Benny Handerson may join the Portland pitching staff about the first of May. The reinstatement of Johnny Kling opens the way to gotting Henderson back into the good graces of organized baseball and the tall pitcher will probably play with Portland for a few weeks and then join the Cleveland American team. At least that is the opinion prevailing among the baseball people here, and Henderson has had several talks with McCredie in the last two days. The score: PORTLAND.

BIBLE CLUBS PLAN ATHLETICS

Ten-Team Baseball League for Afternoon Game Outlined.

Boys of the Young Men's Christian Association Bible Clubs, composed of Sunday school classes of various churches and other similar organizations throughout the city, are planning to form an athlette league for competition this Spring. Plans for the organization will be worked out at a conference to be held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium at 6:30 P. M., April 11. The movement and has invited boys' clubs throughout the city to send delegates to the conference.

The chief object of the meeting is to organize a boys' basebalt league. The Y. M. C. A. Bible clubs will furnish several teams, and with the other organizations that are to go into the organizations that are to go into the organization. It is expected a 10-team league can be maintained. The games will be played on different fields throughout the city and will occur afternoons, after school hours.

The boys also propose to hold a track meet some time in May, and if possible the grounds of the Portland Fair and Livestock Association will be secured for that purpose. Besides the Portland clubs, several boys' organizations from Willamette Valley towns may enter teams in this meet.

TRI-CITY SEASON EVE HERE

Automobile Parade Tomorrow to Precede First Game. The 1910 season of the Tri-City Baseball League will be opened tomorrow with a big automobile parade, starting at 12:30 P. M. from Fourth and Washington streets. Later the first game will be played at the Vaughn-street baseball park, between the Dilworth Ferbles and the West Side team. Games will be played on the Vaughn-street grounds every Sunday until the opening of the Coast League season here.

The West Side team is under the management of C. J. Rupert. The team is fast and includes such well-known players and includes such well-known players and includes such well-known players as Johnny Shea, brother of Danny Shea, catcher of the Seattle club; Melvin Leke, the heady pitcher: "Whispering"

Phil Nadeau, Colly Druhot and several others with fine reputations.

The Dilworth Derbies will have McDuffy, the backstop from the Southwestern Washington League; Pete Brakke, the phenomenal twirler from Hoquiam, Wash, and Paul Irwin, of the Anaconda, Mont., Intermountain League team. Irwin has been appointed captain of the Dilworth Derbies.

The parade tomorrow will be headed by the Percy Campbell cornet band which also will give a concert before the game and will play throughout the contest. Special permission has been secured from the police department to run two autos abreast in the parade. This will be the first time this plan has ever been followed in Portland. Mayor Simon and several other Portland officials have promised to appear in the parade and to assist in the opening ceremonies. Judge Williams, ex-Mayor and the oldest fan in Portland, has promised to pitch the first ball if his health will permit.

OUTLINE COMMERCIAL LEAGUE

Meeting Tomorrow Will Discuss Admission of Six Clubs. Efforts are being made to organize a commercial baseball league to consist of six clubs. To complete the organization, a meeting will be held in the sporting goods department of the Columbia Hardware Company tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

All clubs desiring to become affillated with the organization are requested to be present at the meeting.

A handsome $50 trophy cup will be awarded to the winner of the league The Portland Marcons will play the First Infantry nine, of Vancouver, next Sunday on the barracks' diamond. The soldier boys are playing gilt-edged ball this season and the Portland youths will have to travel to win.

Coach Kennedy has not given out the uniforms yet, but will probably do so. Moore and Davis, formerly of the Oregon Agricultural College baseball team, have been assigned to infield positions, "Dutch" Knibble is being developed by Coach Kennedy into one of the speedlest infielders in the squad. Jimmy Ahern, who at one time pitched for the Creighton University team of Omaha, probably will cavort at second or third next Sunday.
