Let Himself Be Carried Off by Wave Just Before Chanzy Blew Up.

CRASH IS FIRST WARNING

Passengers Go on Deck, but Tremendous Seas Prevent Lifeboats Being Launched and Carry Off People From Steamer.

CIUDADEL, Balearic Island, Feb. 15.—
Marcel Rodel, the sole survivor of the steamer General Chanzy, which was wrecked Thursday on a reef off the Island of Minorca, today told a thrilling narrative of the terrible experience of those on board the steamer. His story follows:
"When the Chanzy left Marseilles, she encountered a rough sea and a northerly gale. The passengers were not apprehensive, however, and all retired on the night of the 9th in good spirits. At 5 o'clock the next morning I was awakened by a splitting crash, as if the ship's flank ocock the next morning I was awakened by a splitting crash, as if the ship's flank had been torn on a ledge. I dressed and hurried out of the cabin. Sallors were trying to reassure the passengers, but their words had no effect on the crowd of men and women.

The darkness added terror to the frightful scene. Enormous seas were breaking over the steamer. One searipped off a railing to which a score of women and children were clinging. Their shricks as they disappeared were drowned by the roar of the storm.

SUPREME COURT TO PASS ON WASHINGTON STATUTE.

Whether Man Must Pay Thrice for Opening Telegram Addressed to Another, Question Involved.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 15.-(Special.) Today for the first time in the history of the State of Washington the old law allowing treble damages when one person opens and reads a telegram addressed to another was brought up before the Supreme Court in the case of C. H. Deighton against Arlie Hoover and othrs. Deighton won a judgment in the ower court and Hoover had appealed. Deighton owned a timber claim in Ore-whose employ he then was, got the message, read it and then offered him some land in Yakima for his claim. The trade was effected. Deighton claims that the land he got in exchange was worth only $1400. He sayed for the same was worth only $1400. $1400. He sued for damages and the jury, awarded him $1400 to offset the difference between the value of the timber claim and the land traded. This amount the court reduced to $1000 and then trebled it, making a judgment of $3000 against Hoover, this Hoover has appealed and the Supreme Court now has the case under advisement.

TAX VIEW IS NOT GRANGE'S

Farmers and Federated Trades Not of One Opinion.

PORTLAND, Or., Feb. 15.—(To the Editor.)—I have just been handed a clipping from The Oregonian, written by Frans Metzenberger, and dated January 30, 1910. wherein he asks Mr. B. G. Leedy or my-self to explain through the medium of your paper the part taken by us as delegates to the State Grange to the late Federated Trades Annual Convention, held in this city a short time ago, in regard to a measure they propose to initiate, granting any county in the state the right to decide by majority vote what voting single tax on property within

It might be well to say that we were appointed by the State Grange as "fraappointed by the State Grange as "fra-ternal" delegates to their convention, to look after our interests that are "mu-tual," and to acquaint ourselves with their doings and manner of procedure. Of late a very warm feeling has existed between the two organizations, and in many cases we have found that we can work harmoniously together, yet, in some cases we differ and "agree to disagree," and this was the case as referred to by cases we differ and "agree to disagree," and this was the case as referred to by the brother from Salem; therefore, we informed the convention delegates that we could not indorse the proposition; that in the past the Grange had always favored and advocated the principle that all property, both real and personal, should bear its full proportion of taxation, and that we could in no way encourage or aid them in this undertaking, knowing as we did the Grange sentiment, knowing as we did the Grange sentiment, as well as that of the farming communi-

The committee in charge of the measure acquiesced with us, but it was threshed out on the floor and was carried, and I understand it is to be submitted to the voters of the state at the Novem to the voters of the state at the November election, but not as a Grange measure, and, furthermore, we do not expect to initiate any bill at that time.

And in conclusion, I will say, in all our acquaintance with organized labor we have found them well disposed toward the Grange, and while at all times we cannot coincide with them, yet we have and will derive much benefit mutually by our coming in closer touch with each other, and I stand ready at all times to other, and I stand ready at all times to defend our policy and acts, and only re-gret that I did not see the brother's arti-EUGENE PALMER.

DEMAND FOR FEE MAY CAUSE PROSECUTION TO CONTINUE.

All Ready to Dismiss Appeal and Further Indictments When Attorneys Balk.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 15 .- (Special.) -Refusal of Thomas M. Vance, attorney for Ortis Hamilton, to pay the clerk of the Supreme Court what the lawyer contends is an illegal fee, prevented the closing today of a deal under which the ex-Adjutant-General was to dismiss his ex-Adjutant-General was to dismiss his appeal to the Supreme Court from his recent conviction and go to the Penitentiary to begin serving his one to ten years' sentence, while the state on its part was to dismiss the pending informations and abandon further prosecution.

All the papers were prepared for court

All the papers were prepared for court signature this morning in the Superior Court, where formal motions of the Prosecuting Attorney to dismiss the three pending informations and the order for pending informations and the order for the signature of Judge approving such dismissal were filed. In the State Supreme Court an order was in the hands of the Chief Justice for his signature dismissing the appeal of Hamilton from his first conviction and with the clerk was left a motion of Hamilton and his attorney asking such dismissal.

But Clerk Reinhart, of the Supreme Court, refused to file the motion until a fee of $5 had been paid. All day the matter hung fire. Tonight a conference was held. Judge J. W. Robinson, one of Hamilton's attorneys, was willing to pay the fee, but Mr. Vance, the other attorney, objected. He declared there is no warrant in law for such fee and as a matter ney, objected. He declared there is no war-rant in law for such fee and as a matter of principle refused to pay.

There the matter hangs. It is an open secret that the agreement made between Governor Hay, for the prosecution, and Boyd Hamilton, for the defendant, for the dismissal of the appeal on the one side, and further prosecution on the other, has not been entirely satisfactory to either the attorneys who conducted the prosecu tion nor those of the defense and both felt they had been ignored and slighted, which accounts for the long delay in carrying out the agreement, which reached about ten days ago.

M'CONIHE WATER POWER COM-PANY HOLDINGS ILLEGAL?

Grant County (Washington) Citizens Assail-Title to Desert Land Now Worth $1,000,000.

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 15.—(Special.)—Following a meeting at Ephrata yesterday contest cases probably will be filed in Grant County involving title to 15,000 acres of land in the vicinity of Ephrata and bordering upon Moses Lake and Coulce, and the operations of the Mc-Conihe Water Power Company, a corporation formed three years ago for the purpose of taking an option on 29,000 acres purpose of taking an option on 39,000 acres of Northern Pacific Railroad land. It is reported that the McConlhe Water Power Company and associates not only exercised an option on the Northern Pa-cific lands, but all of the interly-ing sections. It is over these in-torlying sections and the water rights that the contests have been filed. The land is worth approximately $1,000,000, At the time McConihe and associates filed desert land entries upon it, it was con-sidered worthless. It is the claim of the numerous contestants that the water power company, or individuals said to be in its employ, falled to perfect their rights as entrymen and that the and at present is held ille-

When Senators and assemblymen left Albany last week the Alids-Conger case was regarded as a small mess of soiled linen. They come back for the resump-party in the state.

The Alids inquiry has now taken broader scope than was dreamed of at the start. It began when a little man named Hiram G. Moe under oath declared that he paid $5000 in cold cash to members of the Legislature in 1901 to prevent the passage of bills which would have interest the headers.

Mr. Fish's enreed resignation as Assistant Secretary took immediate effect and was promptly followed by the announcement by Mr. Fish that he is a candidate for Secretary Fish that he is a candidate for Secretary of State to succeed Howell this Fall, which means that Fish contends that Howell, as an appointive officer, will hold build until the November election vote has been canvassed, not for the full term of his predecessor. a blennial or quadrennial election.

Mr. Fish was for many years a traveling salesman and later engaged in mining in the Okanogan. He came here in 1901 as Deputy State Auditor and in 1905 went into the Secretary of State's office as Auditor and on the death of Tom Hickey became assistant, about five cears ago, and held the position until oday.

Fish had all his plans laid to become a candidate for the Secretaryship last lection, but when his chief, Sam H. Sichols, decided to seek renomination, Fish gracefully withdrew. Nichols re-signed last year under fire and since then Fish has been performing the duties under Howell. Two weeks ago, when Fish went to Seattle to attend the funeral of his mother-in-law, Mr. Howell announced that he had selected a successor in the person of Grant Hinkle, of Spokane. Fish is popular and his friends say he will put up a hard fight for the nomination. Tomorrow Fish begins work under State Auditor Claussen as examiner of state and county offices.
