

BAITERS TO BOX AT LOS ANGELES

Local Match Between Attell and Conley Is Officially Declared Off.

NEW CARD NOW PLANNED

Possibility That "Cyclone" Thompson and Lew Powell May Be Brought Here for Exhibition on February Date.

Monte Attell and Frankie Conley will not box before the Rose City Athletic Club February 26. The match made Wednesday was declared off last night.

The reason the match was given up was that McCarey had matched the same pair for a 45-round go at Vernon on February 22. The dates in Los Angeles and here were in conflict, and as the southern engagement promised the more interesting fight and the greater profits, the Rose City Club agreed to get out of the way.

McCarey has arranged to have Attell fight Conley instead of Danny Webster, because of Conley's superior showing against Webster here last week. Webster, it is said, will be given a chance at the winner of the Attell-Conley fight.

As soon as he was released from his Portland obligation, Conley, accompanied by his brother and manager, Bob Laska, left on a late train for Los Angeles to prepare for the anticipated bout between himself and Attell.

The Rose City Athletic Club was greatly displeased with this attractive card, but the management announced that it decided to release the little boxers because it did not wish to stand in their way of getting the big purses offered by the California clubs. They are planning an exhibition to take the place of the Attell-Conley match, and will go ahead with their plans for February 25 just the same.

It is possible that "Cyclone" Thompson and Lew Powell, who meet in Los Angeles tomorrow night, will be brought to Portland to give an exhibition here on that date.

CONLEY AFTER DIAMOND BELT

Webster's Conqueror to Meet Monte Attell South February 22.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 10.—(Special.)—Manager McCarey today announced negotiations with Frankie Conley, the conqueror of Danny Webster and Monte Attell, for a 45-round fight here Washington's birthday for the diamond weight championship and the diamond belt.

McCarey has been conducting negotiations by wire with both boys for several days and finally submitted satisfactory terms today, receiving their acceptance by wire this afternoon.

Conley will leave Portland for Los Angeles tonight, having wired ahead for reservation of training quarters. Attell will also come to Los Angeles at once to start training.

This match takes the place of the Webster-Attell contest that McCarey called off yesterday. Webster and Attell in Portland February 3. Webster tried to get on with Conley for this fight, but Conley decided to put Attell on first, and the other date will be set for Webster over the same date for a later date.

RACE DATE IS YET TO BE SET

Cross-Country Run Will Be Held April 2 or April 9.

In a meeting held yesterday afternoon the Interscholastic Athletic Board decided to hold the proposed cross-country meet either on April 2 or April 9. The annual Columbia University indoor meet will be held on one of these two dates, and as soon as it is decided which, the other date will be set for the cross-country run.

It was also decided to limit the run to 2 1/2 miles, as a longer run, it was thought, would be injurious to the participants. The members of the athletic board will make an excursion tomorrow morning to decide on the course to be used.

Nothing was done in regard to the game protested by the Lincoln High team, because the officials who refereed at the time were not present at the meeting to give their versions of the matter.

O. A. C. IS BEATEN BY PULLMAN

Basketball Team From North Wins by Score of 27 to 15.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Or., Feb. 10.—(Special.)—The basketball team representing Washington State College defeated the O. A. C. team here tonight by a score of 27 to 15. The W. S. C. players seemed to be in much better condition than their opponents and this was largely responsible for their victory.

The game was fast and the scoring very even in the first half, the score being 6 to 7 in favor of the visitors at the end of the half. Shortly after the intermission the O. A. C. players seemed to tire and W. S. C. began to run up a safe margin of points.

Engelhorn, the W. S. C. center, is one of the biggest men playing basketball in the Northwest and an exceedingly fast man. Dalquist was the particular star of the game, making 16 of the 27 points made by his team. Reed and Pugh played most consistently for O. A. C.

BOYCOTT MAY BE EXTENDED

Aberdeen Citizens Object to Position of Seattle Papers.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Feb. 10.—(Special.)—That the boycott instigated by this city is not only continuing but is also gradually spreading to unexpected fields cropped out today in the report that a movement was on foot to boycott Seattle newspapers in this field, owing to the alleged unfair representation given the harbor during the present baseball controversy.

It is the contention that only news favorable to Dugdale and anti-Aberdeen movements secured space, while on the other hand the actions and statements and views of the situation from Aberdeen's standpoint were either misrepresented or else refused publication entirely.

"Personally I know nothing of the movement," said President-Manager Rowland today, "but several have asked me about it and I understand the field is being canvassed. "Why shouldn't we?" said a prominent department store man today. "If they are not giving both sides of the question in our case, how do we know but that their news is equally unreliable in other cases?"

It is possible that a boycott on Sound papers may be started," said Director Bowen of the Aberdeen club today. "While the club would probably not participate in such an action if one is inaugurated, I believe it would be supported by those who are now turning their backs to Portland. It seems reasonable now that Portland papers reach Aberdeen as quickly as do those from the Sound."

LANGFORD TAKES NEW MATCH

Liberal Terms Granted for Return Engagement With Jim Flynn.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 10.—(Special.)—Just as the train was about to leave Arcadia station with Sam Langford for San Francisco this evening, Manager McCarey of the local fight club secured his signature to a set of articles calling for a 45-round return engagement here with Jim Flynn, to be staged at Vernon on the night of March 17. McCarey had been negotiating with Joe Woodman, manager for Langford, since yesterday morning, but until late this evening Woodman refused to come out of his srouch, occasioned by the decision against Langford Tuesday night and maintained that he never would fight in Los Angeles again.

SMALL FIGHTERS WHO WILL MEET IN LOS ANGELES INSTEAD OF PORTLAND.

Frankie Conley. Monte Attell.

McCarey was determined to land the match, however, and finally offered such inducements to Langford that Woodman could not refuse and articles were signed a few moments before the train pulled out, the signatures being affixed while Woodman and Langford were sitting in their Pullman. The terms by which McCarey landed this battle were not made public tonight, but it is understood that Langford gets a guarantee of more than $500, with one-fourth interest in the moving pictures that will be made of the fight. Flynn gets a straight guarantee of $500 and also shares one-fourth of the returns from the moving pictures.

Woodman said this afternoon, before signing the articles, that he was taking Langford to San Francisco to fight Jim Flynn for Louis Biot on March 17, but the McCarey offer proved too great a temptation. Langford and Woodman continued their journey to San Francisco and will go to Cheyenne to fight Nat Dewey on Washington's birthday, returning here immediately afterward.

This gives McCarey two 45-round fights in the next five weeks, with the Conley-Attell scrap as the other.

SOCCER TEAMS ARE PREPARING

Nationals Get Men With Reputations to Strengthen Squad.

The arrival of the games that are to settle possession of the P. F. A. cup in the association football league sees the team strengthening wherever possible and two or three men with reputations who have just come to the city will be added to the Nationals against M. A. C. Saturday afternoon. One of them is Ingils, a speedy outside left wing man, who comes from San Francisco, and who played with the well-known Robert Burns club.

Another is McGuire, an Englishman, who will probably play goal. McGuire is said to have represented the army in its annual game against the navy in England as goalkeeper. Two members of the Queen's Park team have also been annexed by the Nationals by transfer. E. W. Drake and A. Matthew. There is much interest in soccer circles as to how McGuire and Ingils will perform.

Others of the Nationals will be the old relatives who get or come close to getting places on the all-star teams, when any are picked—Chas. E. Neelham, Billington and Coxon. Men to man, the team is believed superior to Multnomah's and the contest, which will begin at 6 o'clock Saturday on Multnomah field, should have all the earmarks of the game of the season so far. The players will make no changes from the regular line-up, unless someone is unable to turn up. Instead, the Crickets, will be referee.

SALT LAKE AGAIN HOPES FOR FIGHT

Saltair Beach Official After Conference Offers Wager on Outcome.

RICKARD GAINS SUPPORT

Proposal to Buy Gleason Out Is Formulated by Utah Business Men—Authorities Said to Be Secretly Willing.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 10.—(Special.)—Salt Lake City's hopes of RETAINING THE JEFFRIES-JOHNSON FIGHT ARE STRONG AGAIN.

They have almost as many lives as a cat.

Following Jack Gleason's departure for San Francisco, after a four days' conference with Tex Rickard, his partner in promoting the bout, Rickard held a conference today with officials of the Saltair Beach resort, with whom he has a contract to stage the fight.

What transpired is not known, but his close one of the beach officials was quoted as saying that he was willing to wager $5000 that the fight would stay here. There is no confirmation or denial of this report.

The business men of the city and state rallied to Rickard's support today, and tonight a proposal is forming to buy Gleason out. The sum is not known. The proposal will be submitted tomorrow to Gleason. The authorities, their declarations to the contrary notwithstanding, will not interfere. It is contended, and if Gleason does not accept the offer Utah's chances to keep the bout will not be affected.

Rickard issued many bear stories while Gleason was here, but with Gleason gone he appears as hopeful as ever and tonight he is credited by fight fans with a clever maneuver in his tales to outwit Gleason.

NELSON IS LOSING WEIGHT

Advisers Order Fighter to Stop Tossing Medicine Ball.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—(Special.)—A sudden falling off in weight of Battling Nelson has caused his advisers to order him to cut down the amount of work he does every afternoon in the gymnasium. The Battler is a willing boy when he gets into his gymnasium costume, and for that reason he has to be watched carefully. After he had finished his work today his weight was altogether too close to the limit for so many days previous to the fight, and Manager Jack Robinson is said to have expressed the opinion that he no more tossing the medicine ball and that the boxing to be taken in easier fashion.

It is possible that the Battler is taking a leaf out of the history of Joe Gans. It will be remembered that before Gans had his first Colma fight with Nelson—the one in which he lost the championship—he was away below weight. It bothered him at the time, but it was only when he entered the ring that he understood that he was not as good as he had been.

Nelson never was a heavy man in his division, but he has always had plenty of weight to take off in the past in the way of getting into condition.

TRACEY PLANS NEW SERIES

Three-Ring Contests to Be Staged Here on February 18.

Tommy Tracey intends to stage a series of exhibitions between Portland here on February 18. MATSUDA IS LOSER

Jap Wrestler Protests When O'Connell Wins Fall.

SECOND BOUT REFUSED

Local Athlete Proves Better Man Than Son of Nippon—Bad Feeling Is Shown, and Jap Draws Blood From Opponent.

BY W. J. PETRAIN. Matsuda seemingly quit, although to many it appeared he had not been downed. However, his trainer, who made himself obnoxious about the arena after the dispute arose, admitted that the Jap was "nearly" down, and Referee Arthur Cavill because of the failure of the Oriental wrestler to appear on the mat for the second fall within the time limit of 10 minutes provided by the wrestling rules.

Matsuda's manager tried to defend his entry, but was somewhat disgusted with the affair himself. He made a short talk to the fans present, declaring that Matsuda would continue providing another referee was selected, but O'Connell replied with the statement that he had no more to say. The Jap was satisfied to continue with Cavill the Jap ought to be. O'Connell's remarks were greeted with cheers, showing that the crowd was with him.

ARM BAR LOCK THROWS JAP.

Matsuda's colored trainer raged about the place like a caged lion, though at the time Cavill called the down, he went away tamely enough, and it was not until after he had held a conference with Matsuda and the latter's white manager that he rushed out of the dressing-room and protested that his man had not been downed.

The hold with which O'Connell threw the Jap was a head and arm lock, combined with a half-body scissors, and because of O'Connell's arm being about the Jap's head the colored trainer tried to assert that it was a strangle hold. During the wrangling after the fall, the minutes intermission elapsed, and the call was sent for the Jap to make his appearance, and upon his failure to show, Cavill awarded the match to O'Connell. A couple of minutes later the Jap appeared, but the decision had already been rendered, and while O'Connell seemed to reverse his ruling, and the match was ended.

While the match ended in a manner which disappointed the big crowd present, it was clear to all at the ringside that O'Connell was the better man of the two. He outpointed the Jap in all matters of wrestling tactics, and both men showed a disposition to rough it on the slightest provocation. Early in the match Matsuda butted O'Connell in the nose and the "crowder" flowed freely for a few seconds.

Referee Decision Protested.

That O'Connell was not favored by the referee was evident when both men rolled off the mat with O'Connell having the upper hand, but being returned the Jap was given the top position in spite of the protests of O'Connell's friends. The Jap is a strong rugged wrestler, but O'Connell is equally so if not his superior, for last night he seemed far the better man of the two.

The preliminary match between Gene West and Yvonne Arndt was a fast and exciting match. West won the first fall, but Arndt, with his superior experience, came back and took the next two falls handily, though West displayed enough science and agility to please the crowd. The other preliminary between Kepper and Davis was fairly and won by the former.

During the intermission, while O'Connell and Matsuda were preparing to their make their appearance, Ed

CROP OF TICKETS LARGE

TACOMA COMMITTEE OF 12 ADDS ANOTHER.

After Weeks of Labor Ballgame Is Named for Mayor—One Candidate Balks.

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 10.—(Special.)—With over 27 candidates already in the race for the five municipal offices allowed under Tacoma's new commission plan of government, the so-called "committee of twelve" came out today with another ticket. This committee was made up of three members each from the Commercial Club, Chamber of Commerce, Central Labor Council and Tacoma Improvement League. It has been laboring for weeks, meeting almost daily, trying to select a ticket which would have the endorsement of the four organizations.

Samuel R. Balkwill, a real estate dealer, was selected as candidate for Mayor after Charles H. Hyde, G. G. Ellis, W. H. Dickson and other business men of equal prominence had refused to run. A. D. Whitney was selected for controller and for the four commissioners the committee named L. L. Doud, a lumberman; Ray Freeland, present city treasurer; Clarence Parkers, a printer; and W. P. Romney, a druggist. Mr. Whitney says he will have none of it under any conditions. Mr. Balkwill is to give his answer tomorrow.

Called by men who had tired of waiting for the committee of twelve, a meeting of about 100 prominent business men was held at the Tacoma Hotel this morning to select a suitable candidate on their own hook. The chairman of the committee of twelve was present and said it had agreed upon Mr. Balkwill and the meeting thereupon endorsed him.

YEAR'S PACK LIGHT

Salmon Shipped From North Shows Falling Off.

RESTRICTIONS ARE BLAMED

Alaskan Packers Find New Field for Industry in Halibut Sent to New England Markets for Good Prices.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 25.—The salmon pack of British Columbia for the season of 1909 fell below 1,000,000 cases for the first time in many years during the period of a big run of fish, according to a report to the Department of Commerce and Labor, made by Deputy Consul-General A. E. Galpin, of Vancouver. In this report, Consul Galpin says: "The total of all kinds of salmon packed was 967,920 cases. In 1905, the year of the previous big run, the total packed amounted to 1,167,460 cases; in 1901 it amounted to 1,236,156, while in 1897 it was 1,015,477 cases. The pack of sockeyes totaled 840,441 cases in the various districts, as follows: Fraser River, 542,245; Skeena River, 8,700; Rivers, 28,927; Naas River, 28,246, and outlying districts, 62,523.

"The total pack, which includes sockeyes, red and white spring chum and pink and cohoes, was as follows: Fraser River, 567,293; Skeena River, 140,735; Rivers Inlet, 91,041; Naas River, 40,820, and outlying districts, 12,574.

Restrictions Lowered Pack. "It is said by the canners that but for the partial failure of the run in the Fraser River and the restriction of the area in which fishing was permitted on the Skeena River the season's pack would have been as large as that of 1906, the last big year.

"The fishing industry on the Pacific Coast is now attracting considerable attention, and there is a constant increase in the amount of capital being invested in this industry. The New England Fish Company, of Boston, Mass., which has a plant located in this city, from which is bonded the catch of its steamers, has just completed an extensive plant at Ketown, Alaska, at a cost of $200,000, and it is stated that an additional $250,000 will be spent at once in enlarging the WESTERN HALIBUT IN DEMAND.

Recently this concern has made several shipments of fresh halibut from Ketchikan, Alaska, by steamer to this port, for transshipment to Boston, New York and other Eastern cities, where it arrived in the best of condition and commanded the highest market price, the fish being large, weighing the transportation across the continent and arriving at destination in a firm and perfect condition. It has also sent forward to Eastern cities some eight or ten carload lots of frozen halibut from the Ketchikan plant, which, upon receipt and examination by experts in the fishing business, was pronounced to be of a superior quality and better than the average halibut offered to the trade in that section of the country.
