HENEY TO SEE T. R.

Prosecutor’s Pilgrimage to Europe Is Explained.

THIRD TERM TO BE TOPIC

Information Will Be Given of Inner Workings of League in San Francisco—Land Cases Only an Incidental Consideration.

Portland friends of Francis J. Heney, prosecutor of the Oregon land frauds, yesterday announced that the purpose of his visit to Europe is to join Theodore Roosevelt. The fact that the ex-President has great confidence in the astuteness of the Western lawyer, and that Mr. Heney has been for many years one of the closest of his advisers, is given as a reason for the pilgrimage at this time.

It is believed that Mr. Roosevelt has no personal interest in the results of the Oregon land fraud cases, of which there remain for trial the charges against Ringer Hermann, ex-commissioner of the General Land Office, John N. Williamson, ex-member of Congress, and the Mays-Jones cases now pending on appeal. If these subjects are discussed at all, it is believed by friends of Prosecutor Heney that it will occur in only an incidental way.

“Inside” Story to Be Told.

It is said that the real purpose of the visit is to inform Colonel Roosevelt fully on the “inner workings” of the propaganda which is believed to be in existence throughout the United States for the nomination of the ex-President for another term in the White House in 1912. It is not a secret that the Roosevelt League, of San Francisco, is not overlooking any effort along that line, and as he is one of the leaders of the organization, Heney’s friends believe that he has been delegated to present the views of the Californians as soon as Mr. Roosevelt may be reached.

This view is supported somewhat by the announcement made by Prosecutor Heney following the close of the Hermann case, when he said that he had decided to postpone a retrial for two reasons, one of them being consideration for the advanced age of Mr. Hermann and the other because of a desire to consolidate the Hermann, Williamson, Mays and Jones cases, all charges of participation in the Blue Mountain conspiracy, if the Court of Appeals should remand Mays and Jones for retrial.

Joint Trial to Be Resisted.

It is certain that the attorneys for Hermann will resist any effort to force the ex-Congressman before a jury in connection with Mays and Jones. Hermann has heretofore been separated from his alleged confederates, and while the court has the authority to rescind and consolidate the cases without the right of appeal or laying foundation for error, it is believed that Heney would be compelled to assign urgent reasons for such action in order to be successful.

With that view of the situation in mind, friends of Mr. Heney believe that he had the visit to Colonel Roosevelt in mind when he announced his change in programme regarding the cases.

One of the closest friends of Heney announced that Colonel Roosevelt had sent for Heney to join him and that they would remain together after the meeting, returning to the United States by the same steamer. Mrs. Heney left San Francisco on Wednesday or Thursday, and will join her husband in Washington.

LOT OWNER WILL NOT PAY

Property Offered as Recreation Park for Tired Councilmen.

Rather than pay the sewer assessment of $20 against his lot in the Tanager Homestead district, Frank J. Richardson declares that he will let the city take it for payment. He wrote a letter to the Mayor and Council and suggested that the municipality might make excellent use of the property as a park “for recreation for tired and worn-out Councilmen.” The letter created merriment yesterday morning when read before the sewer committee. Richardson, who has a law office at 206 Westland building, says in his letter that his lot is at places 40 feet below the natural level, and that “a billy goat would require an aeroplane to get from the bottom to the top of it.” He entered emphatic protest against the assessment of $20 against the lot, and declared the total tax against it in 1909 was 36 cents. The committee overruled his remonstrance, but took no action on his suggestion for the use of his lot as a recreation park for worn-out and tired Councilmen.

SEASIDE FOLLOWS CHICAGO

“Catch Your Own Trout, and See It Cooked” Is Latest Fad.

SEASIDE, Or., April 8.—(Special.)—To enter a restaurant, order a mess of trout, and then before one page of the daily paper can be read, have them caught, cooked and served is the latest Seaside gastronomic fad. Yesterday M. L. Barrett, proprietor of the Gold Bar Restaurant, which is built directly over the Necanicum River, dropped a baited hook from the back door and immediately landed one of the largest trout ever caught here. The fish measured 19 3/4 inches.

TRACKWALKER SET FREE

JURY ACQUITS WATCHMAN OF BLAME FOR WRECK.

Section Foreman Tells of Trouble in Boarding-House Over Setting of Two Tables.

Samuel B. Lewis, trackwalker for the O. R. & N. Company, and an ex-soldier, was acquitted at 3:30 o’clock yesterday afternoon by the jury in Judge Gantenbein’s department of the Circuit Court, which has been trying him on a manslaughter charge. The jury was out only 15 minutes. Lewis was alleged to have deserted his post on the track between Dodson and Bonneville, on the night of November 22, last, during a heavy rain, permitting a fast freight to be ditched by running into a landslide which had washed down upon the track.

Engineer Thomas F. Rogers was scalded and crushed to death in the accident. Foreman Stith was the only witness called by the state in rebuttal yesterday morning. He was asked whether the day watchmen ate breakfast with the night men, or whether the day men had their breakfast first, and were then sent out to relieve the night men. He replied that there had been some trouble at the boarding house, and that the proprietor objected to setting two tables, but that he was about to wait until when the accident occurred.

SOCIETY HEIR TO FARMS

Grant County Man Leaves Estate to Aid Boys and Girls.

W. T. Gardner, superintendent of the Boys’ and Girls’ Aid Society of Oregon, has just returned from a trip to Canyon City, where he was called by the attorneys for the estate of W. L. Justice, who recently died and left to the Boys’ and Girls’ Aid Society all his real and personal property. This made the society heir to an undivided one-half interest in about 420 acres in Grant County and a homestead of 120 acres in Fox Valley.

“It is needless to say that the society much appreciates the benevolence of Mr. Justice,” said Mr. Gardner, “and especially so as it is the first time a farmer residing so long a distance from Portland has remembered the good work of this society. It seems that a year or so ago much active work was done in Grant County by the society in taking charge of children who were being brought up in idleness and vicious surroundings, and this generous bequest undoubtedly was the outgrowth of the interest taken by Mr. Justice and other citizens of Grant County in the work of this child-saving institution.”

WIFE LOST; “HUBBY” HERE

Moyle, B. C., Man Fears Spouse Will Shun Him When Seen.

J. S. Wilson, of Moyle, B. C., is in Portland seeking his wife, and to make matters worse, Wilson is afraid that because of his own misfortunes his wife will have nothing to do with him when she sees him. According to his story, he was kidnapped at Sandpoint, Idaho, letters he gave to be posted to his wife not being sent. Although the alleged kidnapping started as a joke, it turned out to be earnest and he says Probate Judge Pender kept him in Sandpoint as a witness. For days he has walked the streets, hoping to see his wife, Nettie Wilson.

He thinks she may be using her maiden name, Nettie Haines, believing he had deserted her. Mrs. Wilson has a friend, Minnie Wood, supposed to be living in Montavilla, but Wilson says he can find no trace of her at the address he understood was hers.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man “doesn’t feel just right,” when he doesn’t sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce’s Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can’t afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.
