TWO ARBITRATORS NAMED

Interstate Commerce Commission Chairman and Labor Commissioner in Return to Chicago, Union's Edict Withheld.

CINCINNATI, March 15—Chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, William J. Donovan and Ellen M. Trumbull, have been named by President Wilson to arbitrate the present strike of the Cincinnati, Springfield and Bay City road. The road is one of the large systems in the country, and the strike has already involved as many as 2,000 employees.

Donovan and Trumbull were named by President Wilson in accordance with the recommendations of the President's mediation commission, which has been functioning in the field since the beginning of the year.
