ILLINOIS BATTLE IS WON BY 'WETS'

Billy Sunday's Converts Backslide at Polls and Cannon's Town Riots.

DECATUR SWITCHES BACK

Anti-Liquor Vote Gains in University Town, but Frandulent Voting by Students Is Charged. Other Changes Are Made.

CHICAGO, April 8 .- The "dry" forces received a terrific reverse in elections day, losing much of the ground they had gained in previous encounters. of Chicago on the prohibition question, the liquor interests had assembled a for the liquor interests had assembled a for-midable array of political artillery and when the option question was knocked out by the election commissioners, all these heavy guns were immediately hur-ried to various critical points down state, with the result that today many probl-bition citadeis were overturned. Chief interest in the state centered in Danville, the home of Speaker Cannon, where the semi-rioting was so fierce that where the semi-rioting was so fierce that Governor Densen ordered troops in readi-ness to move at once.

Evangelist's Work Undone.

Grape Creek township, the mining cen-ter, was the seat of the battling, Prohi-billon judges were beaten and thrown out, photographers seeking the pictures of suspects suffered severe castigation and their cameras were smashed and fighting was in procress all day.
"Billy" Sunday, the evangelist, at a great mass meeting on the eve of election, asked all who would vote against the saisons to stand up, and 10,000 arose. Yesterday's result shows that nearly, if not quit, all of these converts "back-wild" when they reached the polls, Among the larger cities in the state which switched back from the dry to the wet column were Decatur, by 500 majority; Rockford, 206; Pontiac, 137; Dixon, 1060, and Deknib, 200.

University Town in Turmoil.

The fight at Champaign, which is the home of the University of Illinois, was especially exciting. Two years ago the city went dry by the narrow margin of five votes. Yesterday the drys increased this majority to 277, but the wets assert that a large number of students voted illegally, as they are not residents. There were many fights and Alderman Matheny, a veteran official, was twice Matheny, a veteran official, was twice errested and placed under heavy bonds, it being charged that he entered a booth and assisted voters in marking hooth and assisted voters in marking tickets. The Women's Christian Temperance Union served coffee and rolls at all the voting booths, and photographers were at all booths to make snapphots of suspects.

Bleamington, which the drys expected to capture after a stirring campaign by Billy Sunday, went wet instead, by 840, a figure that astonished the managers of both sides. Mayor Carter has offended the liberal element by strict enforcement of the liquor laws, and they showed their resemment by the big vote in favor of an open town yesterday. open town yesterday

"Gumshoe" Work Wins Factories. The return of Rockford to the wet colown is attributed to the large factory vote. The wets had conducted a remarkable secret "gumshoe" campaign in all the factories but the first hint the drys had of this work was when the returns began to come in last night.
The drys put up a tremendous fight in Galesburg, with the result that they kept their town in the dry column by a majority of 311, about half their former

The saloon forces conducted a "gumshoe' campaign, but against them was the entire city press, the church element and the reformed organizations. The wo-men werb organized in blocks and personally visited every house and got the voters. They also served coffee and luncheon at the polling booths.

"Drys" Hold Mount Carroll.

Strenuous efforts were put forth by both sides to capture Mount Carroll, which is the seat of a great college for young women. The drys maintained their grip upon the city, but Savannah, only a few miles distant, will be sup-piled with salcons.

The wets had a close call in Rock Island, where the United States Arsenal is located, the dry forces cutting 800 off the wet majority of two years ago.

in Springfield, the capital, the "drys" used the recent fatal riots as a campaign issue. They reprinted the list of per-sons killed during the race riots and reproduced editorials from many showing that the riots were due to the lax method in which saloons and low dives had been conducted. Nothwithstanding the valuant battle put up by the temperance forces, the city went wet by

In Dekalb County last year, 11 men were killed when walking down the railroad tracks to Cortland, the nearest wet town, to get their drinks. This year Dekalb went wet and the drinkers who survive can get their supplies at home. A peculiar condition exists in Kanka-kee, one-half of which remains in a dry township, while the other half is in a wet township. Majorities Cut Down.

In Centralia the wet majority of 345 of two years ago was cut to 178 yesterday. Taxewell County managed to vote out one saloon. In Kane County there are now eight wet townships, seven dry and one contested. Bureau County captured one wet precinct. Tiskliwa and Will put out two mileons, but Sheffield went wet, restoring two saloons. Mineral, with three storing two saloons. Mineral, with three saloons, went dry, so the net result is the loss of three saloons in the county. The saloon forces were greatly surprised at their victory in Freeport, where they piled up a majority of 1008. They had not expected to exceed 600 and the drys were confident of victory. In this and many other cities it became apparent that the liquor forces had conducted a quiet but highly effective campaign without exciting the fears of the drys. out exciting the fears of the drys.

Prohibitionists Are Gloomy.

At the Prohibition headquarters in Chicago last night there was unmis takable gloom and disappointment while there was great exuberance and rejoicing at the headquarters of the United Societies. The latter predict that the temperance wave which has been sweeping over the country is now subsiding and that the saloon element will speedly recapture, in all states, the ground they have lost.

The anti-saloon people, white much discouraged by yesterday's results in Illinois, Wisconsin, Kansas and other states, say it does not mean anything the below the states and the states.

CHICAGO COUNCIL DEMOCRATIC 'Bath-House' John Re-Elected Alderman by Large Majority. CHICAGO, April 6.-The complexion of Chicago's City Council was changed from Republican to Democratic yester-day's election. In the 35 wards the Democrats elected 21 candidates, Re-publicans 12 and Independents 2.

The new Council will stand: Democrats, 39; Republicans, 31; Independents, 2. The latter will vote with the Republicans, but the Democrats have a compact machine with enough margin to put through any legislation. Previously they had only 17 wards in the Democratic column.

The election was characterized by a crusade by the Municipal Voters League, a non-partisan organization.

It is probable the new Council will have to deal with the problem of constructing a passenger subway and with gas and telephone rates.

The suffragettes aftempted to wedge in a vote when Dr. Sara Janson appeared at the polls and demanded a ballot. Her name appeared on the list of registered voters but she was not allowed to vote.

BILL SAFE, BORAH FEELS

$30,000,000 FUND FOR IRRIGA-TION MAY PASS.

Author Likely to Hold Up River and Harbor Sums Until He Wins. Chance Asked.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washngton. April 6.-Notwithstanding the fact that the outlook for the passage of the $30,000,000 irrigation bill is not considered bright, in view of known Eastern opposition and indirect attacks upon the bill from ex-Secretary Garfield and Director Newell, Senator Borah, author of the bill, believes the bill will become a faw this session.

It is known that it is his purpose when the river and harbor bill reaches the Senate to attach the $36,000,000 bill to the river and harbor bill as an amendment, or to hold up the river and harbord bill until action is had in the House on the irrigation bill.

While Borah has made no statement as to the details of his plan he hopes by such tactics to force consideration in the House. He is confident the bill will pass if afforded a fair chance.

BOXER BLEEDING POLICE STOP BOUT

Carroll Blocks Bennett's At-

First Exhibitions Almost as Exciting as Main Event-O. A. C. Matches Thrill Sports-West Has Issued Challenge.

Before a large crowd at the Exposition Rink Tuesday night the Oregon Athletic Club introduced Jockey Bennet and Jimmy Carroll in a return match as the principal event of the card, which comprised four boxing exhi-All of the bouts were sufficiently lively to tickle the fancy of the sports who congregated at the

The main event differed but slightly from the show put up by Bennett and Carroll on their previous appearance. Bennett opened the bout by going after Carroll in such a strenuous manner that a short route might mark the affair, but "Dancing Jimmy" rallied nicely and evened matter up before the final rounds were concluded.

The preliminary matches were exciting, and the ten rounds by Jimmy Fitten and Danny O'Brien were probably the most interesting event. The Oakland chap showed more science in the art of boxing than was displayed by any of the other lads entered on the card. It is possible, however, that Roscoe Taylor might have outshone him had Taylor's engagement with Jack Lassard gone the scheduled route. Jack Lassard gone the scheduled route. The bout was stopped as the Scattle lad opened an old cut over Lassard's left eye and it was decided best to conclude the bout instead of presenting a bloody spectacle. This happened in the second round. Lassard objected to stopping the bout, protesting vig-orously that he was able to continue.

Blood Stops Bout.

However, officials of the club, and the policemen present maintained that they desired a boxing exhibition and could not be assured that a slight tap would not again open Lassard's eye and cause more bloodsled, so the bout was ended. Taylor is the most deceiving youngster as far as his personal appearan cerned, who has stepped into the arena here this season. He is so frall in ap-pearance that every one present thought the husky built blacksmith from Oakland the husky built blacksmith from Oakland would knock him into a thousand pleces with a punch. The Seaftle lad had not been in the ring many seconds until those who had understimated him charged their opinion. He not only possessed a punch, but his ruggedness was a revelsation to those who could hardly believe such a frail physique could assert such strength. It was probably a good thing for Lassard that the bout ended as it did.

Fitten and Danny O'Brien went through ten fast rounds in the most approved.

Fitten and Danny O'Brien went through ten fast rounds in the most approved manner. The Pertland boy was outclassed as far as science and ring generalship was concerned, but he made up for what he lacked in fighting qualities by gameness. Because of his aggressiveness and staying qualities he deserves an even break with Fitten, although Fitten did not extend himself with any idea of scoring a decisive victory over O'Brien. Fitten's dashing style, and his scientific manner of boxing aroused the admiration of the crowd.

Bennett Starts Action.

Jockey Bennett commenced to battle his opponent in the most businessifice way. Carroll's eleverness is all that saved him from disaster in the earlier rounds, for Bennett was the aggressor at all times and kept Jimmy dancing away most of the time. The slender lad, however, showed himself to be Bennett's equal by eluding cleverly the wild rushes and swings sent his way. In the last two rounds he scored over Bennett in decisive fashion. Bennett will not be able to score an advantage over Carroll until he can get rid of his habit of "telegraphing" all his leads by stumping his advancing foot on the floor before delivering his blow. Nine out of ten of Bennett's leads were blocked by Carroll because he practically knew what to expect when the jockey set his left foot on the floor. It was a good bout and the crowd appreciated it.

The whole card was worth while, and even the preliminary between Exposito and Gillen, a couple of "bushers," had its good points and served
