Spring Silks for Easter Frocks

The Meier & Frank Store's display of Silk Fabrics for Spring is a triumph. The exquisite colorings, the true finish of the various fabrics—are testimonials to the art and skill of designer and weaver. And such assortments! It is unquestionably the greatest display that Portland has ever been invited to inspect. Women will wonder how such pretty silks can possibly be so low-priced—lower than you would expect so early in the season. Foulards are among the first mentioned this season, of which we show a large range of correct designs and colors. Shantung and Pongee Silks share popularity with Foulards. Our showing embraces popular wide-wale Shantung, Mikado diagonals, cloth-of-gold, Salome and genuine Chinese pongee in best quality. Then there are new Chanticleer Silks, new Persian Allover, new Crepe Magnet, new Crepe Messina, new Persian Stripes, new Taffeta Cameline, new Glaze Taffeta, new Jasper Silks. Our assortment selected with care, and always satisfies.

Join The New Meier & Frank Camera Club

In connection with the removal of the Camera Department to the First floor, we are inaugurating the M. & F. Camera Club, and all amateurs are cordially invited to join. At the request of our many friends who wish to feature and exploit the many beautiful scenes and views that can be taken in and about Portland, we are helping this club to start and when the enrollment reaches the number of 100, a meeting will be called, a membership committee appointed, officers elected and rules and regulations adopted. Only amateurs are eligible to membership. As an incentive to members of this club, we shall feature a kodak contest and will offer valuable prizes in kodaks and kodak supplies for the best specimens submitted. Contest open to all who join this club. No membership fee. Display room provided for the pictures entered in contest. Make inquiries about the contest when buying supplies, and be sure to put your name on the membership list. No admission fee to membership in the club.

GRANGE ENVOYS NAMED

MULTNOMAH COUNTY ELECTS STATE DELEGATES.

Convention to Meet in Oregon City May 10—Lents to Entertain Pomona Wednesday.

The county convention of Multnomah County Granges was held at Gresham Saturday to elect representatives to the State Grange, which will meet in Oregon City, May 10. Twenty-seven delegates attended from the ten granges of the county. Representatives elected were: Columbia Grange—R. P. Rasmussen, Mrs. A. C. Rasmussen; alternates, G. J. Kneirin, Mrs. E. P. Kneirin. Rockwood Grange—J. Richmond and Mrs. May Richmond; alternates, F. H. Crane and Mrs. E. Crane. Lents Grange—H. A. Darnall and Mrs. Maud Darnall; alternates, F. O. Snuffin and Mrs. T. C. Snuffin. The convention was held in the Gresham Grange hall in conjunction with Gresham Grange. The committee of the county institute also met and completed arrangements for the meeting to be held in Gresham April 14, 15 and 16. It was announced that the Oregon Agricultural College will assist in the institute. Pomona Grange of Multnomah County will be entertained by Lents Grange next Wednesday in an all-day session. As this is to be the last meeting before the sessions of the State Grange a number of important subjects will be considered. Lionel Webster, ex-County Judge, of the Oregon Good Roads Association, will speak. It has been found to be a great burden for a single grange to entertain Pomona, which now numbers nearly 300 members. Hence the policy has been adopted for grange members attending to bring baskets of provisions to assist in providing for visitors, the local grange doing the serving as formerly and Pomona Grange meeting the extra expense. This will be the first time this plan has been used for ten years.

TAY DELEGATES CHOSEN

MISSIONARY MOVEMENT WELL UNDER WAY.

Registration Begun in City Churches. Entertainment of Visitors to Be Discussed Today.

Although detailed reports have not been made, it is believed that a large proportion of the 2000 delegates desired for the convention of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, to be held in Portland March 29, 30 and 31, was secured yesterday morning in the local churches. In every Protestant evangelical congregation in the city opportunity was given to register for the convention, and the response was even more enthusiastic than had been expected. In each congregation one prominent layman had been selected in advance to have the subject in charge. At a certain point in the services an opportunity was given him to explain the movement and the ushers distributed registration cards in the congregation. These cards not only gave an opportunity for those who desired to register as delegates to the convention, but also to make reservations for the big opening banquet to be held the night of March 29. It will probably be several days before reports of the number of registrations will be made. It is known, however, that in all of the churches many cards were signed. It would not surprise the officers of the movement if 1000 delegates, or possibly more, were secured by this initial call for volunteers. There is a possibility that the entire 2000 signed up yesterday. At the regular ministerial meetings, to be held this morning, various phases of the laymen's movement will be discussed. Among other things the question of entertainment will come up. It is expected to entertain in private homes a considerable number of clergymen and others who come from a distance to attend the convention. The pastors will be requested this morning to take this up with the church members and ask for volunteer entertainers. Those who will speak before the various ministerial meetings this morning are: Episcopalian, Sanderson Reed; Methodist Episcopal, G. F. Johnson, Presbyterian, Dr. Weiss, German Evangelical, J. C. Mueckler; Congregational, A. H. Harding; Baptist, F. E. Dark. Without any solicitation many people have already called up the secretary of the movement, W. A. Lovett, at his office, 527 Board of Trade building, and offered to entertain visitors during the convention. The secretary desires to secure as many such names as possible, and would like to get into communication with all who are willing to entertain delegates.

PEPOON ANALYSIS OVER

Report of Doctor's Findings Sent to Colville—Body Arrives Here.

Completed analysis of the contents of the stomach and a portion of the liver from the body of Mrs. Edith Pepon, who met death in a lonely cabin near Northport, Wash., August 25, 1909, has been completed by Doctors Matson and Cathey. A total of about two grains of strychnine was secured and crystallized. A report has been submitted to Dr. E. B. Cook, county coroner, at Colville, Wash. George L. Pepon, husband of the woman, is still in jail at Colville under a charge of murder, and will be given a speedy trial. It is probable that both of the Portland physicians will be summoned as witnesses. Pepon married Edith Wolcott at Fortus Falls, Minn., where she was prominently identified with Epworth League work. Pepon went to the Minnesota town as an itinerant preacher. They later settled on a farm near Northport, where Pepon is charged with having administered poison following a dinner party, while the wife sat at an organ furnishing amusement for her guests. A motive for the crime is charged in the illicit love entertained by Pepon for a woman in the neighborhood named Maud Kellar, and whom he married within three months of the death of Edith Pepon. Mrs. D. W. Wolcott will arrive in the city today with the body of her daughter. Burial will be at Riverview Cemetery Tuesday afternoon. Crime in the United Kingdom costs the state about $20,000,000 a year.
