PINCHOT CHANGED MIND

TRIP TO EUROPE WAS RESULT OF SUDDEN DECISION.

Ex-Forester's Adviser Hints That Friends in Roosevelt's Party Inspired His Action.

G. S. Arnold, formerly connected with the Forest Service, but more recently appearing in the public eye as one of the attorneys representing Gifford Pinchot before the Congressional investigation committee, reached Portland yesterday.

Mr. Arnold was not inclined to discuss the merits of the charges against Mr. Ballinger as Secretary of the Interior, or the latest feature of the case, the Incognito trip of the ex-chief of the Forest Service to Europe, where it is believed that Mr. Pinchot hopes to meet ex-President Roosevelt.

"Will you state whether Mr. Pinchot did or did not receive an invitation from Colonel Roosevelt to meet him at Berlin and discuss the situation which resulted in the resignation of the Forester?" asked an Oregonian reporter.

"I cannot answer that question," said Mr. Arnold. "I will say that in the party of newspaper men, representing the American press, who first visited Colonel Roosevelt's camp on the Upper Nile, there were a number of friends of Mr. Pinchot—personal friends."

"At that time Mr. Pinchot was badly worn out and in need of rest. He has planned to go down to Florida for the fishing and to spend a number of weeks recuperating his strength. He suddenly changed his mind and prepared for the trip to Europe. You can reason on the matter as well as I can. I don't know anything more than that. If the ex-Forester went abroad under an assumed name, his intention was not known to me."

Asked as to the probability of James A. Garfield and Gifford Pinchot attempting to break into politics in their respective States of Ohio and New York, Mr. Arnold said:

"Friends of ex-Secretary of the Interior Garfield understand that he is in harmony with Republican leaders of Ohio and would not be surprised to see the son of the former President on the Republican ticket at the next election."

"I am positive that Mr. Pinchot has no desire or intention of attempting to secure recognition in New York State. If he ever again becomes identified with a National Administration, it will be in an advisory capacity."

Mr. Arnold will be in the city several days, being interested in various matters soon to appear in the courts.

WOMAN HEADS BOARD MEET

Educational Body Lets Big School-room Contract.

Mrs. L. W. Sitton presided at the meeting of the board of education yesterday, Chairman Fleischner being absent from the city. This is her first time in years that a woman has wielded the gavel during a session of the directors of the district. Business was handled with promptness and dispatch. Mrs. Sitton was chairman of the board four years ago.

The board awarded contracts for new rooms at Vernon and Clinton Kelly schools to Steele & Birtheisson for $22,000 and $12,900. The plumbing was let to Ready Bros. at $500 for the Vernon and $900 for the Clinton Kelly.

The board members discussed the proposed new high school for the West Side district, but took no definite action as to where it shall be built. They are still casting about for a lot in the central portion of the territory to be accommodated, but have not found one suitable.

SEASIDE, TOO, DECEIVED

RINGLING TAKES OPTION ON LAND FOR BIG SHOW.

Young Man With Imagination Duplicates Albany Adventure at Resort on Coast.

SEASIDE, Or., April 1.—(Special.)—Seaside extends its sympathy to Albany. Three months ago L. Ringling, Jr., visited Seaside and announced plans for bringing the Ringling Brothers show to Seaside for Winter quarters. Young Ringling, too, as in Albany, obtained options for 20 days. To accommodate him and perhaps with the thought of enhanced values, the options were given without any deposit.

What Seaside could never understand was that Ringling worked in one of the lumber camps of the Seaside Lumber & Manufacturing Company, when making the arrangements. Some skeptical and unkind persons said a few things and one day Mr. Ringling disappeared. No one has suffered.

There is no question that the young

GOLD SEEKERS GO NORTH

Steamer Victoria Sails for Alaska With 300 Passengers.

SEATTLE, April 1.—The steamship Victoria sailed for Alaska today with 300 passengers and a full cargo of freight and her departure, with adventurers crowding her decks and the wharf swarming with people, recalled Klondike days.

Twenty-five of the passengers will walk over the trail from Valdez to Fairbanks, 265 miles, and they are hastening to get in before the snow trail is destroyed by the Spring thaw.

The Victoria on her return will go on the Nome run and be succeeded on the Seward and Valdez route by the Alameda.
