YOUNG DOCTOR ACCUSED THE IMPERIAL

JOHN FALES ARRESTED AS HE LEAVES TRAIN WITH GIRL.

Physician's Wife Notifies Girl's Father of Daughter's Plight and Arrest Is Made.

Accused of a crime against a 14-yearold girl, Dr. John Fales, a physician of Walla Walls, said to be prominent in that city, was arrested yesterday afternoon as he stepped from a Southern Pacific train at the Union Depot. With him at the time was the girl, Detectives Snow and Coleman made the arrest. The father of the girl was with the officers at the time of the arrest, he having been summoned by telegraph by the wife of the

The case dates back several months The case dates back several months, according to information secured by Capitaln Moore, of the detective bureau, when Dr. Fales took the young girl into his office in Walla Walla to work for him. A short time ago Mrs. Fales made a trip to California, taking the girl with her. She learned of the predicament the girl She learned of the predicament the girl was in end immediately telegraphed to her husband and to the girl's father. Dr. Fales then went to San Francisco. He and his wife quarreled and she decided to send the girl to her father.

Fales boarded the train at San Francisco.

cisco. On the way to Portland, however, officials on the train became suspicious, and telegraphed to the Southern Pacific office here. Captain Moore was asked by the railroad authorities to have a couple of men at the depot when the Shasta Limited arrived, and the arrest yester-day afternoon followed. Fales is 31 years old and of a preposessing appearance. He was very jaunty and unconcerned after being arrested and even attempted to joke with his jailers. Dr. Fales had nothing to say in regard to his arrest. He will be brought into court this morning.
