PEOPLE AID COUNT

Census Bureau Receives Evidence of Interest.

CHECK WILL BE THOROUGH

Citizens Already Call for Blanks to Facilitate Giving Particulars. Supervisor Beach Visits

Eastern Oregon.

The determination by citizens of Port-land that this city shall have a thoroughly accurate census was evidenced yesterday by the visitle of numerous residents and business men to the offices of the census bureau in the Lumber Exchange building. There is evidence that April 15 will see a body of representative citizens eager to check each enumerator and villing to give him every assistance in heir power.

Some comment was made that there was every opportunity to each enumerator to do his work efficiently, by reason of the time allowed for the work. In France and England only 24 hours are allowed to complete the census. Lodging-houses and places where numbers of people congregate must be visited on or about midnight. Trains traveling at the midnight hour are boarded by an enumerator.

While more time is allowed the official enumerators in this country, that is not enumerators in this country, that is not felt to be a reason why the count should be less accurate. It is contended that with the time at the disposal of enumerators, they should be enabled to get the name of every citizen.

Numbers of residents are calling for the individual forms which enable them lo furnish all the particulars necessary. While this count may be duplicated, fu-ture checking will prevent any citizens being counted twice.

Supervisor Beach is in Eastern Oregon, where he hopes in a few personal talks to be able to clear up difficulties that have been besetting many of the rural enumerators. By notifying them before his arrival, he hoped it would be pos-sible for several of them to gather at Baker City and at towns en route. There are few local enumerators who have not yet reported, and it is expected the rest will report in the next few days.

STUDENTS TO WORK ON CENSUS

Supervisor Hendricks Fills All but 12 of 301 Places.

SALEM, Or., April 7.—(Special.)—Census Supervisor R. J. Hendricks reports that he has only 12 vacancies on his staff of 301 enumerators. These vacancies will be filled this week.

The supplies for the entire district have been sent out and receipted for. The list of census-takers includes several students in colleges and Mr. Hendricks is greatly pleased with the personnel of his staff.

STREETCAR JUMPS TRACK, RUN-AWAY MULES HIT CAR.

Waverly-Woodstock Paper Car Leaves Rails at Curve and Three Men Are Badly Jolted.

Six men and two mules figured in streetcar accidents yesterday. One of the mules had to be shot, but no man was fatally hurt.

Two men were seriously injured and a mule fatally hurt yesterday morning at Trinity Place and Washington street in a runaway which ended in a collision with a streetcar. Charles Rogers of Scenic station, on the St. Johns line and Cornellus Gallagher, the two in-jured men, are in St. Vincent's Hospi-

The men were in charge of an express wagon owned by William Lanius, known as "Albina Bill." The two mules had taken fright on Trinity Place and were running down hill toward Washington street. Portland Heights car 504, going east on Washington street, came along at this juncture. The unmanageable animal dashed into the broadside of the carsmashing the wagon tongue. The mules were thrown to the ground and the two men plitched bodily out beyon the curb. Rogers was driving angalagher was standing up in the wagon behind the seat. dered unconscious.

Rogers sustained a severe gash in the back of his head and his hand was badly incerated. Gallagher was stadly stunned that for a long time he was unable to tell anything about himwas unable to tell anything about himself except his name. Holman's ambulance was called and the injured men removed. Regers has a wife and family, while Gallagher is a single man and lives in a North End lodginghouse. Several passengers were in the car, but none was injured. Both men will recover, but one of the mules had to be shot.

Hartman, the motorman, said the acclident occurred because the sand box on the car had not worked. Officials of the railroad, however, after an exof the railroad, however, after an examination of the car, gave out a statement that the sand box and all other mechanism of the car were in good working order, and that the accident-occurred because Hartman had taken the curve at a reckless speed. Hartman said be had applied the brakes and found that the track was slippery and then resorted to the sand box to reduce the momentum, but that the sand would not flow.

The car traveled as far as the sidewalk, where it collided with a tele-walk, where it collided with a tele-phone pole and then turned over. The phone pole and then turned over. The few people inside were quickly released and the injured were able to walk to their own homes. Mr. Sapp, who re-ceived a severe gash on his left arm, was taken to the Sargent Hotel, corner of Grand and Hawthorme avenues, to the office of Dr. Stockholm, where his injuries were dressed.

B. .C. Officials Haven't Heard of Portland Canal Discovery.

VICTORIA, B. C., April 7.—(Special.)—
The British Columbia Department of Mines discredits recent reports of rich finds on the British Columbia side of the Unuk and the Taku rivers, north of Portland Canal.

Mining Recorder Daly, stationed at the Unuk, says nothing in recent reports show new discoveries, and he notes that the snow is still ten fest-on the level. Neither are discoveries reported in advices from Atlin, just received by Dr. Young and similar Winter conditions prevail on the Taku.

Taku has been thoroughly prospected of late years, since Fritz Miller passed through and discarded it on his way northward, to discover the gold-bearing streams of Atlin and found a camp there.
