Union Meat Company Builds.

VANCOUVER, Wash., March 2.— (Special).—A two-story brick block, 50x100 feet, and two stories high, will be built at Seventh and Jefferson streets, by the Union Meat Company, at A COST OF ABOUT $6000.

The bids for the building are now being considered. The excavation for the basement was started today. The company is now shipping to Vancouver five carloads of fresh meat and three carloads of smoked meats a week. This building is being built for a branch meat depot.
A spur of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railroad parallels the building.

LOVE WINS AGAINST ODDS

Parents Try in Vain to Block Chicago Girl's Wedding Here.

When Miss Norma Rannels, of Chicago, was claimed as the bride of "Jack" Hay, a local field representative of an Eastern firm, yesterday morning, an exciting romance reached a happy climax, for the young woman was compelled to overcome numerous difficulties in getting away from her parents and friends to come to this city. By traveling under an assumed name, however, the plucky young woman escaped the telegrams sent to detain her.

WELL-KNOWN PENDLETON MAN

WHO WAS BURIED IN PORT-LAND YESTERDAY.

John Hector MacLennan, of Pendleton, the Eastern Oregon representative of a large San Francisco mercantile establishment, died at St.
Vincent's Hospital on February 25 of pneumonia, complicated with other diseases, and was buried yesterday in the Rose City Cemetery. Mr.
MacLennan, who was a native of Scotland, was sick but a few days before his death. He was 46 years of age, unmarried and was well known in the eastern part of this state.

OF A DOZEN OF HIS OLD CHICAGO FRIENDS were residing here, each having married since he had last seen them. While visiting at the home of one of these friends, he suddenly made the announcement that he would get married also, and that he would telegraph as once for his sweetheart in Chicago to join him here.

CAPITAL SEEKING OREGON

London Bankers Will Finance $5,000,000 Railway Project.

A large London banking house is actively seeking investments in Oregon, according to letters that have been received by some of the prominent banking institutions in Portland and by railroad companies. The class of investments sought is the financing of first-class railway and interurban projects. The following is a copy of one of the letters received:

SMALLPOX SUSPECTS FEW

Light Outbreak in Irvington Will Have Effect in Schools.

There are only five smallpox cases in the city, according to Health Officer Wheeler. Three of these are in the Irvington district, where there has been a sudden appearance of the contagion, and the others were picked up downtown and are now in the isolation hospital.

T. C. DEVLIN HOME

Oregon Trust Receiver to Press Civil Suits.

Greatly improved after his two months' absence in California, where he went to recuperate from a nervous and physical breakdown, attendant upon his exacting duties as receiver for the suspended Oregon Trust & Savings Bank, Counselman Thomas C. Devlin arrived in Portland at 7:30 o'clock last night on the Shasta Limited from California.

HARD TASK LIES AHEAD

Rumor of Resignation as Councilman and German-American Cashier Neither Affirmed Nor Denied—Health Better.

Relative to his rumored retirement from the Council and his connection with the German-American Bank, as its cashier, Mr. Devlin would not make any statement. He admitted having heard that he had intended to resign from both positions, to enter the business world and to undertake the task of ending the bank work now on his hands, but would neither affirm nor deny either of these reports.

DUTY RESTS UPON PARENTS

They Should Accompany Children Who Go to Theater.

That the lack of parental responsibility, control and supervision day and night of their children is productive of most delinquency cases was the declaration of Probation Officer John Taucher of the Juvenile Court by his address last night at the parents' meeting held in the Sunnyside school.
The subject discussed was "Late Hours and the Evils of Moving Pictures."

Banner Acres

We have just placed upon the market one of the finest tracts of acreage ever offered Portland buyers, the subdivision of the tract known as Banner Acres. This land is on the East Side, near the University of Oregon, and is the most beautiful location in Portland. For many years this tract has remained in one ownership, unimproved, while some of the finest farms in the state are immediately adjacent. The soil is of the very finest in the valley, and for orchard or small fruits it is unequalled. You can want to make quick disposal of this tract, which we call Banner Acres, and to that end we have placed it at the low figure of $85 per acre, and on easy terms. There is no such an acreage buy now on the Portland market, and the purchaser is sure to make a large and quick profit. For Banner Acres are sure to attract the attention of the public, for slightly residence sites are in great demand.
We call the attention of real estate dealers to these lands.
We want to dispose of it quick and to the best advantage. It would be glad to take it if it is not brought to their attention.
