Merry Del Val Tells Why Pope Imposed Conditions.

CINCINNATI, April 6—In a cablegram to the Cincinnati Times-Star today, Cardinal Merry del Val, through Thomas Kennedy, Rector of the American College in Rome, gives the following vision of the Roossveit-Vatican incident:

"When all is said and done it was a question of common courtesy. The Holy See did not impose on Mr. Roossveit, as has been wrongly asserted, the condition of not approaching Methodists or other non-Catholic religious bodles in Rome. There are several non-Catholic religious centers in the city which do not behave in a bitterly hostile and offensive manner toward the Pope and toward everything that His Holmess and all Catholics hold most dear.

Gilliam County Project Would Irrigate 4000 Acres.

CONDON, Or., April 5.—(Special.)— Preliminary steps have been taken by property owners residing along Rock Creek toward constructing a conservation dam in that stream by which all surplus water may be stored for irrigation purposes during the Summer months. It is conservatively estimated that the protect will provide an abundant that the project will provide an abundant water, supply for irrigating 4000 acres of bottom and bench lands. The interested farmers are enthusiastic for the project, which will double the production of their lands and increase the value in the same proportion.

A committee of three members consisting of C. W. Martin and W. G. Flett, of Olex, and J. A. McMorrie, of the city, was appointed, with instructions to make a preliminary investigation of the cost of such a dam and to ascertain the amount of water that can be conserved and the acreage that can be supplied. The com-mittee will employ a civil engineer and legal counsel and will consult with State legal counsel and will consult with State Engineer Lewis for an interpretation of the water code as to how its provisions may apply to the proposed project. The committee will submit its report at another meeting of the interested landowners at Olex on April 20, when definite plans will be formulated for proceeding with the enterprise.

The expense of the improvement will be provided by the issuance of bonds covering the lands benefited. Sufficient funds have already been subscribed to meet the expenses of the committee in conducting its preliminary work.
