

CASEY KNOCKS ONE OVER BIG FENCE

But Portland Team Loses to White Sox by 5-to-1 Score.

"YOUNG CY" YOUNG IN BOX

Chicago's Speedy Southpaw Puts Beavers Into Camp With Exception of Captain Casey, Who Saved Team From Shutout.

SANTA MARIA, Cal., March 14.—(Special.)—McCredie's 190 Portlanders went up against the soupbaw pitcher, "Young Cy" Young, and Schmirler, of the Chicago White Sox, here this afternoon and lost, being practically helpless at bat, for Casey's two hits, one of which was a homer, were all that saved the Beavers from the disgrace of a shutout. The score was 5 to 1.

Chicago managed to collect five runs because of the erratic work of Kratsberg and the batting of "Demon" Barrows.

Despite the defeat, the Portland players are not the least bit disheartened over the result and say they will be after the big leaguers harder than ever.

Casey Plays Great Ball. In addition to holding the ball out of the lot in the ninth inning and thereby saving his club from a shut-out, Captain Casey put up a sensational fielding game in two speedy innings.

Shaw popped a Texas Leaguer over second and Mullen trotted home, Tannehill and Payne were disposed of handily and Portland took a trial at bat.

Even McCredie Was Young Victim. Rapps and Smith were the only ones to hit the ball hard while Young was pitching and the former laced out a long drive which Freddie Parent speared for a sensational catch.
