away from the boundaries of Newell's beat, and in Sergeant Kienlen's report it is said that the door of the place had been left open for Newell.

The discovery of the delinquent officers is attributed to Chief Cox's foresight in assigning the additional sergeants to this relief. Cars not being available in the early morning hours, it has been impossible in the past for two sergeants properly to supervise the work of all of the police on duty.

Chief Cox also advised Evert that the resignation would be accepted. The policeman decided to take his chances before the committee.

DISPOSAL OF GARBAGE

It Should Not Be Done Within the

PORTLAND. Or. Feb. 3.—(To the Editor.)—Your editorial in The Oregonism today on the subject of garbage crematories suggests this lotter. If you will allow me space I will be as brief as possible in stating my position on this subject.

You have evidently given this subject due consideration, and by those who have practical knowledge of this seemingly unsolvable problem your suggestions are sure to meet with approval. The present plan of hulding a garbage intinerator on the elts owned by the city at Guild's Lake to may mind is the very worst conceivable. If it was centrally located so as to obviate the long hauf and consequent necessary expense, and also the inconvenience, it would not be so bad to expend $120,000. I am not in favor of the city hullding crematories within the incorporate limits. For obvious reasons:

1. You cannot do so without injuring property in its immediate vicinity and also that adjacent thereto.

2. It masters not how sanitary it is, the fact still remains that it is a crematory, and the very name reduces values.

3. There is also the inconvenience of many iscams concentrating at one point, which is more or less objectionable on account of its wearing out the streets and the necessary expense to the inconvenience of many iscams concentrating at one point, which is more or less objectionable on account of its wearing out the streets and the necessary expense to the city owners in repairing. If this we approperty outper is a list of the patrons why not adopt your plan?

Another point in favor of your argument is that it can be put into operation in less than 60 days, and at best the contemplated crematory cannot be constructed and proven in the sthan at months, even if the centract is entered into immediately and the work expedited in the incineration of these militaries of the inhabitants in t

Campaign to Exploit Central Oregon Is Planned.

PRODUCTS TO BE SHOWN

Great Northern Bulletin Soon to Be Issued Will Show Possibilities of Country Tributary to Lines Being Built.

For the purpose of thoroughly advertising Central Oregon and showing its possibilities as a place for home-seekers and settlers, the Great Northern Balliroad yesterday sent two representatives into the interior to secure materials for buildins and gather information from actual farmers on irrigation, dry farming and kindred subjects of interest to intending settlers, President L. W. Hill has given instructions that a systematic campaign be undertaken to advertise thoroughly the resources of the Deschutes Valley tributary to the Great Northern line now under construction.

Writer and Agent Make Trip.

Writer and Agent Make Trip.

With this end in view, Fred W. Gra-am, of Scattle, traveling freight agent f the Great Northern, left for the eschistes last night and will be joined Deschates last night and will be joined at The Dalles by George Palmer Putnam, whose writings on Central Oregon have appeared at intervals in The Oregonian. Mr. Putnam will secure photographs and information which will be embodied in a Great Northern bulletin on Oregon which will be published immediately after he has completed his labors. Mr. Graham will gather statistics as to tonnage possibilities and endeavor to arouse enthuslasm among the people of the Deschutes Valley, so that more and better products will be placed on exhibition at various points. Mr. Graham also will make recommendations as to the location of stations along the line, with the convenience of the shippers the principal point in view.

The Great Northern is now giving a great deal of attention to the advertising of Oregon resources, and at its exhibit rooms in St. Faul are displays of Oregon products which are attracting a great deal of attention. The railroad also has a room open in Philadelphia, and has just completed negotiations for opening a similar exhibit in Boston. Both places are for the display of products of Oregon and other Western States traversed by the lines of the Great Northern.

Feb. 9.—(To the Ed-tior.)—The precinct assembly plan of organization, published in The Sunday Oregonism of January 30, will no doubt appear to many as being somewhat visionary and impracticable. In order to correct any such impressions, some explanations should be made in its de-fense.

In making county nominations before In making county nominations before the candidates can be properly considered by the precinct assembly they should be required to comply with the provisions of the direct primary law, except filing their petitions, which should first be placed in the hands of the central committeemen. Dates should be set and well advertised for opening and closing the nominations. After the time has expired the chairman of the central committee will have in his possession the names of all the candidates and the names of the offices each is assession the names of all the candidates and the names of the offices each is aspiring for, and will be authorized to use them for political purposes for the benefit of the candidates and their political friends who desire to support them. work of bringing the matter before the voters, the central committeemen can have tally sheets printed, containing all the names of the candidates, grouped under the names of the various offices they are candidates for. Sufficient space should be provided opposite the name of each candidate for tallying the vote. A sufficient number of tally sheets should be furnished each precinct.

It is now up to the Republican voters to assemble together in their various precincts for the purpose of exercising their direct choice as to whom they prefer for office. It will require only one vote of the assembly to decide the choice for each office. As the votes are called off by the tellers the two clerks should tally sheets and the totals can be carried forward while the next vote is being taken. When the voting is done the tally sheets are complete, except to receive the signatures of the chairman and two clerks to attest their correctness. The assembly can then elect one of its members as a delegate to deliver one of the original tally forming that important political function, and should do so. I am in favor of the convention indorsing two candidates for each office, and by that means make the direct primary operative. To avoid all unpleasantness that might otherwise occur, none of the candidates should make any personal campaign preceding the direct primary election or have any special emissaries in the field for that purpose. Since men who aspire for high political positions have established characters for honor, integrity and ability and are generally well known to the public, the voters can intelligently decide the question as to whom they desire to support for office. There will be no lack of information; ample and reliable means will be provided and made available for obtaining it. sheets to the county central committeemen in person.

The popular will of the party has The popular will of the party has now become a matter of record in the hands of the party's authorized and responsible agents. The central committeemen, with the assistance of the precinct assembiles' delegates, can now proceed to count the vote, using the totals for that purpose. All the candidates should be apprised of the results of the count and the successful ones should be requested to file their petitions, as required by law. The county paper having the largest general

The country paper having the largest general ty paper having the largest general be given the work of printing the tally sheets, and a copy of it, containing all the names of the candidates, should be published in one or two issues of the paper. This would bring the candidates prominently before the voters and they would all be given an equal publicity and for a sufficient length of time to enable the voters to decide intelligently as to whom they prefer to office. Candidates are not to be picked up promiscuously on the day of holding the assembly, as might be supposed. Since very little of the work would be arduous and but little time would be arduous and but little time would be required, it would all be gladly volunteered, except the preparation and printing of the tally sheets, the cost of which would be generously met by the candidates and their friends. Good government is so essential to our prosperity and happiness that it is worth all the trouble necessary to obtain it. George Wickman, 16 years old, was arrested yesterday morning and turned over to the Juvenile Court. He is accused of stealing $49 from the grocery store of John Goldstaub, at Williams ayenue and Russell street, where he was formerly employed. He accuses John Campbell, the 15-year-old son of Michael Campbell, of aiding in the theft, but Campbell denies taking part. According to Wickman, Campbell had two revolvers and threatened to shoot Wickman if he did not join with him in robbing the store. After securing the money, says Wickman, they went to the woods beyond the old Irvington racetrack to divide the spoils, remaining there over night. Then, he says, they took the Oregon Electric Line to Cornelius and started to walk to Mountaindale, where young Campbell's father has a ranch. They intended to go

MANY PURCHASERS LAST SUNDAY—PRICES ON ALL LOTS ADVANCE MARCH 1-PRICES ON SOME OF THE LOTS WILL ADVANCE WITHIN THE NEXT FEW DAYS.

The announcement a week ago that a block of view lots would for the first time be opened for sale brought a strong response from the public. Literally, hundreds of investors flocked to Alameda Park last Sunday and many lots were sold.

However, two or three of the choicest view properties in this block remain open. Besides, there is a fine selection of home sites in other portions of the Park.

A WORD IN REGARD TO PRICES.

Prices can only be judged by values. Values considered, Alameda Park lots are extremely low-priced. Lots in the neighborhood of Alameda Park, but with inferior improvements and lower ground, are priced just double what is asked for lots in this Park.

ABOUT CAR SERVICE AND OTHER IMPROVEMENTS.

The Broadway carline is operating regular schedule direct to Alameda Park. Within the very near future cars will operate through Alameda Park. Cement walks and curbing have already started and other improvements are being rushed.
