

tried to get out of the house to summon help, but that his father kept him in.

help, but that his father kept him in help, but that his father kept him in. The boy says also that his father threat-ened to kill the whole family. The man formerly worked at the Northern Pacific freight sheds. He is said to have told a clergyman at Lenis that he quit because he had broken a plate ghass window, and would have had to pay $25 for putting in a new one. Others say he was discharged for drunk-enness. Those who knew him when he worked for the Northern Pacific say he was supporting five children upon $55 or $60 a month, and that he was apparently a man of good habits. He accused his wife of neglecting her household duties to go to dunces. The rouple separated has October, and the children have since then been wards of the Juvenile Court.

the Juvenile Court.

the Juvenile Court. Smoke said the trouble between himself and his wife was first caused by H. A. Taylor, who, he said, followed his wife from Winnipeg, Canada, that he might be near her. Smoke said his wife became infatuated with Taylor seven years ago when he was a boarder in their home.

LEG IS BROKEN; $5000 ASKED

Judge Cleland Denies Non-Suit in Damage Case.

The Chapman Timber Company is being sued by Jans Jorgensen before a jury in Judge Cleland's department of the Circuit Court. Jorgensen demands $5000 for lajuries sustained while at work on the company's logging road, between Scappoose and the timber belt, on September 25, 1908.

between Scappoose and the timber belt, on September 28, 1908. Jorgenson was chight by a trip line, attached to a heavy sable. This line had become entangled about a knot or limb on the log, and when draws in autorised the second stress him into such a position as to break a leg. The company contends there was no negli-gence on its part, that it was Jor-gensen's duty to see that the line did not become caught about the log. At-torneys John F. Logan and John H. Stavenson are representing Jorgensen, while Dolph. Mallory. Simon & Gearin are the company's counsel. A motion for non-suit was denied by Judge Cleinnd yesterday alternoon. The case will probably go to the jury this morning.

County Clerk Changes Made.

Tom Norton, clerk of the Justice Court, Tom Norion, clerk of the Justice Court, has taken a position as a deputy clerk under County Clerk Fields. Harvey L. Moreland, also a clerk at the Justice Court, having been appointed to take the place of C. J. Honeyman, who resigned, has also left his place, to take his former position with the Day Contracting Company.

False Arrest Damage Sult Is Lost.

L. A. Porter has jost his suit against he American Surety Company and oththe American Surety Company and oli-ers for $10,000 damages on account of false arrest. Judge Gantembein having given judgment for the defendants yesterday. Porter said he was arrested at Astori-secause he falled to return to the Gov-ernment $250 which he had received for Anse Francisco, Cal, in 188i. He began the study of music at the age of 6 years in San Francisco, devoting the first five piano. When Il years old he began the study of the violin. He went to Leipsic, in 1875 to continue his studies on both these instruments, entering the Royal Conservatory. While there he played in the Gewandbaus Orchestra. After four years he returned to San Francisco, and they are discounting the legitimate growth of the Rose City by making a showing intended to keep their city before the public.

LOCAL BOOKMAKER CAUGHT
"Tip" Ryan Alleged Violator of Gambling Laws; Gives Bonds.

ers to sell upon a commission basis. The matter will no doubt be brought

Failing to return the diamonds Young Blum was in a fix and his mother had to come to his rescue and pay for the lost gems, A complete investigation into the

A Healthful Hint. A bottle of the Hood Brewing Com-

CARD OF THANKS.

Gambling Laws; Gives Bonds. As the result of investigations made by Deputy Constable Klernan, "Tip" Ryan, a well-known local racing "sport" was arrested yesterday upon the charge of conducting a handbook on the races, prohibited under the gambling laws. Ryan gave bonds and was released. The arrest was made after disclosures in the case of J. Bhun, 322½ Seventh street, a young man who is sold to have lost $800 in this form of gambling, the money, or most of it, having been obtained by selling dia-monds obtained from local retail deal-ers to sell upon a commission basis. As the result of investigations made so as to save his time. Every employer should see to it that all his employes are properly listed and where they are out of town an effort should be made to secure the data by mail." Five of the enumerators originally ap-pointed for Portland and Multnomah county had falled to file their acceptances with Supervisor Beach up to noon yes-terday, and their removal was recom-mended by wire last night. They are Alfred E Compton, Alvin A. Kraeft, William A. Davis, Orville C. Lee and Carrie Benson. Carrie Benson

FERRY NOT TO BE TRIED Madison Bridge Will Be Done Too

Soon to Warrant Expense.

The matter will no doubt be brought before the grand jury at an early date. Data collected by young Blum and which will probably be given to the jury shows that Ryan, in partnership with Jack Cullison, conduct a racing hand-book in an office somewhere in the olty and take bets at all the leading Washington-street cigar stores. Blum, heing selsed with the gambling fever, visited several prominent jewelry stores and represented that he had the prospect of a sale for diamonds, and upon this showing secured several diamonds to show his alleged prospects. Instead of trying to sell the jewels, he Councilman Baker, 6s chairman of a special committee named to investigate the advisability of operating a ferryboat across the Willamette River at Madison instead of trying to sell the jewels, he put them in pawn to get the money to satisfy his insatiable desire for bet-

A complete investigation into the conduct of the handbook and the vari-ous places where bets have been ac-cepted for it will follow.

pany's famous Bock Beer to ward of that tired feeling. Phone E 139, B, 1319.

For the beautiful floral offerings, and for the sympathy and assistance of friends and neighbors in their re-cent bereavement of beloved wife and CHAS. J. BARNARD. CHAS. J. BARNARD. MR, AND MRS. ARTHUR BARNARD. MR, AND MRS. LEROY BARNARD. MR, AND MRS. L. E. MUNGER.

"Fix-It" CementsandGlues Seven different cements, guaranteed to stand hot or cold water, heat, f r o st and most chemicals. For mending rubber goods, china-ware, cut glass, celluloid, leather, wood, etc. Demonstration, 3d floor.

cent. This means:

ite Roc

pure silk floss; $14 $9.50 values, special, each IMPORTED MADRAS, in all the wanted colors, Oriental and conventional patterns; designed to please people of refined taste; all the most popular colors, that will match up to the decorations of any room; full 50 inches wide; our best regular $2.00 value, on $1.45 purse, containing $9, was taken. He purse, containing $9, was taken. He was jostled by two men, whose description he has given the police. Jones' Cash store, corner of First and Oak streets, was burglarized Sunday night and a number of razors stolen. Thieves also got into the Grand Leader, corner of Fifth and Morrison streets, and stole a (30 auit. H. C. Prentiss, who is camping out at Stanley Station on the Estacada line, reports that thieves entered his tent and made off with two revolvers. Mrs. C. Daniels, a nurse in training in the Good Samaritan Hospital, reports the theft of a watch from her desk in the hospital, and Mrs. Moore, living at the Ferns, 150 Eleventh street, was robbed of her purse, containing a watch and a bankbook. The purse was taken from a table in the stiting-room of the Ferns. Where she had left it for a few moments. Two offices in the Falling building, those occupied by W. G. Beck and C. H. Peterson, were entered, the desks broken open and guantity of postage stamps taken.

Benefit download the function of the new bords of the second of the secon

Sneak thleves and petty thleves worked freely in Portland yesterday, judging from the reports of small crimes received by Captain of Detec-tives Moore. R. H. Rossiter, of 940 Commercial street, was made the vic-tim of pickpockets on a "U" car, and active candidates for the convention, but Wenatchee was chosen because the association has never met in that terference, Mrs. L. C. Rothweiler: Pacific Swedish Conference, Mrs. Andrew Far-rell; Puget Sound Conference, Mrs. F. A. Guiler Report of the branch treasurer, Mis

Report of the branch treasurer, Miss Nettie M. Whitney; report of the branch associate secretary, Mrs. M. C. Wire. Noon-tide prayer, led by Mrs. David Young; announcements and benediction. 1:30 P. M.-Devotional service, led by Mrs. Benjamin Young. 2 P. M.-Report of the branch cor-responding secretary, Mrs. A. W. Fisher; solo by Mrs. L. C. Porr. 2:30 P. M.-Address, Mrs. A. E. Ayers, Bombay, India; duet by Mesdames Mil-ler and Fleming; address, Misse May B. Lilly, Malaysia, reports of committees;

Lilly, Malaysia; reports of committees; announcement, adjournment.

AUTO SCORCHERS FINED Ten Penalized by Judge Bennett for Exceeding Speed Limit on Sunday.

Ten automobile owners and drivers were arraigned yesterday in the Mu-nicipal Court before Judge Bennett, charged with violating the speed limit. Eight of them were fined. They rep-resented the Sunday crop gathered on Mount Tabor. Numerous reports have been received of the speed violations on Beimont street approaching the Mount Tabor hill and, equipped with stop watches, the police took up their station at this point on Sunday. Among those who fell into the drag-net and fined $10 were F. E. Bowman, C. Akervick. It was Akervick's second appearance on the same charge re-cently, so Judge Bennett made his fine $25 instead of $10. L. W. Elyes proved an allbl and was allowed to go.

WENATCHEE GETS EDITORS Washington Association Will Hold Convention in June. SOUTH BEND, Wash., April 11,-

(Special,)-P. A. Harelline, president of the Washington State Press Asso-ciation, announced today that the ex-ecutive committee has voted to held the next annual meeting of the asso-clation at Wenatches, probably on June 16, 17 and 18. Walls Walls and Annuartes we the

Walla Walls and Anacortes were the

"The World's Best Table Water" In New Sterilized Bottles

