SCOTS "WARM" NEW HOME

Ex-Councilman George S. Shepherd Happily Surprised by Friends.

A delegation of Scotch and American friends—mostly Scotch—treated George S. Shepherd, lawyer and ex-Councilman, to a pleasant surprise Monday night. Mr. Shepherd and his friends, Mr. and Mrs. John A. McQuinn, recently built a new home on Almsworth avenue, and they wondered who was to give it a "house-warming." Mr. McQuinn was suddenly called out of town on business, but the conspirators, headed by James H. MacDonald and James Smith, who played stirring bagpipe music, found Mr. Shepherd at home. The

LINEMAN UNDER ARREST

Daniel Clark, Electrician, Charged With Assaulting L. Stephens.

Daniel Clark, a lineman in the employ of the Portland General Electric Company, was arrested yesterday on the charge of having severely beaten L. Stephens, a lineman for the Western Union Telegraph Company. Stephens is said to be confined to his home, 52 Irving street, with a broken jaw and other painful injuries received in a fight with Clark. Clark admits the assault, but says that he was forced to strike Stephens because the latter attacked him with a heavy pair of pliers. The fight between the two men arose
