AMUSEMENTS

BUNGALOW THEATER—(11th and Morrison)—May 10th in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary."

AMUSEMENTS OF WOMAN PUNISHED—Charged with impersonating an officer and with insulting a woman on the streets, Paul Hutter, a laborer, and Harry G. Smith, a carpenter, who are said by the police to be hangers-on about the Valley Cafe, First and Salmon streets, were fined $25 each yesterday by Judge Bennett in the Municipal Court.

DEPENDENT LABORER SUICIDE—Dependent over a broken arm, which would not heal and which prevented his earning his living, J. E. Pantou, a laborer, 35 years old, living at 908 Oswego street, St. Johns, committed suicide yesterday morning by swallowing poison. He was found by an employe of the St. Johns Lumber Company, but sustained a fractured arm in an accident in the mill and was sent to the hospital. For some time the broken bones would not knit, and after being treated for many weeks Pantou grew discouraged and intimated that he would end his life. He is survived by a widow and two children. One a daughter and the other a son, are grown.

METALWORKER ACCUSED OF FORGERY—E. W. Bryson, until recently an employe of J. C. Bayer, sheet metalworker, at Second and Madison streets, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective May upon a warrant charging him with forgery. The complainant against Bryson is H. A. Cline, a saloonkeeper, at Third and Taylor streets. He alleges that on Thursday Bryson passed a check for $5 on him, pretending that it had been signed by J. C. Bayer, his former employer. Bayer's signature was a forgery.

MAN FOUND HANGING FROM DOCK—John Larsen was moved from drowning early yesterday morning by the crew of the steamer Wauna. Larsen attracted the attention of Police Sergeant Klenden, who was crossing the Burnside-street bridge, by loud cries for help. He was found hanging to a rope attached to the steamer's dock at the foot of Everett street. He was almost unconscious when rescued and has been unable to give any explanation of how he came to be in this perilous position.

CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED—The new chapel of the South Mount Tabernacle Brethren Church will be dedicated tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock with appropriate services. Rev. B. E. Emerson will deliver the sermon. Dr. Hamilton Mende, president of the South Mount Tabernacle Church, and also president of the Mothers and Parents' Association will make short talks. Rev. H. C. Spafford is pastor in charge. The property is valued at $300. The main church building will be erected later.

KEPT FROM HAVING POSTOFFICE—A new postoffice station will be established on May 16, for the use of the people of Kenton, and will be the only station in Portland at which a free carrier service will not be maintained. It will begin on the old "general delivery" plan, meaning that the people must call for their mail at the office. The station will be operated at the Kenton Pharmacy. Arrangements will be made by Postmaster Young for supplying the new station with a number of daily mails.

BABY PARADE SUGGESTED—Among the many suggestions received by the East Side Business Men's Club is the novel one that there be a baby carriage division in the children's parade in the Ross Festival, in which there shall be decorated baby carriages decorated for the occasion and occupied by babies old enough to understand what is going on. Fond mothers and proud relatives are expected to decorate the carriages and push them along in the parade.

GIRLS MARRIED BY VIMPERY—Memory of the kindness shown his son when ill in Portland several months ago is believed to be the inspiration of the gift of $500 from Commodore E. H. Gerry, of New York, to the Ben shower fund of St. Vincent's Hospital. The committee has acknowledged also the gift of $100 from the Mabel E. French fund toward the same fund. As there are still many rooms to be equipped the committee intends to continue its campaign.

LAYMEN TO HOLD RALLY—There will be a rally under the direction of the Laymen's Missionary Committee, in the Methodist Episcopal Church South tonight. Dr. C. T. Hays will be the guest of honor and the principal speaker. The men of the church have prepared a good programme of music and addresses.

CITY MUSEUM GETS HUGE RELIC—A curious Indian-ceramics stone, weighing about four tons, has arrived in the terminal yards from near Umatilla. Curator Wiegand of the City Free Museum, secured it, through the courtesy of General Manager O'Brien of the O. R. & N. Mr. Wiegand heard of the relic by chance, and it was said some one intended sending it East for sale. He at once applied to Mr. O'Brien to have it shipped here and this was done. The stone bears quaint carvings by Indians. The fact is not known how the stone came to be there. It will be placed with a stonemason, who will make it presentable for a position in the City Hall.

WOODLAWY CALLER TO BE EXTENDED—Property owners on Dekum avenue, Woodlawn, have undertaken to secure the extension of the carline which at present ends at East 25th street to East Twenty-seventh street and Dekum avenue. Preliminary to this extension the city will be made up of the extension from Columbia Heights to East Twenty-seventh street. A subsidy to build the extension will be made up by the income tax. The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company will operate cars over the extension if the people build the line and guarantee running expenses.

BLAZE IN TEMPLE EXCITED—Firemen were called early yesterday morning to put out a fire in the Japanese Buddhist temple in the two-story frame building at 45 North First street. It was confined to the temple and the damage is estimated at $50.

YAMHILL COUNTY ACTIVE

Volume of Real Estate Transfers Heavy, Says McMinnville Man. "The volume of real estate transfers in Yamhill County has increased to such an extent that it was necessary recently to order the chancery clerk to be the Recorder of Deeds' office," said J. C. Cooper, secretary of the McMinnville Commercial Club, who was a visitor yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. C. Cooper. "We are enjoying a season of unprecedented prosperity in McMinnville now," he continued. "There is a great deal of real estate being transferred here."

Secretary Cooper is the man who put Oregon on the map in the Esperanto-speaking world. He was the first in this country to utilize himself with the new international language and wrote an article descriptive of Oregon for the 36 magazines in the world now published in the new tongue. Hundreds of inquiries about the state were received by the local Commercial Club as a result of the publication of the article. They came from almost every country on the globe and have been turned over to the Esperanto class at the Y. M. C. A. for interpretation and replies.

HOOR NOT ENOUGH

Bourne's Draw Schedule Generally Criticised.

TELEGRAM HASTILY SENT

Boston, With Half the Population Involved in Proportion to Number of Bridges, Has Three Hours Twice a Day.

General dissatisfaction is being expressed by business men and others, particularly East Side residents, over the narrow time limitations governing the City Council when it takes up the regulations attending the closing of the draws in bridges over the Willamette River in rush hours. Senator Bourne, who following the lead of Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, upon urgent advice from political friends here, introduced an amendment to the rivers and harbors bill providing for the closing of the draws in the City Council may regulate by ordinance, placed the hours in which the draws may be closed between 6 and 8 o'clock in the morning and between 5:30 and 6:30 in the afternoon.

Amendment Is Urged. Believing these limitations to be too narrow, the board of trustees of the Chamber of Commerce in an adjourned regular session yesterday noon directed that a telegram be sent to Senator Bourne, asking him to secure more time during which the draws may be closed. In the case of Senator Lodge, who secured a somewhat similar amendment to the bill for Boston, three hours are given morning and evening, there being 18 bridges concerned.

With only three concerned in Portland, the population across the river from the business district being almost twice as relatively great as in Boston, the number of bridges, an arbitrary time of only one hour was fixed. Realizing the unfairness of this, the Chamber of Commerce asks that the two hours both morning and evening.

"I am sure," said an officer of the Chamber yesterday, "that the City Council would be fair and I am unable to see any reason for the time limit being so short."

Little Hope Entertained. It is probable, however, that the telegram will reach the Oregon Senator too late and that the bill will leave the Senate before the much-needed amendment can be offered. The first amendment has already been approved by the Senate commerce committee, which had the bill under consideration. When it leaves the Senate further amendments will be impossible.

While this is considered better than nothing, yet is argued by those most interested that two hours could have been secured in the first place just as easily. In addition to this it is recited in criticism of the action taken that the Council would not have used all the time unless it seemed absolutely necessary to do so in this way the interests of the shipping and travel over the bridge would both be conserved.

GOOD THINGS IN THE PORTLAND MARKETS

EGGS are no cheaper this week, but are rather inclined to rise in price; and meats are behaving in similar fashion. But there is a grain of comfort in the fish market, where several varieties are slightly lower than they have been. For instance, halibut of excellent quality is to be had at 10 cents a pound and red snapper, perch and flounder at the same price. Crabs, especially the ticularly plentiful just now, and cost 10 to 20 cents each. This, however, should not affect the cost of crab salad, since celery is getting scarcer and higher in price, and what is crab salad without its fine heart celery? California salmon costs 20 to 25 cents a pound; striped bass and sea trout are about the same price. Shad is coming in more plentifully and shad, catfish and sole all cost about 15 cents a pound. Frogs' legs are to be had at 40 cents a dozen and lobster at about 40 cents a pound.

Poultry is slightly lower in price this week, but not enough to make us rush to order chicken dinner. Turkeys still cost 35 cents, duck 30 cents and geese 25 cents. Hens cost about 25 cents a pound; fryers 20 cents and broilers 25 cents.

The fruit market is enlivened by the appearance of strawberries at 25 cents a box and rhubarb at 5 to 10 cents a pound. Apples, pears, grapes, pineapples and bananas remain unchanged. Nuts are getting slightly cheaper as the season advances.

In the vegetable market asparagus is probably the most interesting feature and is getting steadily lower in price. Various grades sell at 5 to 25 cents a pound. Oregon spinach is to be had at 10 to 15 cents a pound. Other available "spring greens" are cabbage sprouts, dandelion, field chard, watercress and sorrel of lettuce. Young onions and tender pink radishes coax the Spring appetite. Young carrots are also to be had, but are not exactly the "spring" carrots of former years. Green peas of very good quality cost 20 cents and 100 house tomatoes 25 cents a pound; artichokes, 10 cents and cucumbers 25 cents each. Celery is scarcer, but there are excellent "heart-bundlers" from Florida to be had. Cauliflower is still good and fairly plentiful. Potatoes continue low in price. Mushrooms for millinaires are obtainable at $1.50 a pound.

YOUTHFUL FORGER CAUGHT Oregon Boy Held at Bank as He Presents $1700 Check. EUGENE, Or., April 8.—(Special.) Harry Stamm, 21 years old, son of A. M. Stamm, of Fairmount, a suburb of this city, was arrested at the First National Bank here today while attempting to cash a forged check for $1700. Obviously the check had been drawn by Alf Bonnett, a wealthy farmer, living north of town, in favor of C. A. Miller, Stamm adopted the check as Miller, but its spuriousness was suspected by Paying Teller Kinney as soon as the check was presented, whereupon it was returned to the cashier, F. E. Snodgrass.

The cashier quickly decided it a case of forgery and instructed the bank employes to hold the young man a few moments and notified the Sheriff's office. Bonnett, who chanced to be in the city, was also called. Bonnett recognized Stamm as the gangster who had been in his employ off and on for a year. Deputy Sheriff Parker and Fish took Stamm to jail and he will have a hearing in the morning. When questioned, Stamm said he did not know why he attempted the crime. He is of a good family and this is his first offense.
