Speaker Addresses House as Individual Member for Appropriation Bill.

MAJORITY RULE IS UPHELD

"Uncle Joe" Maintains Responsibility Rests With Party Having Most Votes—He Always Voted For River Improvement.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—"If we lose sight of our own importance and of our position for the time being, there will come in our places better and wiser men, who will not lose sight of the necessity to provide for an orderly procedure under which a majority can work its will; where responsibility rests there must be power with the majority to move on, being responsible."

It was while Fitzgerald (Dem.), New York, had the floor that members were surprised to see the Speaker rise from a seat on the floor and inquire, "Will the gentleman from New York yield to me?" "I will yield to the gentleman—I believe from Illinois," replied Fitzgerald, smilingly.

Causes

The spirit of a publication is an actual thing. It assimilates the personality of an editor, the genius of a publisher, the talent of artists, a past of honorable progress, a future of enlightened intent—and it stands a living reality, discernible both by the people who compose it and the public for whom it is composed.

Competitors cannot duplicate this spirit behind the work, because it is not a matter of type appearance, nor page size.

The spirit of THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL is a well-known thing to the women of America, and without doubt it exerts a helpful influence upon the advertisements which are received into its company.

Perhaps you think this reasoning is fine-drawn and fantastic. It is not, and its vindication is to be found in the advertising success of our clients who bank on it.

Every effect has a cause. He is a wise advertiser who finds the cause, and then, reversing the process, works again to a still greater effect.

Comment upon the unusual turn in the betting indicated that the local fans are at sea to account for it, as they figured Memmie would be made favorite. "Both boys cut out work yesterday and will weigh in tomorrow afternoon at 6 o'clock at the lightweight limit. This means that Memmie will be from four to six pounds heavier than Powell."

With an equal break in cleverness, punch and zanyness, it is still the opinion of big bettors that so slight a margin as weight advantage will enable Memmie to win. Memmie is two pounds heavier than Powell tonight.
