TWO AFFINITIES GUILTY OF DEATH

Illinois Couple to Pay Penalty for Killing J. B. Sayler Last July.

BOTH GO TO PENITENTIARY

Dr. W. R. Miller, in Love With Sayler's Wife, Given 12 Years, and Mrs. Sayler Goes to Prison for 3 Years for Manslaughter.

WATSEKA, ML, April H .- Dr. W. R. Miller and Mrs. J. B. Sayler today were found guilty of manslaughter for the slaying of J. B. Sayler, of Crescent City, last July. John Grunden, medicine vender from Oklahoma and father of Mrs. Bayler, was acquitted.

Punishment was fixed by the jury in Dr. Miller's case at 12 years' imprisonment in the penitentiary, while imprison-ment for three years in the penitentiary was allotted Mrs. Sayler.

A general expectation was that the jury, which had been deliberating more than 16 hours, would disagree. Late in the afternoon, when more than 16 ballots had been taken, agreement was reached. Women Weep in Courtroom.

Golda Sayler sat in the courtroom be side her mother. Mrs. Sayler, who wept as she entered. When the verdict finding Mrs. Sayler guilty was read, she threw herself into the arms of her daughter and sobbed convulsively. Golda sought to comfort her mother and caressed and kissed her.

Mrs. Miller, weeping, clung to her husband when the verdict came and he clasped her to him.

For the first time since he was arrested Dr. Miller felt the grip of handcuffs as he was taken from the courtroom to jail after an affectionate farewell to his wife.

Mrs. Sayler, somewhat recovered from her emotion, walked unshackled to the cell that has been her home for many months. John Grunden, with squared shoulders, walked from the courtroom a free man. free man

Crime Is Reviewed.

The crime for which the defendants, Dr. Miller and Mrs. Sayler, were found guilty, was the slaying of J. B. Sayler in the parlor of his home.

The State, in the trial, brought out much evidence concerning the alleged in-timacy of Mrs. Sayler and Dr. Miller, and scoffed at the plea of self-defense ad-vanced with the story of the defendants that Mr. Sayler precipitated his death by attacking Dr. Miller with a hatchet.

Man Jumps From Window and May Die-Woman Wrapped in Blanket Rushes Through Flames, and Stairs Collapse.

DUBUQUE, Ia., April 11.—Two hundred sleeping people had a narrow escape from death early today in a fire which burned the Julian Hotel, one of the most prominent hostelries in the state. A number were injured in the mad rush for safety. Of these, the following are in the most serious condition:

Samuel Levy, Chicago, injured by jumping from third-story window; may die. Charles Evans. Philadelphia, internally hurt. Charles Glasser, Des Moines, several bones broken by fall from balcony.

The decision in the Bradshaw case, which has been one of the most holy-contested Court, was given today by Judge Calkins. He awarded Mrs. Effle Terriil the eighty-acre tract of land she said was given to her by her father, the late W. H. Bradshaw, a Southern Oregon ploneer.

The suit was between brother and sister. The evidence on each side was given of the family. The case has occupied two years of legal warfare, and will now be appealed to the Circuit Court. DUBUQUE, Is., April 11.-Two hundred

Many spectacular rescues were made. Despite the wild confusion, however, most of the patrons escaped without harm, but in their night clothes. Levy stood for several minutes on the window-ledge of his room, screaming for aid, and leaped just as another ladder was being rushed to the scene. He struck on the sidewalk with nothing to break the force of the blow.

the force of the blow.

Mrs. Engler first went to the window of her room and fearing to leap decided to try a rush through the fire, which was blazing in the only stairway she could reach. Wrapping a blanket around her shoulders, the frightened woman dashed through the fidames. Her clothing was burning, but she had almost reached the lower floor when suddenly the stairway sank. Firemen rushed in and dragged her outside. She suffered many painful burns, but may recover.

side. She suffered many painful burns, but may recover.

Nobody seemed to know just when the fire started. The blaze had been in progress for some time before it was discovered. One of the lodgers on the second floor smelled smoke and got up to investigate. He loudly sounded the alarm and soon the halls were filled with half-dressed people fleeing for their lives. They stumbled down the smoke-filled stairways and fell into the street. There was little order—just a wild, disorganized rush, Strangely enough, the rush succeeded in most instances, as most of the injuries suffered are not of a serious nature.

The firemen, after a hard fight, subdued the flames. The damage is estimated at $20,000.
