winds, is the official forecast for Port-land and vicinity for today. Except Washington, where there will be a slight fall of rain, similar conditions to Portland will prevail. The barometer has fallen slightly, but is still suf-ficiently high to control the weather to a large extent in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

In marked contrast to the weather conditions which prevailed yesterday in the Middle States, Portland enjoyed a typical Spring day. The maximum temperature recorded was 63 degrees. and out of a possible 12 hours and 36 minutes of sunshine, a total of 9 hours was recorded. For several hours during the foreneon a fog bank hung over the city which shut out the sunshine. At Portland the Willamette continues
