LINGERIE TO COME HIGH HOUSEHOLD NEEDS

SPOKANE LAUNDRIES BOOST PRICES OF WOMAN'S WEAR.

Combine Agreement Includes Practically All Garments Worn by Inland City's Femininity.

FIGURANE, Wash, March 31.—(Special.)

Fluffy ruffles, delicate hingerie and the pretty undermusiins, woolens and cambrics that women love to have fresh and dainty are to pay a tithe to high prices in Spekane. SPOKANE, Wash., March 31 .- (Special.) nder an agreement maintaned between all of the big laundries of Spokane, the prices on a large number of articles have been raised recently. This includes prac-tically all garments of women. For very fancy garments of women.

For very fancy garments the price has been raised from 15 to 20 cents per garment, while on ordinary garments for women the cost has been increased from 5 to 10 cents apiece. Sheets, towels and pillowcases are also affected by the in-

FIR BARK DEEP IN SOIL Welldigger at 125 Feet Makes Unexpected Find.

VANCOUVER, Wash., March 31.— (Special.)—Fir bark at a depth of 125 feet was found by Earl Carson, three miles northwest of Vancouver, at Min-nehaha, while digging a well yester-day. While the bark is soft from decay. It is easily recognized.

cay, it is easily recognized.

It has been suggested that the bark reached that depth in the earth by falling into a crevasse left open temporarily by an upheaval or landslide. The well is being sunk on a hill, and while 4 depth of 130 feet has been reached no water has been found.
