DEAD WASHED ASHORE

Bodies of Schooner's Crew All Found With Life Preservers.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., March 29.—Three bodies of victims of the foundering of the schooner Arthur B off the Fraser River sand heads, March 22, have been cast upon the beaches of the San Juan Islands.

The body of Bert Weeks, engineer of the craft and son of one of the owners, was identified at Friday Harbor last evening and is being shipped to Vancouver for burial.

Gifford Hallison, the cook, was found on the north end of Coos Bay. The third body was picked up on Orcas Island and has not yet been identified.

Life preservers were found on all the bodies recovered. The body of W. J. McGranahan, the captain, was picked up on an island across the bay from this city Sunday and his remains and a bundle of papers were found on Galiano Island, in an opposite direction from the wreck and 100 miles distant from the body, the same day.

Mr. Donovan's Statement.

HILLSBORO, Or., March 29.—(The Editor)—I noticed in The Oregonian on March 16 that I was indicted and in jail in Hillsboro for shooting at J. A. Thornburgh's automobile. This is an error, for I did not shoot or even point a gun at his automobile, but was acquitted by the grand jury and Mr. Thornburgh was foreman.

J. W. DONOVAN.

HILLSBORO, Or., March 29.—J. W. Donovan was brought to Hillsboro on a John Doe warrant, charged with pointing a firearm at a person. It appears that an auto driven by John A. Thornburgh of Forest Grove, and at the time foreman of the grand jury, passed the Donovan ranch. While in front of the farm a cow ran in front of the machine for some distance. Simultaneously young Donovan emerged from the house with a gun and persons in the auto thought that he was engaged over the chasing of the cow, which would go neither to the right nor left. The man in the machine heard a shot or think it was a shot and supposed the machine was shot at them, or the machine. The cow did not belong to the Donovans, and the young man adhered to the story that he neither pointed nor fired the gun, although he had been shooting at a target prior to the appearance of the machine. The grand jury took no action on the case, the young man being then discharged. The Donovans have always borne good reputations.

Let Me Tell You Something

A woman who is sick and suffering, and won't at least try a medicine which has the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is to blame for her own wretched condition.

There are literally hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering.

Read what these women say:

Camden, N. J.—"It is with pleasure that I send my testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, hoping it may induce other suffering women to avail themselves of the benefits of this valuable remedy. I suffered from pains in my back and side, sick headaches, no appetite, was tired and nervous all the time, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman—and this valuable medicine shall always have my praise."—Mrs. W. P. Valentine, 902 Lincoln Ave., Camden, N. J.

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am writing to tell you that I am pleased with your medicine. I had been sick for a long time with prolapsus. I heard about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have found that it is the right kind of medicine for me. I felt relieved after taking one bottle and I kept on taking it till now I am well and strong, and am able to do my work."—Mrs. Henry Kossow, 472 Genesee St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering from the same trouble?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.

STREET FIGHT ON

Council May Order Morrison to Be Opened.

Property Owners Remotely From Proposed Opening Declare Cost Too Great and Their Property Is Not Benefited Whatever.

COMMITTEE FAVORS PLAN

Property Owners Remotely From Proposed Opening Declare Cost Too Great and Their Property Is Not Benefited Whatever.

Morrison street, from Chapman to Twenty-first streets, will be opened, if the City Council adopts the report of the committee on streets, voted yesterday at a special meeting. After hearing the objections of F. W. Mulkey and others, and the statements of some who favored the proposed opening, the members of the committee recommended to over-ride the remonstrances.

The argument of Mr. Mulkey and those unfavorable to the opening of the street as stated is that their property has been taxed too heavily by the viewers. Some say that their property is really damaged instead of being benefited. This argument, however, did not seem sufficient to the committee, and Councilman Wallace moved that the viewers' report be adopted and the remonstrances be over-ruled. The committee then voted to open the street when heard, after which the vote was taken on the report, with the result stated.

The excess of damages over the benefits will reach about $70,000, and it is said that some of those who have remonstrated will carry the case into the courts before they will submit to the opening under the report of the viewers, owing to what they allege to be unfair assessments for benefits.

Property as far east as the Morrison-street bridge has been assessed for benefits by the viewers, but it is declared by Mr. Mulkey and others having property east of Fifth street that there is to be no benefit to their property whatever; but they state that there is great benefit to property in the immediate vicinity of the proposed opening.

The proposed opening of the street is an old question, and has been in the Council for a long time. By many it is believed to be necessary to open the street to traffic and by others it is held to be unnecessary. There was a controversy for a time as to whether the street had been opened many years ago by the action of the Council, but the City Attorney held that this would not be found so in court, as people had settled on the ground and he said that equitable control would operate in the premises. It is probable that there will be a delegation before the Council at the next session, and perhaps two, to represent to the main body the sentiments of the opposing forces.

State Employes Are Driven From Farms With Shotguns.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., March 29.—Surveyors in the employ of the state were driven off the farm of Mrs. Lewis Windust and Mrs. Peter Swanson, near Dayton, Wash., last night by the two women, who carried shotguns.

Objections to the survey of the state highway through their premises from Dayton to Walla Walla were raised by the owners. An injunction was procured by the state employes today restraining the women from further in-

A BAPTIST ELDER

Restored to Health by Vinol

"I was run down and weak from indigestion and general debility, also suffered from vertigo. I saw a cod liver preparation called Vinol advertised and decided to give it a trial, and the results were most gratifying. After taking two bottles I regained my strength and am now feeling unusually well." Henry Cunningham, Elder Baptist Church, Kingston, N. C.

Vinol is not a patent medicine—but a preparation composed of the medicinal elements of cods' livers, combined with a tonic iron and wine. Vinol creates a hearty appetite, tones up the organs of digestion and makes rich, red blood. In this natural manner, Vinol creates strength for the run-down, overworked and debilitated, and for delicate children and old people. For chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis Vinol is unexcelled.

All such persons in this vicinity are asked to try Vinol on our offer to refund their money if it fails to give satisfaction.
