LOW BID EXPECTED

Mayor Simon Hopes Competition Will Save Expense.

STREET PAVING IS ISSUE

Willingness of New Firm to Lay Asphalt at $1.75 Per Yard May Bring Down Price of Bitulithic Pavement as Well.

Bitulithic pavement will soon be reduced in price from $2 to $1.75, according to Mayor Simon. He has conferred with the street committee of the Executive Board and with City Engineer Morris, and they have agreed upon a plan whereby this reduction will be brought about.

Bidder to Pay Cost.

The Warner-Quinlan Company, of New York, which bid on some streets for asphalt at the last meeting of the Executive Board, have not yet secured any contracts because of an error in their bids. The bids of G. A. Anderson, of Portland, a new figure in the paving world here, were likewise informal. All were rejected, and the City Auditor was authorized to readvertise. Expense of readvertisement will be taxed to Anderson, who was the lowest bidder.

Protest is Turned Down.

A representative of the Warner-Quinlan Company arose and entered a protest, saying that, as he was the next lowest bidder, he would object to the arrangement stated by Anderson. His attention being called to an informality of the same kind in his own bid, the representative said he thought his bid perfect, but the committee, after a brief conference, rejected all bids.

POLICE FIND CASE WEAK

Alleged Furniture Smasher, However, Held to Grand Jury.

Pauline Brown and Sam Ruby, who were arrested by Constable Wagner upon the charge of having maliciously destroyed the furniture in a room rented from Michael Goldberg, 299 Clay street, Court and at that time Judge Bennett ordered a warrant to be issued for contempt.

Gilchrist Pays His Fine.

The United States Treasury was enriched yesterday to the extent of about $1800 through the payment by John Gilchrist of the fine, including costs and interest, which was assessed against him in the Federal Court several months ago. Gilchrist is a wealthy cattleman, operating in Nevada and southwestern Oregon, who was indicted for illegally fencing public land in this state. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

Bethlehem Strikers Quiet.

SOUTH BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 3.—More men returned to work today at the Bethlehem Steel Works, where a strike is in progress, than on any day since the violent outbreak of the foreign strikers last Friday. ### Sawmill Owner Dies Suddenly.

ESTACADA, Or., March 3.—(Special.)—C. P. Davis, aged 66, one of the owners of the Davis & Webster sawmill, near Estacada, died very suddenly at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the mill, about two miles west of this town. Mr. Davis had lived in Milwaukie for a long time, and leaves besides his widow several grown children. He had often had fainting fits.

Spring Comes in Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, Wash., March 3.—(Special.)—So warm has the weather been during the past few days that many Spring flowers, including buttercups and tulips, are in bloom. The farmers are sowing seed and a number of citizens in the city are seeding their lawns and parking strips. The more industrious ones are spading up their gardens and a few are putting in flower beds. The Spring birds have arrived.

From 2,600 Acres of Asparagus You Get the Choice Selections

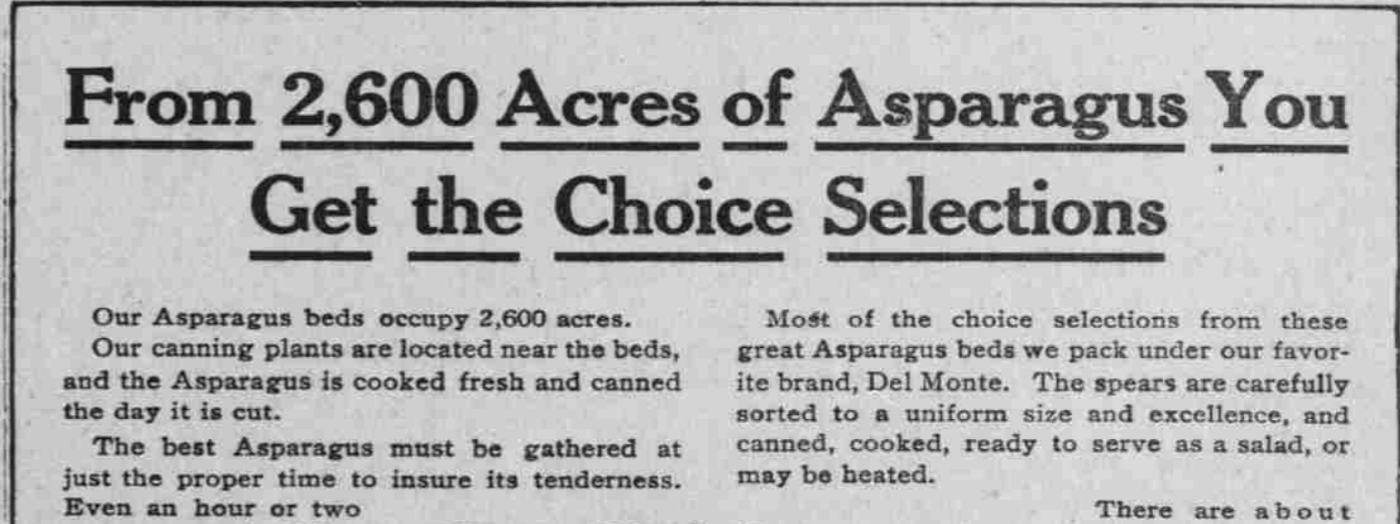

Our Asparagus beds occupy 2,600 acres. Most of the choice selections from these great Asparagus beds we pack under our favorite brand, Del Monte. The spears are carefully sorted to a uniform size and excellence, and canned, cooked, ready to serve as a salad, or may be heated.

There are about twenty-five spears in every Del Monte can.

The quality of Asparagus is determined by the thickness of the spears and by its tenderness. California Asparagus is famed the world over for its delicious flavor. Because of the care and proper handling, the Asparagus we can is also noted for its tenderness, size and color.

Del Monte is the brand under which we pack our choice qualities of canned and dried fruits, vegetables, jams, preserves, catsup, condiments and peeled Chilli peppers. We are the world's largest canners, and put up

It is always safe to insist upon Del Monte.
