Seattle woman practices in new profession.

Life of Study of Causes of Estrangement Qualifies Him to Serve in Administering Baits.

STAYLE, Wash., March 14—(Special) — Over the last one to half a dozen gable windows of the back parlor of a small residence in this city, the sun shines as a bright, cheerful contrast to the cold, wintry air that prevails outside.

Having jammed open in winter, it was to the room of the man who is to serve in administering baits.

The man, whose name is Lee, is a native of this city and has been a resident of the state for many years. He is a man of medium build, with deep-set eyes and a jowl.

Lee's wife, Mrs. Lee, is a woman of medium height, with dark hair and a pleasant face.

Lee and Mrs. Lee have been married for many years and have three children. They live in a small house on the outskirts of the city.

Lee is a man of strong character, with a decided sense of justice. He is a member of the Republican party and has been active in its affairs for many years.

Lee was chosen by the Republican convention to serve as a baiteer. He is to go to Washington, D.C., to represent the state in the matter of baits and other related matters.
